HOUSE FAILS TO OVERRIDE VETO

Washington.—Lacking 29 votes of the necessary two-thirds, the house failed to pass the Knox resolution to end the war with Germany and Austria over President Wilson's veto. The vote was 230 to 152, 17 democrats joining republicans in attempting to override the veto, while two republicans voted with the democrats to sustain it. Before starting the fight on the floor, republican leaders predicted that the veto would stand by a margin of ten, but announced their determination to make the fight and let the vote go to the people.

Only four speeches were made in the veto fight, Chairman Porter of the foreign affairs committee and Representative Mondell, pleading with the members to override the veto, while Representative Flood, Virginia, ranking democrat on the committee, and Representative Conally, also a member, urged the house to stand by the president.

POINDEXTER BILL FAVORED

Delaying Transportation of Commodities Would Be Made Felony.

Washington.—Favorable report was ordered by the senate interstate commerce committee on the PoinDEXTER bill, designed to prevent interruption of transportation by strikes of railroad employees.

The committee amended the measure by attaching provisions similar to the anti-strike clauses eliminated from the railroad reorganization bill after labor leaders had made strong protests. Action on the PoinDEXTER bill is not expected until congress reconvenes after the national conventions.

The bill as reported would make a felony of any proved intent to obstruct or prevent the movement of commodities in interstate commerce by persuading persons to quit work.

French Farmers May Strike.

Paris.—France is confronted with a strike by her peasants unless the railroad workers and others in the discontented unions make up their minds soon to return to work and stay there.

HOW EUROPE CAN ESCAPE COLLAPSE

We Must Aid By Extending Credits, Says Davison.

GRAVE MENACE TO U. S. A.

European Ruin Would Involve America—Starvation and Disease Rampant.

Des Moines, Ia.—Speaking before the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Henry P. Davison, chairman of the Board of Governors of the League of Red Cross Societies, said: "As chairman of the convention of Red Cross societies composed of representatives of twenty-seven nations that met recently in Geneva, I am custodian of authoritative reports recording appalling conditions among millions of people living in eastern Europe.

"One of the most terrible tragedies of the history of the human race is being enacted within the broad belt of territory lying between the Baltic and the Black and Adriatic seas.

"This area includes the new Baltic states—Poland, Czechoslovakia, The Ukraine, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Montenegro, Albania and Serbia.

"The reports which come to us make it clear that in these war-ravaged lands civilization has broken down. Disease, bereavement and suffering are present in practically every household, while food and clothing are insufficient to make life tolerable.

"Men, women and children are dying by thousands, and over vast uncivilized areas there are to be found neither medicinal appliances nor medical skill sufficient to cope with the devastating plagues.

"Wholesale starvation is threatened in Poland this summer unless she can procure food supplies in large quantities. There are now approximately 250,000 cases of typhus in Poland and in the area occupied by Polish troops.

Worst Typhus Epidemic in History.

"This is already one of the worst typhus epidemics in the world's history. In Galicia whole towns are crippled and business suspended. In some districts there is but one doctor to each 150,000 people.

"In the Ukraine, we were told, typhus and influenza have affected most of the population.

"A report from Vienna, dated February 12, said: 'There are rations for three weeks. Death stalks through the streets of Vienna and takes unhindered toll.'

"Budapest, according to our information, is one vast city of misery and suffering. The number of deaths is double that of births.

"Typhus and smallpox have invaded the four countries composing Czechoslovakia, and there is lack of medicine, soap and physicians.

"In Serbia typhus has broken out again and there are but 200 physicians to minister to the needs of that entire country.

"Returning to the United States a few weeks ago with all these horrors ringing in my ears, I found myself once more in a land whose granaries were overflowing, where health and plenty abounded and where life and activity and eager enterprise were in the full flood.

"I asked myself: 'What if this plague and famine were here in the great territory between the Atlantic sea board and the Mississippi valley, which roughly parallels the extent of these ravaged countries and that 65,000,000 of our own people condemned to idleness by lack of raw material and whose fields had been devastated by invasion and rapine were racked by starvation and pestilence and if we had lifted up our voices and invoked the attention of our brothers in happier Europe to our own deep miseries and our cries had fallen on deaf ears would we not in our despair exclaim against their heartlessness.'

Only Three Ways to Help Europe.

"There are only three ways by which these stricken lands can secure supplies from the outside world. One is by payment, one by credit and the third is by exchange of commodities. If these peoples tried to buy materials and supplies in America at the present market value of their currencies Austria would have to pay forty times the original cost, Germany thirteen times, Greece just double, Czechoslovakia fourteen and Poland fifty times. These figures are official and are a true index of the economic plight of these countries.

"It is clear, therefore that they cannot give us gold for the things they must have, nor have they either products or securities to offer in return for credit. If only they could obtain raw material which these idle millions of theirs could convert into manufactured products they would have something to tender the world in return for its raw material, food and medicine. But if they have neither money nor credit how are they to take this first great step towards redemption. One half the world may not eat while the other half starves. How long do you believe the plague of typhus that is taking a hideous death toll in Estonia and Poland and the Ukraine and eating along the fringes of Germany and Czechoslovakia will confine itself to these remote lands?

"Only last Saturday our health commissioner of New York, Dr. Copeland,

Signor Carmeliny and Old Colonial Band at Chautauqua

SEXTET FROM OLD COLONIAL BAND

This justly celebrated Brass Sextet with the full membership of the Old Colonial Band will be here for two concerts on the fourth day—Music Day—of Chautauqua. This organization, under the leadership of Signor E. Carmeliny, has won recognition throughout Eastern Chautauqua circles and we are particularly happy to present them here. Signor Carmeliny was Chief Trumpet Sergeant Major of the Third Regiment of Italian Infantry and is the proud possessor of several gold medals. Later he was cornet soloist with Liberati's Band and other famous organizations with splendid success. A feature of their programs is the costuming in the stately style of long ago and the rendition of a musical fantasy, "The Spirit of 1776." This is unique in band programs and is always received with enthusiasm.

Signor Carmeliny will play a cornet solo at both afternoon and evening programs. A further touch of real artistry is given the evening concert by charming Miss Lee, who sings several selections.

Dangerous to Woo a Spider.

Mrs. Spider will always eat Mr. Spider. If she can catch him, quite soon after they are mated. The female spider, too, will frequently devour her rejected suitors. Her swiftness is a fiery sort of jazz before her, this being the method usually resorted to for ensnaring the lady's affections. The female, if she thinks one of them would make a toothsome morsel eat him before he can protest. If she decides to choose a mate she will dance with him.

Timely Love.

Jack, four, could tell the time for his mother by locating the nearest numbers. One day when he came back to tell his mother, his eyes were as big as saucers, as he said: "Why, mother! They're both at ten! They're loving each other!"

Varieties of Gladness.

The glad hand is the one that knows how to give a hearty shake, but it doesn't stop at that. The hand that gives and the hand that uplifts belong also to the glad variety.

To Put Out Gasoline Fire.

While pure sawdust gives excellent results in putting out a small gasoline fire a mixture of ten pounds of bicarbonate of soda with 12 pounds of clean sawdust is the best medium to have on hand, says Everyday Engineering. Have the sawdust dry and free from chips. The sawdust forms an airtight blanket as it floats on the burning liquid, and at the same time the heat of the flame generates carbonic acid gas. This gas, together with the sawdust, keeps the oxygen in the air away from the flame and quickly smothers it.

That Which Befits Us.

That which befits us, embosomed in beauty and wonder as we are, is cheerfulness and courage, and the endeavor to realize our aspirations, shall not the heart which has received so much, trust the power by which it lives?—Emerson.
