Frank Hughes and wife returned yesterday from Portland, where they have been visiting friends and relatives for the past week. Oscar Houston has the local agency for two new cars, the Pan American Six, which sells for $2200, and the Olympian Four at $1475. Dr. J. H. Rosenberg and family, accompanied by George Ealer, left yesterday for Klamath Falls to attend the Elks convention. Oscar Houston has two new demonstrator cars in the city which seem to be making a hit. They are the Pan American Six and the Olympian Four. While no program is yet announced, Mr. Austin informs us that the regular band concert will be held tomorrow night at the corner of Main and Third streets. Oscar Hyde and wife returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland. While there they bought much new merchandise for their large stock of dry goods here. Chas. Shattuck and family made a trip to The Dalles the first of the week to meet their niece, Miss Blood, who returned with them and is to teach in the Prineville public school this year. Sheriff Combs went to Portland last Thursday with several samples of so-called near beer of home manufacture which is being sold in this city. He had this tested for alcoholic content and the results will be announced later.

The Standard Oil Company has purchased and sent in a new International truck to handle the local service from the company's station in this city. The truck carries a 430 gallon tank which will be sufficient for the present needs here as the hauls are short. Mr. and Mrs. John McCoy of Salem Washington, motored through on the Pacific and Columbia highways to visit their son, L. T. McCoy of this city. They are old pioneers of the Puget Sound country and are enjoying their visit here in a country so different from their home territory. R. L. Schee and Nell Newsom were among the passengers to arrive from Portland last Saturday morning. Mr. Schee has been in Portland a week attending to matters connected with the Oregon Inter-State Fair. Mrs. Newsom has been buying for Cornett & Co. during Buyers Week in the Rose City. There will be a free dance at the Club Hall Monday night following the organization of a County Post of the American Legion. There will be good music furnished by the Prineville Band, which has kindly donated its services for the occasion. All returned soldiers and their friends are urged to be present. A great quantity of social hygiene literature is being scattered over the city this week. Oregon is noted for the fact that she has the cleanest and healthiest men in the world—this was plainly demonstrated in physical examinations during the war. The Oregon Social Hygiene Society is the recognized leader among all such societies in the world and is doing all possible to keep Oregon the cleanest and best State in the Union.

Powell Butte

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rice have leased their irrigated eighty here at Powell Butte to Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Luthy of Bear Creek for a term of three years. Mr. and Mrs. Rice have not decided just where they will move to, but it will no doubt be one of the nearby towns. While visiting sheep camps with her daddy, little Harriet Wilcoxen discovered a large black bear lurking near the camp. She ran and reported it to her father, who shot it and now many of Harriet's friends are feasting on bear steak. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Martin of Los Angeles are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hobbs. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Hobbs are cousins. In order to show them some of the wonderful beauties of Oregon scenery, Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs with their guests left for Crater Lake, where they will take in the Elks convention and otherwise enjoy themselves camping for a time. About 1,000 tons of hay was recently sold in the Terrebonne country to the Northern Warehouse Company of Redmond. None, however, has as yet been sold in this section. The price paid was $25 f. o. b. railroad and balod. C. M. Charlton attended the meeting of the County Bar Association in Redmond last Thursday night. E. H. Stewart has spent several days this week hunting for a dark bay mare that got away from his place last week. She is one of his team and he needs her. She is branded F and has a wire cut on left front foot and a star in forehead. Tuesday, August 12, was Grandma Bussett's 85th birthday and Mrs. Bussett prepared a fine birthday dinner with bear meat as the crowning dish. Grandma Brey, 85 years old in June, spent the day as a special guest and also Mrs. Charlton and many interesting things were talked over by the old ladies. C. M. Charlton enjoyed a call these men, old friends, had not met in more than thirty years. Mr. Lytle felt amazed at the changes that he saw in this country, as he had lived in Prineville for many years, but moved away about 32 years ago. Mrs. Rei Powell has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Geo. Tueddale for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts and little daughter, and Mrs. Hugh Stewart with "Bill" Johnson for a guide, have gone to the huckleberry patch. Mrs. Scott Hoffine and her mother, Grandma Bussett of New Mexico, arrived Saturday night for a visit with E. A. Bussett and family. Mr. Bussett had not seen his mother and sister for many years and is sure enjoying their visit. They spent Wednesday at Opal Springs picnicing, and viewing the wonderful spring. Roy Roberts had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse while he was away at the huckleberry patch. The horse got wire cut and bled to death. It had been dead several hours when found by neighbors, who were doing the chores. Mrs. Hendershott of Portland is visiting her mother, Mrs. Curtis, at the Horrigan ranch. Bert Reynolds and family came out Sunday to visit with his Grandma Bussett, who had just arrived from Texas. Jack O'Callahan has finished haying on his ranch here and has gone to his Paisley ranch for a few days. S. D. Mustard, wife and brother, Harve, will camp and fish a few days in the mountains.

Barnes

Earnest Smith is at Dick Rhoda's place, helping finish haying. Grandma Bennett has gone to Prineville for a visit with friends and relatives. Charlie Barnes went to Bend last week where he will work in the mill again, after helping hay on his father's place near Barnes. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cox and Ray Morgan were business visitors to Prineville from Barnes last week. R. J. Enstrom and Abe Hackleman are riding for beef cattle. Mrs. Claud Seeds and Mrs. Wade Huston were visiting on the creek the first of the week. Sam Clemmans, an old-timer of this country, and Beaver Creek, passed through Barnes on his way to the J. J. Romberg ranch. Otis Elliott, and Mr. Huston, son of Wade Huston, also went to the Huston and Foster ranch to hay. CARD OF THANKS We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their many kindnesses during our recent bereavement. REUBEN BOOTEN, HENRY CRAM, JAMES CRAM.
