

Prepare for "Joy Night"

Earl Hipple Concert Company Comes With Great Musical Program Last Night of Chautauqua

The Earl Hipple Concert Company has been chosen for Chautauqua's "Joy Night," the closing event of the big week. It is doubtful if a better company could have been found for this important place. With a dashing, rollicking program of music they will make the big tent a joyous spot. Pianologues, violin solos and duets, xylophone, flute and trombone solos, trios and ensemble in descriptive or fantasies, all combine to make an evening of unusual brilliancy.

Is Your Money Supporting the Government?

At this critical period in our history our manufacturers are offering their mills and our young men are offering their services to the United States government. Sergeant Gibbons Is Coming

Great Canadian War Lecturer and Writer at Chautauqua Soon

Sergeant Gibbons, who served three years overseas as a member of the first Canadian contingent, prisoner in German prison camps for seven months, is to be one of the feature lecturers of Chautauqua week. This young Canadian has an almost unparalleled record of achievement since returning. In Canada he recruited 1,200 men. Loaned to the United States government as a speaker, he sold personally seven and a half millions in Liberty bonds, raised half a million for the Red Cross and a quarter of a million in war work campaign. He is the author of a "Guest of the Kaiser" and a war lecturer extraordinary. On the evening of "Victory Day" only.

TREATY IS SIGNED; WORLD WAR ENDED

German Dreams of World Power Killed in Room Where Empire Was Born.

Paris.—In the Hall of Mirrors, in the palace of Versailles, where the German empire was born 48 years ago, Dr. Herrmann Mueller and Dr. Johannes Bell, as plenipotentiaries of the German republic, affixed their signatures to the treaty of peace, which puts an end to German dreams of world power.

The ceremony, which marked the end of war and the dawn of peace, consumed 39 minutes. Its conclusion was announced by Premier Clemenceau in the terse statement:

"The conditions of peace are now an accomplished fact. The proceedings are closed."

This ended the world conflagration, which began just five years ago with the assassination of the Austrian crown prince at Serajevo and which entailed the downfall of four empires and a score of minor kingdoms and principalities.

The charter of world peace was signed by all delegates to the peace conference with the exception of the Chinese, who were absent from the ceremony because they had been refused permission to make certain reservations regarding the Japanese occupation of Shantung.

General Jan Christian Smuts of the delegation from the Union of South Africa, signed under protest, declaring objections to certain territorial settlements and the proposal for trial of the kaiser and others held responsible for the war. He also suggested that the indemnities levied on Germany were excessive and should be moderated in order to facilitate the revival of industry in Europe.

The Germans were the first to sign and were followed by the Americans, British, French, Italians, Japanese, in the order named. Then came the smaller nations.

BIG CROWD ACCLAIMS THREE PEACE-MAKERS

Versailles.—The most dramatic moment connected with the signing of world peace came unexpectedly and spontaneously at the conclusion of this greatest ceremony in history, when President Wilson, Premier Clemenceau and Premier Lloyd George descended from the hall of mirrors to the terrace at the rear of the palace, where thousands of spectators were massed.

With the appearance of the three who have dominated the councils of the allies there began a most remarkable and unprecedented demonstration. With cries of "Vive Wilson! Vive Clemenceau! Vive Lloyd George!" dense crowds swept forward from all parts of the spacious terrace. In an instant the three were surrounded by struggling, cheering masses of people, fighting among themselves for a chance to get near the statesmen.
