

Liked the Name.
One of the government-owned dwellings near the Union station, Washington, is occupied by a stout colored woman who has converted it into a small hotel for folks of the darker race. Over the door is a signboard with the inscription, "The Annex." I asked the woman to what other hotel was her place an annex. "Oh," she replied, "but's jes de name of my hotel. Dar ain't no other hotel 'nected with it. I jes picked de word 'Annex' 'cause it sounds high-toned like."—Washington Herald.

Dignified Protest.
It is told of an old negro servant of regular propensities, as many a derby is, that on one occasion he was unjustly reprimanded by his master for the disappearance of a certain article of value. His reply was: "Marse Andrew, I has enuff to answer fer wid the situations what is jest, widout having to be responsible fer dem what aint so."

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

If nominated and elected I will devote every energy to securing the irrigation and good roads legislation so necessary to the success of this district.

Every line of history inspires a confidence that we shall not go far wrong; that things mend. That is the moral of all we learn, that it warrants Hope, the prolific mother of reforms. Our part is plainly not to throw ourselves across the track, to block improvement and sit till we are stone, but to watch the uprise of successive mornings and to conspire with the new works of new days.—Emerson.
