WSS NEWS NOTES WSS

C. O. Stover went to Prineville Monday on business.

Roy Gray was in Prineville on business the first of the week.

Mrs. Gillenwater and daughter are home from Prineville for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Post took Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. McLean.

The Koopman boys returned to their school work in Prineville the first of the week.

Elmo Pringle is confined to his bed with the grippe.

Olive DeArmond, who is attending school at Powell Butte, is spending her holiday vacation with her mother.

Miss Ethel Miller, who is teaching near Pendleton, spent her Christmas vacation on her homestead, returning to her school on Tuesday.

Ernest Elrod went to Prineville on Monday to meet Mrs. Elrod, who has been spending a month visiting her parents at Everett, Wash.

Marion Taylor is having a well drilled on his homestead. Ed. Nelson is doing the work. This is the first well to be drilled in this neighborhood. If this one proves a success others will be drilled soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Newsom entertained at dinner Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. May Stover, Mrs. Norton and Mrs. E. B. Knox, the Misses Knox, Mrs. Goldie Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. Newsom, Mr. and Mrs. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover, Ethel and Addie Miller spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stover.

Large numbers of cattle have passed through here since the storm on the way to Canant Basin, Powell Butte, Prineville and other places to be fed through the winter. Among those who have bought feed and moved their stock are D. W. Knox, J. A. Mays, R. H. Booten, D. Koopman, F. M. Wood, Ed. Laughlin, H. Lister, J. M. Hays, and O. B. Gray.

O. C. Gray is the lucky man this year. Instead of buying feed he is buying cattle to eat his surplus hay. Mr. Gray has made quite extensive improvements on his ranch in the way of building ditches and getting his land in alfalfa. He understands the importance of using plenty of water early and getting the ground thoroughly wet while there is plenty of water in the river.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Knox very generously performed the "Big Brother"

Christmas service by treating the bachelors of the neighborhood to a splendid Christmas dinner. They are deserving of great commendation for this kindness at this particular time, when despondency is at its lowest ebb in bachelorhood. A good dinner was the only way to restore the spirits of the boys and direct their attention toward the fact that there are others.

How Would You Like to Own a New Modern Home?

It is an easy matter to do so with the same money you are throwing away for rent each month.

I will loan you money to build a home with or I will build you a home to your own plans and specifications and sell it to you on terms you can handle.

Call on Me at Once, for Every Dollar You Pay Out in Rent You Have Lost

Many new homes are going to be built in Prineville this coming spring and if you plan to build see me at once.

I also have money to loan on improved city property.
