

SIXTH ANNUAL DISTRICT CONVENTION REBEKAHS

The sixth annual convention of Rebekah lodges for the 33rd district of Oregon met with Eutolia Rebekah Lodge of Culver, Oregon, at 2 o'clock Friday, October 10. Chairman Edith R. Hillman, being absent the meeting was presided over by Vice Chairman Eleanor Van Fleet of Bend Lodge No. 208 and the office of Vice Chairman was occupied by Emily Cline of Redmond Lodge No. 294.

The roll call of the lodges showed the following representation: Redmond, 3 members; Bend, 7; Terrebonne, 7; Prineville, 0; Silver Lake, 0; Culver, 13; Madras, 6.

Invitations for the 7th annual convention were extended by Bend and Madras and upon a ballot being taken Bend was chosen as the next meeting place.

Sister Jarvis President of the Rebekah Assembly, was present and delivered a short address.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chairman, Sister Van Fleet of Bend; Vice-Chairman, Sister Pinkerton of Madras; Sec. Sister Gates of Terrebonne.

The president then gave instruction in the secret work and after this an adjournment was taken for supper which was served by the members of the Culver lodge, assisted by Madras members. About 75 members and visitors were present at the meal.

The evening session was honored by three Grand officers, M. R. Biggs of Prineville, Grand Warden, arriving just in time to eat.

The memorial committee reported two deaths in the district the past year: Sister Florence Newell of Juniper Lodge No. 229 and Brother C. A. Douglas of True Lodge No. 225 of Terrebonne.

Barnes NEWS NOTES

The weather is very cold and most everyone is suffering with a bad cold. Ray Morgan and C. A. Scammons went to Bend after rye.

Arthur Evert was a passenger on the stage last week, returning from Powell Butte to look after business interests near Barnes.

Claud Seeds and Henry Pickett passed through the valley enroute to Prineville with a nice bunch of cattle. Dick Rhoda and Kenneth Thompson went to Bend with a bunch of beef steers Monday.

B. G. Demaris and family returned from Prineville last week. George Tackman and family returned from Prineville after a visit with friends and relatives.

Walt Bennett of this place attended the Inter-State fair and reports an enjoyable time.

Ray Morgan is now making round trips from Barnes to Bend and back in one day, a distance of one hundred and forty-four miles. Mr. Morgan is hauling freight for the Morgan & Cox store at Barnes that is now being enlarged.

Jim and Seth Dixon passed through Barnes on their way to Prineville after a short business trip to Fife.

We understand that Walt Bennett has purchased the S. Price place, which was recently sold by the administrator, R. Price of the Price Brothers of Oregon City. Mr. Bennett intends to make his home there and everyone is pleased, as our neighborhood is in need of more people to fill up the vacant houses.

Orville Davidson of Prineville is again on the 96, tending his business and bringing in his seed rye.

DEATH OF IRENE BARNES

Miss Irene Barnes expired at a hospital in Portland Tuesday morning after an illness that has kept her to her bed since July of this year.

An operation, resorted to as soon as it was realized that she was in a critical condition, failed to afford her more than temporary relief, and she has been growing weaker for several weeks.

Funeral services will be held in this city tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock unless arrangements are altered because of the failure of two brothers to arrive, one from Idaho and the other from Burns.

Miss Barnes was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Barnes of this city, was a graduate of the Crook county high school and had many friends in this city and near by communities.

She was thirty-one years of age and was the daughter of a pioneer family well known in the history of this part of the state.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Crook County:

In the matter of the guardianship of Raymond J. Wright and Clifford Wright, Minors.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Ruth Fitzgerald, guardian of the above mentioned estate, for a license to sell the following described real estate, situated in Crook county, State of Oregon, to-wit:

The South half of the Southeast quarter of Section eight, Southwest quarter of the Southwest quarter of Section nine, and Northeast quarter of the Northwest quarter of Section seventeen, Township fourteen south of range nineteen east Willamette Meridian, for the maintenance and support of said minors, and it appearing to the court that said land is producing no income and is an expense and burden to said estate, and that it is beneficial to said wards and for the best interests of their said estate that the same be sold.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the next of kin of said wards and all persons interested in said estate appear before me in the county court room in the courthouse in Prineville, Crook county, Oregon, on the 10th day of November, 1919, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why a license should not be granted to said Ruth Fitzgerald, guardian, to sell said real estate for the purposes set forth.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a copy of this order be served on the next of kin and all persons interested in said estate by publication thereof in the Crook County Journal, a newspaper published and circulating in Crook County, Oregon, for three successive weeks, the first publication being on the 16th day of October, 1919.

Dated at Prineville, Crook County, Oregon, the 11th day of October, 1919.
