WEST COAST SERVICE

At age 65, 54 out of every 100 men are dependent on children, relatives, or charity, for support. Only 10 are self-supporting, 4 moderately wealthy. The rest have died, most of them with no estate.

Is this not an eloquent appeal to every man to secure good life insurance at once?

West Coast Life, represented in Prineville and vicinity by Dolly Hodges, provides in its liberal policy contracts for the needs of declining years and aid for loved ones after death, all to whatever extent the insured selects. Tel. 164. Adv.

APPLICATIONS FOR GRAZING PERMITS

NOTICE is hereby given that all applications for permits to graze cattle, horses and sheep within the Ochoco National Forest during the season of 1920 must be filed in my office at Prineville, Oregon, on or before March 1, 1920. Full information in regard to the grazing fees to be charged and blank forms to be used in making applications will be furnished upon request.

WEST COAST SERVICE

A painter with relatives living near Prineville, recently fell from a scaffold and died, in Portland. In 1913 he had taken out insurance in the West Coast Life. In 1916 he made his third and last premium deposit. Although his death occurred nearly three years after his last payment, his wife was paid the full amount of his insurance, as provided in the Extended Insurance clause in West Coast policies.

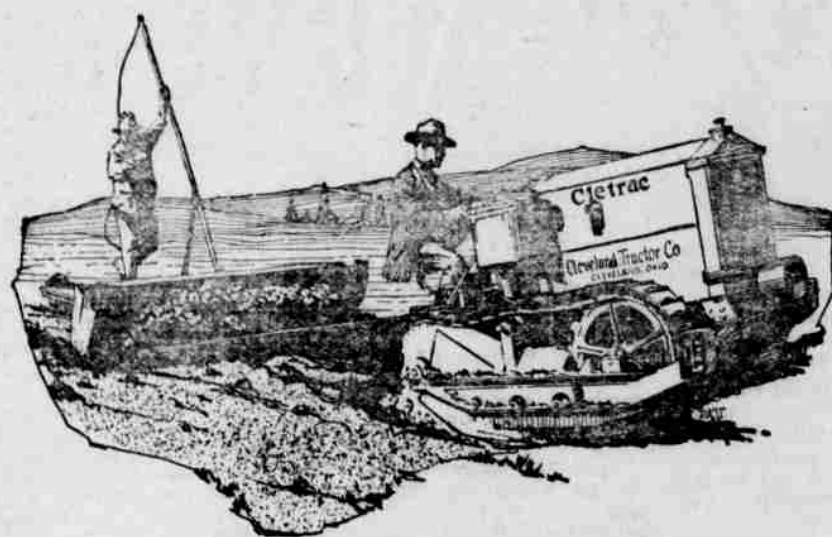

This is but one of the many advantages of the old-line legal reserve insurance service as rendered by West Coast Life. Dolly Hodges, Local Manager. Tel. 164. Adv.

Cletrac TANK-TYPE TRACTOR

20 Horsepower at the pulley—12 at the drawbar

Dependable power always ready for use. Endurance almost limitless. Clears road of stumps and stones. Hauls the plows, scarifiers, scrapers, graders, heavy rollers and wagon trains. The Cletrac can do this because it is small and hence easy to handle, yet has power you wouldn't expect in a tractor of its size. Its record for road work is one to be proud of.

Large roller bearings in all track-wheels. Dust-proof motor. New tank-type, 8 inch wide, single-grouter track.

A practical demonstration shows more than we can tell. Why not let us arrange one? No obligation attached.
