DEADLOCK IN SENATE MAY YET BE BROKEN
Suggestions Made and Accepted Believed to Promote Eventual Agreement.
Washington.—Efforts to break the senate peace treaty deadlock and keep the treaty out of the political campaign were advanced a step when republican senators advocating ratification drew up a counter proposal to the set of compromise reservations submitted to them by a group of democrats.
The republican proposal, to which its sponsors said Senator Lodge had given tentative assent, was understood to deal only with some of the collateral issues in the reservation controversy, leaving to future negotiations the troublesome questions of article 10, and equality of voting power in the league of nations.
Some of the democratic suggestions were said to have been accepted, including a change in the republican reservation program of last session, so that the senate qualifications would not have to be accepted affirmatively by the other powers. Agreement on these changes, however, was understood to be conditional on certain concessions by democrats in regard to other reservations.
The speech of Mr. Bryan at the Jackson day banquet, which, in addition to opposing any effort to carry the treaty into the campaign, advocated the speedy compromise, was put into the senate record by Senator McCormick, republican, of Illinois, after the president's letter accepting his stand had been presented by Senator Hitchcock. Senator McCormick requested that the two "be printed in juxtaposition in view of reports that they are agreed on the treaty."

Do you know that the insulation of the Rubber Thread Willard is guaranteed for the life of the battery?

Do you know that every wooden insulated battery is shipped "wet" from the factory and that you pay for three or four months of the life of the battery while in transit or on the shelves of the jobbers and dealers, for which you get no "value received"?

Do you know that the Still Better Willard is prepared at our service station and is absolutely fresh on the very day of your purchase?

NEW LIBERTY LOAN MAY BE NECESSARY

Washington.—Another liberty loan will be necessary if congress embarks on "new fields of large expenditures or reduces the aggregate volume of taxes," Secretary Glass declared in a statement setting forth the government's financial condition. If the present tax level is retained and new expenditures are kept down, the turn has come in the tide of government financing, the secretary asserted.
Although further issues of treasury certificates of indebtedness may be expected they will be redeemed through the sale of new issues of certificates for the first time since late in 1917.
As indicative of progress made by the treasury Mr. Glass pointed to reductions between September 1 and January 1 in the nation's gross debt and in the two classes of certificates of indebtedness outstanding. The gross debt which on September 1 was $26,596,701,648, was $25,837,078,807 on January 1.

The strength of Malheur county in a financial way was well demonstrated when the $100,000 issue of road bonds sold at practically $104 for each $100 of five and a half per cent bonds.
Charles H. Collins, 40 years old, a switchman on the O. W. R. & N., committed suicide at his home in Pendleton by hanging himself to the door of the kitchen with a bathrobe cord.
Records at the University of Oregon show that 65 per cent of the male students earned part of their expense money by outside work, while 25 per cent were almost totally self-supporting.
