STANDARD FLOUR

"EAT MORE BREAD"

"When You Are in Rome," Etc.
The saying is taken from St. Ambrose's advice to St. Austin in regard to Sabbath keeping. He says to St. Austin: "When I am in Rome I fast as the Romans do; when I am in Milan I do not fast. So likewise you; whatever church you come to, observe the custom of the place, if you would neither give offense to others, nor take offense from them."

Construction of Pyramids.
How the Egyptians managed to haul the gigantic stones used in building the pyramids has been for centuries a subject for speculation. Of late years some who have examined the pyramids have come to the conclusion that the stones are artificial, a kind of concrete. If so they were probably made where they are, and the sand of the desert was the principal material used.

Friendship.
"By friendship I mean the greatest love and the greatest usefulness and the most open communication and the noblest sufferings and the most exemplary faithfulness, and the severest truth and the heartiest counsel and the greatest union of mind of which brave men and women are capable."—Jeremy Taylor.

Old Maids and Bachelors.
A bachelor may be legal, but there is always something funny about him. In the case of the old maid, there is always the possible excuse that her lover died; but if a man wanted to get married, he wouldn't pay any attention to a thing like that.—Howe's Monthly.

Flies Seldom Crawl Downward.
A fly on a windowpane will crawl to the top, fly back to the bottom and crawl up again. This order is seldom reversed. It is on record that a fly crawled up a windowpane thirty-two times, returning each time to the same place.

The "Yes" Artist.
"When a man says 'yes' to everything you suggest, stop suddenly some time and you'll probably find that he isn't paying much real attention to your remarks."—Exchange.

Chinese Custom.
In China when a pupil is reciting his lessons he turns his back to the teacher, says an exchange. Over here he occasionally has to do that, but it's not for recitation purposes.

Natural Alliance.
Poetry has a natural alliance with our best affections.—W. E. Channing

Cletrac

TANK-TYPE TRACTOR

20 Horsepower at the pulley—12 at the drawbar

Does the work of 6 or 8 big horses. Small in size, but mighty in power. Design, plus material and workmanship, give the Cletrac stamina and ability for prolonged work almost unbelievable for a tractor of its size. Has proved its value and economy in all sorts of road and other construction duty. Low operating cost. Small upkeep expense.

Large roller track-wheel bearings. Dust-proof motor. Water air-clarifier. New tank-type, 8 inch wide, single-grouser truck.

Let us arrange a practical demonstration for you. No obligation.
