Pacific Ocean Once South Sea.
The South sea is the name originally given and sometimes still applied to the Pacific ocean. In 1583 Bartholomew crossed the isthmus and arrived on September 29 at a mountain, from the summit of which, looking south, he beheld the expanse of the ocean stretching out before him, while the northern part was closed from view. He named it, therefore, the South sea.

Lives Up to the Symptoms.
"You can nearly always tell a man who is suffering from this 'unrest,'" said Jud Tunkins, "by the way he manages to put in more time resting than anyone else in the neighborhood."

First Lifeboat Still in Existence.
The first lifeboat ever made is still in existence in Yorkshire. It was constructed in 1802, to be used "for saving life in storms or other dangers to ships." A poor shipwright invented and made it, and parliament considered his labor and skill so meritorious that it voted him the sum of $2,000 as a reward.

IF—THE STATE UNIVERSITY AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE AND THE STATE NORMAL

have for many years spent less money per student in training Oregon boys and girls than is spent at any other state institution. The present cost at the State University is $203 a year; at the College it is $180. But even before the war, when money would buy twice as much as it buys now, the average cost at all other state institutions was $325 a year. In addition.

THEIR BUILDING INVESTMENT IS ALSO VERY LOW

At the State University it is at present $222 per student; at the College, $300. But in state institutions elsewhere, statistics show the average to be $995. These are convincing proofs of economical administration, but the three institutions can no longer give satisfactory training to the vast number of Oregon Boys and Girls (5,400 in full time courses alone) unless they receive more support. On May 21 the Higher Educational relief measure will appear on the ballot. You are urged to preserve the quality of higher education by voting for it.
