

TREATY AGAIN IS BEFORE SENATE

Peace Pact Brought up For Consideration Monday; Bitter Fight Forecast.

Washington. — The peace treaty, which has lain in a parliamentary pigeonhole since November 19, while a basis for its ratification was unsuccessfully sought in private negotiations, was brought formally before the senate again Monday.

Although prompt agreement is expected generally on many of the minor points at issue, a long and bitter contest is forecast over article 10 and perhaps a few other treaty provisions. The leaders on both sides profess to see some hope of ratification, but other senators believe the deadlock certain to continue until the controversy has been fought out in the presidential campaign.

Besides the outstanding issues of the treaty, the most prominent subject of discussion among senators was the letter of President Wilson laid before the democratic conference and made public by Senator Hitchcock. The president's renewed declaration of opposition to some of the language of the republican reservations were interpreted in different ways.

Some declared the letter an uncompromising reiteration of the stand taken by the president on the eve of the November ratification vote and asserted that its publication had widened the breach between the democratic and republican forces. Others, professing to see new evidences of concession in the president's words, predicted an opposite effect.

Although the president's letter was written before publication of the statement of Viscount Grey regarding reservations, in some quarters it was suggested that the letter would not have been permitted to become public if the British statesman's views had resulted in any change in the president's position.

TROOPS REPULSE KENTUCKY MOB

Lexington, Ky.—Four persons were killed and fifteen were wounded here when a mob intent upon lynching William Lockett, a negro, who confessed to the murder of 10-year-old Geneva Hardman, charged the court house during Lockett's trial and was fired upon by police and state troops. Two women were reported to be among those shot by the state troops.

The clash with the soldiers held off the mob while the authorities managed to slip the negro away to a place of safety.

Great trouble was caused by the shooting and there were mutterings of further trouble.

While the mob, the ring-leaders of which carried a rope, was attempting to get into the court house to get Lockett, a jury found him guilty of first degree murder and a minute or two later the negro was sentenced to die in the electric chair March 11.

LANE TO RETIRE MARCH 1

Both President and Secretary Express Regret at Serving Relations.

Washington.—President Wilson accepted, effective March 1, the resignation of Franklin K. Lane, for nearly seven years secretary of the interior.

Letters exchanged between the president and Secretary Lane, which were made public, indicate that good feeling marked the retirement. Both the president and Lane expressed regret. Lane resigned, it is understood because it was necessary for him to earn more money than a cabinet officer's salary.

Among those being mentioned are Alexander T. Vogelsang, first assistant to Lane; James Hawley of Boise, former governor of Idaho, and ex-Senator John F. Shafroth of Colorado. Many Western senators, it is understood, favor Vogelsang.

CHARLES C. O'NEIL

SALVATION ARMY HOME SERVICE

Just what way the Salvation Army can work more effectively in helping to eliminate, or to take care of certain social happenings and conditions, and how the country may use the Army's trained organization and institutional facilities, will be determined by a Salvation Army Advisory Board formed here in Prineville March 1, 1929.

These men see in the Salvation Army Home Service Program for 1929, an opportunity to obtain social service, more closely approximating that given by the Army for many years in the larger cities.

The board was organized at a meeting held in Jay H. Upton's offices. After the plan had been explained by Elmer S. Turner, field representative for the Salvation Army, and thoroughly discussed by those present, Jay H. Upton was chosen chairman of the board and Robert Douglas vice-chairman. A. W. Battles was chosen secretary.

Other members of the board are Judge N. G. Wallace, Geo. P. Reames, Mayor D. F. Stewart, J. E. Myers, Mrs. Wilda Belknap, W. P. Herahay, C. W. Elkins, Hugh Lakin, Harold Baldwin, Geo. Euston, Mrs. C. S. Edwards.

Other members will be selected by the board from the surrounding country.

The first duty of the board will be to make a study of social conditions in Prineville and Crook county on the following subjects: Poverty, unemployment, juvenile delinquencies and illegitimacy and make a report to the State Army Headquarters. In this way the Army will know how they can best help. The findings of the board will be strictly confidential and used only to guide the Salvation Army officers in determining their action in this county.

It is not anticipated that social conditions will be found worse in this county than in any of the others, but the board believes the study will be of great value in revealing opportunities for work by the Army in fields not now covered by any existing charitable or religious organization.

The board will constitute the link through which Crook County may call upon the Salvation Army for assistance, for its girls who may be in trouble, poverty, etc., at any time, while the Army in turn through its report on the local situation will be able to make its work more efficient.

This is the last bargain to be had under the Ochoco Project, as the land is advancing fast and many tracts are selling for $20 per acre more than is asked for this place.

R. L. Schee

Prineville, Oregon

Every county in Oregon will soon have such a board. Every county in the U. S. will have such a board, just as rapidly as they can be formed. All this is being done by the Salvation Army for the betterment of humanity.

SQUIBS FROM THE McCALLUM SERMONS

"Truth resisted loses its power over the soul; This is the boundless danger confronting men of clear and practiced minds who come with questions about Truth, and yet, do not intend to rule their lives by the answer; Who hide their inward unrest upon sneering words, test divine things, religious beliefs with flippant brilliancy, as tho they were tit-bits of human delusion; Cultivate the habit of doubt because it excuses self-deception, until at last, Truth makes no longer any impression, each rejection makes the next that much easier. At length God steps throwing Truth at him; He has committed the Unpardonable Sin!"

"That is the supreme tragedy of a human life, when a man or woman comes down to the level of their innermost thoughts."

"Any system of education, 'Kultur' that must defy or strangle conscience, and rest its success upon Force or Greed, draws upon its head the universal hate of God and man."

"Humanism had to seed the world down with Atheism before it could drink to a world massacre in cups of grinning skulls."

"Soft-Job" men fill the markets; Big jobs cry for responsible men; hard work makes some wit, and some wisdom; there is the mat and the ropes, take your own measure."

"The law says the average life is with $5,000.00. A cigarette costs one cent. Yet there are more idiots who will pay that one cent to burn what little brain the have; and yet people wonder why the 'fool-killer' calls so often."

"Years ago on a London street an evangelistic service was held; the song, 'I'll Go With Him Thru the Garden,' and 'I'll Go With Him to the Judgment,' was sung; at its close a quiet young man stepped up to the leader and said 'I will do that. I will go with Him through the garden, and to the judgment too.' That day Dr. Grenfell took that first step in that life of glorified achievements, that has thrown a cloud of benedictions all along the ice-bound shore lines of Labrador."
