WITH THE EXCHANGES

Fred Currey, state representative of the Journal and W. E. Meacham, secretary of the Baker Commercial Club, were here yesterday arranging for a landing place for the airplane. A site east of the city has been selected.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wright and family returned Tuesday from a week's visit with Mrs. Wright's uncle, Ben Iremonger, Jos. Hubner, E. R. Laughlin, P. K. Barnhouse. While over in that country, Mr. and Mrs. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin visited Prineville and reported work on the McKenzie highway on the head of the Ochoco to be progressing rapidly. Mr. Wright states that in his opinion as many as 300 head of horses are being used in the construction.—Fossil Journal.

Roy Young closed a deal the past week with his father, J. S. Young, for the transfer of 1,000 acres of land, the old home place on Eight Mile. The consideration was $30,000.

The ranch is considered one of the best in the Eight Mile country. The younger Young will take possession in the fall. He is now farming in that section and has a good equipment of stock and farming implements.

The elder Mr. Young expects to go to Portland in the near future.—Heppner Gazette-Times.

The town has filled up the last two weeks with wool buyers and sheep men. The wool is coming in rapidly and will all be in and shipped by the first of July.

Up to the present date 12 cars of wool have been shipped from this point, aggregating 340,000 pounds, and it is estimated that there will be 12 carloads more to ship. Ramirez Bros., of Narrows, had the largest clip over 75,000 pounds; Murchison & Robinson, 44,000; Ham Brown, 48,000. Jim Paul has just started shearing and estimates that his clip will be about 25,000 pounds.

The buyers have paid from 45 cents to 50 cents per pound, an average of 48 cents. All but two or three clips have either been sold or consigned. The Bolton-Bodmer warehouse has been a busy place for the past three weeks as the wool has all come in at once.—The Crane American.

Lieutenant J. M. Fetters and Sergeant Owen Kissell, United States aviators, landed in Walla Walla at 6:16 Sunday evening, after being lost in the Blue mountains for two hours. The crowds had watched for the machine to appear from the southwest all afternoon when the plane was seen coming from the east.

Leaving Pendleton at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, the aviators headed for Walla Walla, but their map did not show the Umatilla river. They followed up this, passing over Bingham Springs and Elgin, in Eastern Oregon. Finally they descended to a little town to locate themselves and were amazed to discover they were at Imbler, Oregon.

They filled up with gasoline, got their bearings, flew back over Elgin and thence across the Blue mountains passing over Toll Gate and coming into Walla Walla from a direction unexpected.

This is the first time an airplane has ever penetrated into the Elgin section or flown across the Blue mountains.—Baker Democrat.

Yes, I'm the man you're looking for; I heartily approve of each progressive enterprise and every forward move. I try to help make my town just what a town should be; so when you need a booster that's the time to call on me. I'm glad you didn't pass me by; I'm much obliged to you; for anything that helps my town is bound to help me too. So walk right in—you needn't even tell me why you came. But let me take that document, and watch me sign my name. I owe it to my family to give our town my care, as well as to provide a house and decent things to wear; and since we've had Chautauquas it's becoming more and more a better town to live in than it ever was before. I'm disinclined to see it take a backward step and so I'll keep it moving the way it ought to go. So take a chair and rest your feet and lay aside your staff. You shall not go away till you collect my autograph. As Epictetus intimates, goodtowns are never made of wood and stone and mortar, but of spirits unafraid, and lofty, noble sentiments and motives true and pure—so hand that contract here, and I'll inscribe my signature. Your lectures and your music, too, our very souls inspire, your wholesome entertainments we most urgently require. Chautauqua must keep coming to this dear old town of mine so let me nail my monicker upon the dotted line.—"From A Live Citizen" by Ned Woodman in the Fossil Journal.

The Fact of the Matter

YOU can see for yourself that the Chandler is the most closely priced fine car in the whole American market. Printer's ink lends itself to the presentation of claims and facts alike. We make it our purpose, in speaking of the Chandler, to deal with facts only.

And this we believe to be the fact, that no other automobile, built so well, built of such good materials, built in such good design, is priced within hundreds of dollars of the Chandler price.

The Chandler motor is truly a great motor. There is none better. Fifty thousand Chandler owners know it. And countless thousands of their friends and neighbors know it. Now in its seventh year of constant development, without radical change of design, it approximates perfection.

The whole Chandler chassis, simple and sturdy, is dependable and enduring. And Chandler bodies, graceful in line, roomy and comfortable, luxuriously upholstered and beautifully finished, are suggestive of the best custom work.

The New Series Touring Car

will delight you and your family. It is big and handsome, seats seven grown persons without crowding, and will take you anywhere in comfort.

The Chandler is fast when you want speed. It is flexible and instantly responsive in crowded traffic. It is powerful on steep grades.
