THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

While we are constantly reminded of the high cost of articles in all lines, and are prone to criticize our local merchants for their evident profiteering propensities, still we must be fair with them, and before passing rash judgment, should at least compare the prices asked here with those of other sections of the country.

FRANCE DEFENDS OCCUPATION MOVE

Paris.—Premier Millerand in a statement, declared that Germany's request for permission to send troops into the Ruhr region was merely for the purpose of violating the terms of the peace treaty. He said France felt the danger of her position in a way it could not be felt in America and pointed to the fact that Belgium had assumed a position identical with that of France because Belgium, like France, felt the danger of her proximity to Germany.

Premier Millerand said: "France's position is absolutely simple. We were in the presence of a series of German violations of the treaty, the last of which affects precisely those articles of the treaty which were covered by the French-British-American agreement under which England and America were to come to our assistance."

"The German government asked permission to send troops into the Ruhr. Why? Because they knew the sending of troops into that region was forbidden by the treaty. We refused to give that permission. Nevertheless the German government ordered troops into the Ruhr. The only thing possible for us to do was immediately to occupy Frankfurt and the other German cities. We had given notice to our allies that we intended to do so, and they had not objected."
