

Six Beautiful Girls Give Two Programs at Chautauqua

ST. CECILIA SINGING ORCHESTRA

To close the Chautauqua week fittingly is a big job. Throughout the week some splendid attractions will give music and entertainment of many different kinds and will follow each other in whirlwind style. We have reserved the Singing Orchestra to wind up the 1920 program just because we are determined to close in a veritable blaze of glory. These charming girls will be presented in a short prelude on the afternoon—just a taste of what they are capable of—and then during the last evening they hold the boards for a couple of hours packed full of fun, fancy and finery; music, mirth and mimicry.

A well rounded six day Chautauqua will have something to offer every taste in the community. This Singing Orchestra of vivacious girls has a most interesting program of costumed pieces—old home songs—readings, vocal and instrumental solos, duets and ensemble numbers. You can rest assured there will not be a "draggy" minute during the last night and the management anticipates that there will be many first place votes for the St. Cecilia Singing Orchestra.

THE SPRAGUES AT CHAUTAUQUA

SPRAGUE AS RIP VAN WINKLE

"The biggest little entertainment company in the business." The Spragues are unique. You have known of a single gifted impersonator depicting the characters in a play or book. Here you have two gifted people, by quick costume changes and marvelous imitative ability, presenting graphically all the characters and scenes of a play. It has been said of Herbert Sprague's work, as Rip Van Winkle, that he reminds one startlingly of the elder Jefferson in his portrayal.

GIFTED SINGER IS COMING TO CHAUTAUQUA

LORRAINE LEE, LYRIC SOPRANO

For "Music Day" of the Chautauqua, the Westco Management secured Carmelina and his Old Colonial Band of fifteen musicians for two splendid concerts. Wishing, however, to leave nothing to be desired, Miss Lorraine Lee was engaged to sing during the evening program. There is a vivacity and freshness about Miss Lee's personality and voice rarely equalled on the concert platform. There is a treat in store for real music lovers, but remember, Miss Lee sings only on the fourth night of the Chautauqua.

Patching Wall Paper.
To patch gouges made in the wall by sharp-cornered furniture, fill the hole with plaster of paris to which has been added dissolved glue to delay the hardening process. Use a half cup of dry glue to a half pound of plaster of paris. Let a scrap of the original paper fade in the sun to match the wall paper and tear out a patch making it irregular in shape. Carefully peel off layers from the back, thus making the patch as thin as possible and apply to the wall.

The Speeding Guest.
Departing Guest—"Enjoyed ourselves? Oh, yes! What I'm upset about is leaving your hotel so soon after I've bought it."—London Opinion.

Profiteers Fined $31,000.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Weed's Incorporated, Binghamton clothiers, tried in United States court under Justice Martin T. Manton here, were found guilty on all counts in a federal indictment charging them with profiteering. The court imposed a fine of $31,000 upon the firm.

Palace Bought by United States.
Prague.—Schonborn palace, with its grounds, has been purchased for the American legation. The price paid is said to have been $50,000.

SCOTT HIGHLANDERS AT CHAUTAUQUA

A breath of old Scotland with its perfume of the heather will strike Chautauqua on the third day.

The Scott Highlanders are to give two prelude entertainments on that day. These folks have had much experience and are already favorably known to many of our audiences. They play, sing and entertain delightfully. In the afternoon their entertainment is a fitting introduction to an inspiring lecture by Mae Guthrie Tongier upon the wonderful accomplishments of Luther Burbank, the plant wizard.

The Passion Play.
Accounts vary as to the date that marks the beginning of the Oberammergau "Passion Play." Some have it that the custom was instituted centuries before the thirty years' war with a cessation during that period. Reliable chroniclers maintain that it cannot be traced farther back than 1634. Those Bavarian peasants made a vow that if the plague would cease, they would give the play every decade, a vow they faithfully kept until the plague was broken because of the war.

The Green Heron.
The green heron, which is sometimes called the fly-up-the-creek, is about one and one-half feet long, and is common throughout the United States and Canada. It feeds mostly on fish, frogs and other aquatic animals, and may be seen, particularly in the morning and in the evening, standing patiently motionless in some shallow water, waiting till prey comes within reach.

Costly Rainy Day.
It has been calculated that the cost of a rainy day in New York city is something like $100,000.

NOTED LECTURER IS COMING TO CHAUTAUQUA

THOS. MCCLARY

Every profession has its dependables and upon the lecture platform there are some of the brightest and most forceful minds of the present day. Thos. McClary is one of these. He has been a foremost lecturer on the Chautauqua platform for years, and is a welcome return date visitor wherever he has been. His lectures are bright, optimistic messages of cheer and right living. The Chautauqua will be better for having Thos. McClary among its speakers.

Decisive in Refusal.
When you do not intend to pay a bill there is nothing like being decisive in your refusal. The other day a book-seller had an "account rendered" returned to him with the following reply scrawled across the billhead: "Dear Sir: I never ordered this beastly book. If I did, you didn't send it. If you sent it, I never got it. If I got it, I paid for it. If I didn't I won't. Now go and hang yourself, you fat-head." Yours very respectfully, John Jones.

The Movies of 1713.
On another page of this paper was printed recently an alleged newly discovered manuscript by Aristotle philosophizing on the movies. Mr. Walkly was joking, of course; but there is no joke about this extract from Swift's "Journal to Stella," dated March 27, 1713: "I went afterward to see a famous moving picture, and I never saw anything so pretty. You see a sea ten miles wide, a town on t'other end and ships sailing in the sea and discharging their cannon," etc.—Boston Transcript.

Take Care of Good Books.
At spring cleaning time every book should be dusted separately and a fine, soft brush whisked in all the crevices where dust may lodge. Keep in the library, also, some transparent adhesive tape and a pair of sharp scissors; you can mend a torn magazine cover in a jiffy, or a book page that someone has torn. You can mend with the adhesive tape, pages of music, and can straighten out bent corners of playing cards, putting a tiny section of the tape under the corner.

The Whyfore of the Lakes.
Lakes are numerous in the northern part of this country and rare in the southern part because the gradual effects of atmospheric agencies and the power of water to carry solid matter from elevated places and deposit it in depressed places tend to reduce the land to a general level and to fill up the basins of the lakes.

Misunderstood.
Walter—"Haven't you forgotten something, sir?" Customer—"Great Scott, yes! My wife told me to water the plants while she was away!"

CHICAGO INVADED BY REPUBLICAN HOST

Delegates to National Convention Arriving From All Sections of the Country.

Chicago.—Delegates to the republican national convention from all sections of the country are arriving in Chicago.

Campaign managers for the announced presidential aspirants are perfecting their plans for the actual work in the convention. Wood headquarters has announced that Governor H. J. Allen of Kansas had been elected to make the principal nominating speech for General Wood and it has been announced that George H. Walker of Seattle had been chosen to perform a similar office for Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington.

One of the problems which confront the national committee is the reducing of oversized delegations to a size which will permit of their being seated in the space reserved for delegates.

According to Secretary Miller, a majority of these cases resulted from attempts to harmonize factions in various states, and when the delegations were asked to cut down their membership to conform to the convention call, the same old problems bobbed up again.

Undiminished confidence was reflected in the announcements from the Lowden, Wood and Johnson managers. The Hoover headquarters took on added activity with the arrival of a large force of workers from New York.

Capt. Wood Briggs Again a Chautauqua Visitor

The fiery oratory of the old South which has proved to be the natural heritage of many of the statesman and educators of below the Mason and Dixon line, is still alive. This priceless possession is naturally called to the Chautauqua platform where its possessor can meet and sway the greatest of all present day assemblages.

The Chautauqua management is glad to announce Captain Wood Briggs in a new lecture, "Keep off the Grass." This lecture is a careful presentation of the relationship of the English speaking peoples. Captain Briggs will speak on the third afternoon.

Monopoly of Mocha Sheepskins.
The world's supply of Mocha sheepskin is obtained by about a dozen buyers, who have their native collectors in caravans to collect the skins at various centers, of which Mocha, Berbera, Zeylah and Hodeidah are the main points, from which they are sent to Aden, a British coaling station, which, on account of the exact location, is the shipping point for skins sent to London, the continent of Europe, and the United States.

Tag Your Books.
Many book lovers with large and precious libraries keep a small book with the name of each book lent, the date and the borrower. After a reasonable time, when the book has been lent, it is no discourtesy to write and remind the borrower that you miss your book friend and are waiting to welcome it home. Get a bookplate. That is the very best way to tag your books. And don't forget that the golden rule applies in books as in other phases of life, and return the ones you borrow yourself.

No Call to Interfere.
My neighbor's little four-year-old girl is very old-fashioned. I was cutting off some dead limbs from my tree across the street from her and she was watching me. She called to me and said: "What are you doing?" I answered, "Oh, only cutting some dead branches off. It's all right, isn't it?" She thought a minute and replied, "I guess so; it's your tree!"—Exchange.

Alps and the Rockies.
The Swiss Alps are traversed by rail to five hours, but the magnificent scenery between Calgary and Vancouver lasts for 23 hours' rapid traveling.

Age Brings Benefits.
As you grow older, life is better. As your heart expands and your sympathies widen, your friends will become more loving and sincere.

Everything New
Robert's father had just been married the second time. One afternoon Robert had a friend of his over to his new home. After he had shown the little boy all through the house he said: "Do you know, Clark, everything in this house is new, even my mother."
