WAR-TIME DRY ACT CONSTITUTIONAL

Congress Held Not Restricted By the Signing of the Armistice.

Washington. — The war-time prohibition act was held constitutional by the supreme court.

Federal court decision in New York dismissing proceedings brought by Dryfoos, Blum & Co. to compel internal revenue officials to permit the withdrawal from bond of whisky for beverage purposes were affirmed by the court.

The signing of the armistice did not abrogate the war powers of congress, Associate Justice Brandeis said in reading the decision of the court.

The constitutional prohibition amendment is binding on the federal government as well as the states and supersedes state laws, the court declared. The judgment of the court was unanimous.

In rendering its opinion the court confined itself entirely to the war-time prohibition act and took no action on the so-called beer cases which attacked the constitutionality of the prohibition enforcement act.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION FOR OREGON CALLED

Salem, Or.—Without making any suggestions, other than setting out the five subjects of legislation which he desires considered, Governor Olcott issued a formal proclamation calling both branches of the Oregon legislature into special session in Salem on Monday, January 12.

Legislation suggested in the governor's proclamation includes an amendment to the workmen's compensation act by increasing the rates paid to injured workmen from the industrial accident fund, appropriation of money necessary properly to carry out the provisions of the soldiers', sailors' and marines' educational financial aid law and provision of funds to cover such liabilities as have been authorized by the state emergency board during the year 1919, consideration of the advisability of submitting to the voters the question of restoring the death penalty in Oregon, consideration of the question of ratifying the proposed women's suffrage amendment to the federal constitution and consideration of legislation necessary to supplement and carry out the provisions of what is known as the "state bond payment of irrigation and drainage bond interest constitutional amendment."

ALLIED DIPLOMATS CONFER

Activity in Washington Indicates That Allies May Accept Modification.

Washington. — Frequent conferences between entente diplomats here have indicated that their governments might be prepared to accept some reservations to the peace treaty in order to accomplish its ratification in the senate.

It is understood that only the illness of President Wilson has prevented him from being so advised by some of them.

It has not been made known here to what extent the entente powers might be prepared to go, but it does appear that there would be final objection to the preamble as proposed by the senate foreign relations committee, by which other powers would be required officially to record their acceptance of reservations as part of the treaty in substance.

Germans Give Way to Allied Demands

Berlin. — In her note replying to the last entente communication demanding the signing of the protocol preliminary to putting the peace treaty in effect, which has reached Paris, Germany yields in her stand on the Scapa Flow issue to a certain extent. It is learned that in the note the government reiterates its desire to have exchange of ratifications of the peace treaty effected at the earliest possible date.

6,000,000 Tons of Shipping Constructed

Washington. — The U. S. shipping board has made good its pledge to construct 6,000,000 tons of shipping in the year 1919, it is announced by John Barton Payne, chairman. By December 31 the board will have delivered 6,000,000 deadweight tons of shipping. On December 1 it had completed with in the current year 5,815,500 deadweight tons.

President Able to Walk About Room

Washington. — President Wilson is now permitted to walk about his room and along the adjoining hall for a short time each day. Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his physician, announced. The president, the doctor said, dresses himself and with the aid of a cane walks unattended.

The KITCHEN CABINET

God! make me worthy of Thy land Which mine I call a little while. This meadow where the sunset smiles Falls like a "kissing from Thy hand, And where the river singing runs "Neath wintry skies and summer suns. —Richard Watson Gilder.

RECIPES YOU WILL LIKE TO KEEP.

A French preparation for soup seasoning which is considered very choice is this: Two ounces each of sweet marjoram, parsley, savory, thyme and lemon peel and one ounce of sweet basil. The herbs are dried, the peel is also dried and all ground and sifted together until well mixed. This powder, if carefully corked in a bottle will keep indefinitely. Use it sparingly.

Ever-Lasting Yeast.—The three yeast cakes (the dry variety) in a cheese cloth, add one quart of potato water, three tablespoonfuls of sugar and let stand twelve hours. Remove the yeast and place in a glass jar well covered but not sealed. Use one cupful of the well-stirred yeast for six loaves of bread. Once or twice a week fill the jar with potato water (about the amount of liquid removed). No more yeast is added. This will keep for years if directions are carefully followed. If not enough yeast is used to renew with potato water take out some each time the potato water is added. This is the food which feeds the yeast plants and they will keep on growing.

Chutney.—This is a famous concoction well liked by our English cousins. This is the season to prepare it for winter use. Chop and cook together two hours twelve apples, skins not removed, two green peppers, one onion, one cupful of raisins, one cupful of sugar, one pint of vinegar, the juice of a lemon, one-half tablespoonful of ginger and one-half tablespoonful of salt. Put in marmalade jars or seal like jelly.

Olive Oil Pickles.—Take one hundred small cucumbers, three pints of small onions, one pint of olive oil, one ounce of celery seed, one-fourth pound of white mustard seed, one ounce of white pepper. Slice the unpickled cucumbers, cover with one and two-thirds cupfuls of salt, let stand three hours. Slice the onions and let them stand in cold water three hours, then drain and mix with the oil and spices. Pack into jars and fill the jars with good vinegar. Good to eat in ten days.

FOOD FOR OUR GUESTS.

A most wholesome and dainty dessert which is within the reach of all is:

Red Raspberry Lacto.—Take one quart of sour milk or buttermilk, add to it one egg white beaten stiff and a well-beaten yolk, one and one-half cupfuls of sugar and one-fourth of a cupful of raspberry sirup. Freeze as usual, and when half frozen add the juice of a lemon. This may be made with cherries, pineapple, strawberry or orange sirup.

Fruit Coupe.—Scald a cupful of milk, add an egg, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and a pinch of salt, and cook in a double boiler until thick. Set aside in a cool place. When cool, freeze; just before the cream is frozen add half a cupful of chopped pineapple, half a cupful of heavy cream whipped, the white of an egg beaten stiff. At serving time, fill the coupe glasses half full of the ice cream, cover with a spoonful of raspberry sirup and a spoonful of whipped cream and garnish with maraschino cherries and pieces of pineapple. Raspberry sirup may be made from canned fruit, boiling the strained juice with sugar.

Sardine Biscuits.—Make and bake small baking powder biscuits. Split while hot, spread with skinned sardines from which the bones have been removed, then flaked and moistened with the sardine oil. Return the tops to the biscuits, pile on a plate and serve hot for tea or luncheon.

Corn Oysters.—Place a pint of corn on the stove and let it simmer twenty minutes; if too dry, add a little water. Then season with one teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of butter, two tablespoonfuls of milk and pepper to taste. Cool and stir in two well-beaten eggs and a cupful of fresh crisp cracker crumbs, rolled. Put a tablespoonful of bacon fat in a frying pan, and when hot drop in spoonfuls of the batter. Cook until brown, then turn and brown on the other side.
