CHANDLER SIX

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

Chandler Strides into Full Leadership

If there has ever been any question as to Chandler leadership of the medium-priced fine car field, it is answered now. The great Chandler Six is sweeping its market. It displaces less efficient cars. It steps in to serve those who previously have chosen only high-priced cars. And it pleases everywhere.

From two thousand to three thousand discriminating Americans bought Chandler cars—open and closed—every month this Fall. And at no time has the demand been fully met. Thousands have waited months for their new Chandlers, and have felt repaid for waiting.

Nothing could more clearly show the regard in which America holds the Chandler Six, than the patience with which these thousands waited for weeks and months for their Chandlers. They waited because they knew what they were waiting for—because they knew it was worth waiting for.

Ben Jonson's Wit.

Whoever loves not picture is injurious to truth and all the wisdom of poetry. Picture is the invention of heaven, the most ancient and most akin to nature. It is itself a silent work, and always one and the same habit.—Ben Jonson.

Dusted With Shells.

Whole forests may be seen coated with shelly substances on the Australian continent. These encrustations are supposed to arise from the decomposition of shell fish, which, transported by the winds, are deposited in the form of dust on trees and plants.

Demand for First Cotton Bale.

The appearance of the first bale of cotton is an occasion in many markets and is sold at auction. Buyers compete for the privilege of purchasing the first bale on account of the advertising prestige, and often run the price to a very high figure.
