HOUSE SUSTAINS PRESIDENT'S VETO

Washington.—President Wilson's veto of the legislative appropriation bill, as containing an infringement on executive authority, was sustained in the house against the effort of the republican majority to override it.

Though aided by a handful of democrats, the republicans failed by 23 votes to obtain the necessary two-thirds majority to repass the bill over the president's disapproval. The measure then went back to the appropriation committee for elimination of the sections objected to and will be returned to the house for passage in its modified form.

The republicans rolled up 170 votes to overcome the veto, but the democrats cast 127 votes to sustain the president. The vote carries with it a denial of opportunity for the senate to attempt offsetting the veto, for the redrafted measure will leave the house without the provision relating to powers of the joint committee on printing at which the veto was aimed.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN MARKETING SYSTEM

Portland, Or.—Initial steps toward closer co-operation between the farmer, labor and business interests of the state were taken at a meeting at the chamber of commerce under auspices of the State Taxpayers' league. At the conclusion of an all-day session a unanimous vote was recorded in favor of submitting a market commission bill to the voters of Oregon at the coming election.

Outlines of a measure were agreed upon which follow to a great extent the provision of a similar enactment in force in California.

Some of the provisions of the bill as adopted give the market commission power to investigate and tabulate market facilities for the producers of the state, authority to encourage and aid in the establishing of co-operative associations between the producers. In the main, the market commission furnishes leadership for the farmers and producers in finding a market for their products.

Crusoe's Umbrella.
Defoe it will be remembered, makes Robinson Crusoe describe that he had seen umbrellas employed in the Brazils and that he had constructed his own umbrella in imitation of them. "I covered it with skins," he said, "the hair outward, so that it cast off the rain like a pent house and kept off the sun so effectually that I could walk out in the hottest weather with greater advantage than I could before in the coolest."

Origin of "Pitched Battle."
"A pitched battle" originated in the days of knight-errantry and was so-called then because boiling pitch was used by the defenders of a feudal castle to repel the attacking force. The battles, which usually took place outside the castle walls, would soon end when the boiling pitch began to flow from a tank on top of the walls. This originated the term "a pitched battle."

HOW SNOW NOURISHES SOIL.

Valuable Manure Because of its Carbonic Acid, So Necessary for Revitalizing the Earth.

In a handful of snow there might be 20,000 crystals, and no two of them would be alike.

Steepest snow which, in its passage to the earth, has passed through a layer of warmer air, and become partially melted.

Snow is early or late, according to whether the summer was short and soon over or extended to the autumn. A short, early summer, means that the earth cools more quickly.

Ground which is covered with snow very rarely falls below freezing point, although the air may be fifteen to twenty degrees colder. This is because snow is a very bad conductor of heat—it holds the heat in the ground and stops its radiation.

The reference in the Psalms: "He giveth snow like wool," is not to the fact that snow and wool are alike in appearance, but to the warmth of each.

Snow is warm because air is held in its minute crystal interstices. No heat escapes from anything covered with snow. Snow is, literally, a valuable manure, and nourishes the earth with its carbonic acid, which penetrates slowly into the soil and is thus fully absorbed.

Finally, snow is ruinous to shoe leather, because it warms the leather, opens it, and then penetrates.

PREVENT CROWDING OF PIGS

Properly Constructed Feed Trough Assures Each Individual Porker of His Share.

Young pigs should be given their feed in such a manner that each individual pig gets its share. The simplest way to accomplish this is to allow the pigs to eat from a properly constructed feed trough, one that will keep the pigs out of the feed and will lessen the possibilities of crowding.

LIVE STOCK NOTES

Every colt raised will be one more work animal to help till farms.

Better nose ring for the young bull than an accident after it is too late.

Pasture is by no means a luxury for live stock. It is now recognized as a necessity.

The SEA WOLF

A Paramount Aircraft Picture

"Right—Hell! Might's Right, and on this Ship I'm Boss!"

WOLF his name and wolfish his nature. A burly brute, with the mind of a master, the passion of a beast, and two huge fists to settle arguments.

Against him, a girl and a rich young landsman---far at sea ---among rough sailors on the "Ghost".

His the creed of lust and violence; theirs the creed of love. In the end---which won?

A Soul-Stirring Story of Perils and Passions at Sea. Noah Berry, Mabel Juliene Scott, Tom Forman and Raymond Hatton in the cast. Adapted by Will M. Ritchey.
