

Powell Butte

WSS NEWS NOTES WSS

Guy Dobson and Joe Elliott have sold their cattle to the Paulina Valley cattle raisers Association. Delivery was made Monday. It is the intention of these men to buy pure bred cattle and specialize in them hereafter and they will probably make a trip to the Willamette Valley in the near future to purchase their foundation stock.

C. M. Charlton has purchased 100 head of ewes from the J. N. Williamson flocks and will keep them on his ranches here at Powell Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Angland were Powell Butte visitors Tuesday going on to Prineville with Dan Hourigan to see the airplane in its closing flights.

Mrs. E. A. Bussett and Miss Fay Bussett motored to Sherman county last week to visit Mrs. Bussett's uncle, Ben Brown, and as the roads were so good they went on to The Dalles, where they visited the Guy Sears family, returning home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mary Brown is at her home at the Bussett ranch, after a visit at Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bayne, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Milner, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Worrell, formed a merry party at the carnival in Prineville Saturday night.

Mr. Stevens, the "stone mason" of Redmond, is at the Worrell ranch, where he is building a stone and concrete garage. Mr. Worrell made a trip to Redmond Tuesday to get the lumber.

Fred Atchison of Redmond called at the Worrell ranch Saturday.

Henry Hanson has installed a telephone in his residence.

S. D. Mustard, the potato king and grand chief exhibitor in former years at county fairs, was too busy harvesting his hay and grain crop this year to make an exhibit and it was very conspicuous by its absence.

Dominic Verges, Dan Hourigan, and Tom Cronin have returned from a business trip to Portland.

Carl Jacobson, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Jacobson, received first prize on his merry-go-round, a mechanical device built by himself. We congratulate Carl.

J. E. Elliott has purchased the place known as the old Jim Turner homestead and has secured a water right for it and will immediately set about clearing and putting it into cultivation. The purchase price was $25 per acre, we are informed.

Joe Elliott has leased his home place to Mr. and Mrs. Watson, who came here recently from Fort Rock.

They will move onto the place this month.

E. Carl Charlton has gone to Portland, where he will remain for several weeks.

DEDICATES MARCH TO AUTHOR

Prof. Warren Glaze received permission this week from both the author and publishers to name a march which he just recently composed after the book of "North of Fifty-Three." The march will be dedicated to Bertrand W. Sinclair, author of the book. Mr. Glaze was told while in Portland a short time ago by a member of a band and orchestra leaders that his march was a winner. One thousand copies have been sold in advance of publication.—Grant Co. Journal.
