Congressional Test.

We make it a rule never to tempt the cupidty of men, but as there must be exceptions to prove rules we hereby offer two bits reward for the apprehension of any reader of the Congressional Record in whom that publication stirs less enthusiasm than in us.—Houston Post.

WEST COAST SERVICE

A painter with relatives living near Prineville, recently fell from a scaffold and died in Portland. In 1913 he had taken out insurance in the West Coast Life. In 1916 he made his third and last premium deposit. Although his death occurred nearly three years after his last payment, his wife was paid the full amount of his insurance, as provided in the Extended Insurance clause in West Coast policies.

This is but one of the many advantages of the old-line legal reserve insurance service as rendered by West Coast Life, Dolly Hodges, Local Manager. Tel. 154. Adv.

NOTICE, LADIES

Cletrac TANK-TYPE TRACTOR

20 Horse-power at the pulley—12 at the drawbar

Pulls a surprisingly big load for its size. That is because the Cletrac has succeeded in combining power with smallness. It is the ideal all-purpose tractor for the average farm. Built for hard work, it costs little for upkeep and operates at small expense. Works at all seasons, in all weather. It is the tractor you have been looking for.

Only tank-type tractor with track wheels running on Timken roller bearings. Motor is dust-proof. Air for carburetor is water-clarified. New tank-type, 8-inch-wide, single-grouser track.

Let us demonstrate the Cletrac on your own place. No obligation.
