A good, old-fashioned "chivari" where all the community turned out, was given Mr. and Mrs. Green Beard upon their arrival at home.

J. A. Riggs has sold one of his large stacks of hay to Mr. Payne of Mitchell. Other hay has been disposed of in this section also, but there still remains a lot of hay. A hay baler has been operating on some ranches and the baled hay will all be shipped away.

Frank McCaffrey has arrived at home from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Chicago and New York. Owing to the sudden death of his father while he was there, he brought his mother home with him, to make her home in Central Oregon. Mother McCaffrey is much pleased with what she has seen of this state.

Herman K. Allen is building quite an addition to his home here at Powell Butte. He expects his sister, Mabel Allen and an elder sister, who has for many years been a teacher in Sioux City, Iowa, to arrive about Feb. 1 to make their home with him. Miss Mabel has been away nearly a year, caring for their aged father, who recently passed away.

Mrs. C. W. Martin and baby visited with her cousin, Mrs. J. A. Riggs, for several days last week. Mr. Martin is foreman at the Ochoco mines.

E. A. Bissett lost a valuable cow last week from sulphur poisoning.

John Cronin and Dominic Verges were in Prineville on business last week.

A pleasant birthday party was given January 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Shoberi in honor of Miss Leta, whose twenty-second birthday occurred that day. A pleasant evening was spent in games and conversation, at the close of which Mrs. Shoberi, assisted by Mrs. Melvin Foster and Mrs. Jess Shoberi, served delicious refreshments.

There will be a business meeting of Powell Butte Cooperative Association the first Thursday in February for the purpose of electing officers and transacting any other business that may come before the meeting.

It is hoped that there will be a full attendance of members.
