PRINEVILLE CROOK COUNTY, OREGON, MONDAY, JUNE 21, 1920.

NO. 38.

THE EAGLE TO SCREAM IN PRINEVILLE ASSOCIATION TO BE ORGANIZED ON PERMANENT BASIS

Plans for the largest celebration by many odds ever staged in this part of the state have reached a point where success in every feature is assured.

Starting the festivities, the salute "Big Noise" will be heard for many miles on the morning of July 2, at 4 o'clock, and from that hour until the evening of the fourth things will happen every minute.

A special train carrying the crack Maupin baseball team and several hundred fans will arrive over the City of Prineville railway, and a program which provides for continuous entertainment down town, with a Round-Up program during the part of the afternoon on July 2 and 3 with other parts of the day given up to real old time baseball will be like a three ring circus.

Starting on July 2, following the early morning "Big Noise" will be band concerts starting at 9:30 on the streets and at the city park, closing at 10:30 immediately after which there will be an address by a man of considerable eminence at the park, which will continue for thirty minutes.

From 11 until 12 there will be street sports. One hour will be given for lunch, when at 1 o'clock sharp there will be a street parade of characters from the Round-Up which will terminate at the Oregon Interstate Fair Grounds at 1:30, at which hour the activities there will commence. The program will continue there until 3:30 and at 3:45 a ball game will start on Davidson Field between the Prineville team and the Shevlin Hixon team of Bend.

The game will be over and the Benders defeated by 5:30 at which hour street sports will start and continue until 6:30. In the evening various forms of amusement will occupy the visitors until the program of the following day, which will be as busy as the first.

The ball game of July 3 will be with the fast Antelope team, which has a good record this year.

Taylor's Singing Band at Chautauqua

Splendid Musical Organization Comes on Fourth Day with Two Concerts

Life, action, volume—everything that goes to make popular musical programs of the highest type is to be found in the two concerts of Taylor's Singing Band, on the fourth day of Chautauqua. These nine musical artists have established a genuine reputation in the Chautauqua field. For several years they have registered one of the biggest successes among musical companies on Eastern circuits.

Every member has a splendid voice and their vocal numbers and choruses are rendered with life and dash and real artistry. On their band instruments they are genuine masters. Vocal and instrumental solos, duets, quartets and ensembles, make up the particularly attractive musical entertainment of the two big concerts.

So successful have been the Chautauquas in Prineville that an organization is being perfected to provide for the selection of talent and all other matters that are required to make the annual event a success, and at the same time prevent conflicting interests in the matter of these very satisfactory events.

Incorporating under the name of the Crook County Cooperative Chautauqua association, the plan is to have an organization that will be prepared to sign contracts for future chautauquas on their merit, to stage them year after year in the manner and at the time most appropriate, and all other matters that are of interest to this feature of the community life.

Members are urged, everyone who is interested being eligible to sign, and cards for that purpose being available at the offices of Mr. Bowman, Mr. Wirtz and Robinson & Clifton. The West Coast Chautauqua, which closes today, has been most satisfactory, and a large audience has been present at every one of the programs thus far.

The local representatives of the West Coast people have been very agreeable and those who have had to do with the management are ready to state that they are very well pleased with their service.

Moves of a like nature as the one that is being taken by this community are formulating in Bend, Redmond and Madras, and with these four communities pooling their interests, it is quite likely that better terms can be had than might be possible otherwise.

BUILDS BUNK HOUSE

John Elliott is building a bunk house on his ranch north of town. He is planning on bumper crops this year, and the bunk house is intended to house his harvest hands.

THE BIG ELLISON-WHITE CHAUTAUQUA WILL BE IN PRINEVILLE JULY 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 AND 10

"Chinese Mark Twain"

Ng. Poon Chew the Noted Chinese Journalist and Statesman Possesses Great Fund of Humor

Ng Poon Chew, who is to lecture on the third night at Chautauqua, is perhaps the best known man of his race in America. He founded the first Chinese daily paper in this country and is an authority today on all matters pertaining to China.

His discussion of the Shantung problem and the many big issues now pending in the Orient will be of unusual interest and value. He is a brilliant speaker, a natural orator and a humorist of the most delightful type. His keen wit has earned for him here and abroad the name of "the Chinese Mark Twain."

WILLIAM J. BRYAN

A. W. BATTLES MARRIED IN PORTLAND

Asa W. Battles, the well known County Clerk of Crook County, and Leola Estes, who has taught in the Prineville Public Schools for a number of years, were quietly married in Portland Saturday morning by Rev. VanNuz.

When Asa announced to his friends that he was going to Portland for the purpose of attending the Shriner's Convention only, they smiled up their sleeves and watched the Portland papers. The announcement of the wedding came in yesterday's Sunday Oregonian. William B. Follette, State Commander of the American Legion attended the groom. Miss Estes and her mother have been in Portland several weeks.

SHAW—McCULLOUGH

Rev. Patterson conducted the wedding ceremony for Edwin L. Shaw and Anna McCullough on Saturday. The wedding took place at the Presbyterian parsonage. The couple put one over on their friends as the ceremony was originally planned for Sunday. Mrs. J. T. Ireland and Mrs. R. D. Ireland were witnesses to the wedding.

Mr. Shaw was formerly employed in Prineville by the Power Company, but is now working in Bend.

The bride is very well known in Prineville, having attended high school here during the last year. She is Past Grand of the Lookout Rebekah Lodge.

The couple left on the Sunday evening train for Bend.

LEGION CONVENTION HELD AT ASTORIA THIS YEAR

The Second Annual Convention of the American Legion for the Department of Oregon, the greatest event for ex-service men since the war, will be held at Astoria July 30 to August 1st.

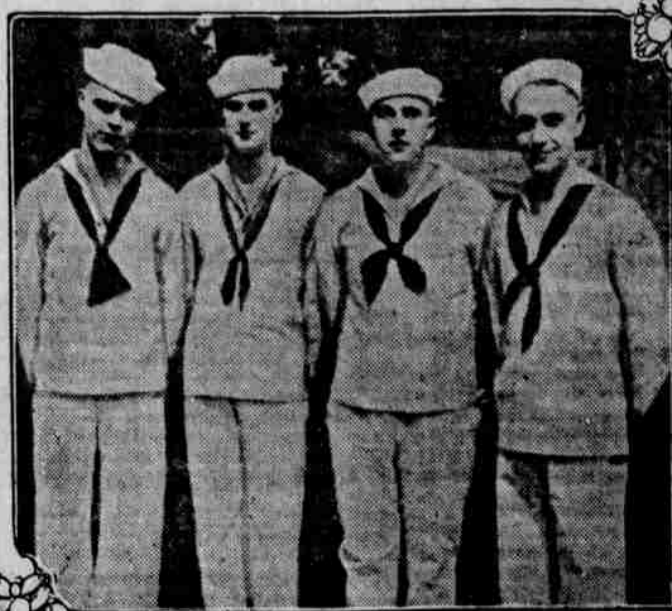

Each Post in the State is entitled to a delegate for each hundred men on its membership roll and Crook County Post will send two delegates, says Asa W. Battles. These delegates will be elected at the July meeting of the Post. All members of the Legion are invited to attend, and are urged to do so if possible.

Among the features planned for the occasion is an address by Governor Olcott, a salmon barbecue, box-in match, annual ball, annual banquet to delegates, excursion to Seaside and Clam Bake at that place, concerts, and a spectacular pyrotechnical display, a reproduction of the "Battle of the Argonne." And many other events.

The Donnelly brothers moved to the ranger station up Ochoco the last of the week.

WILLIAMS' MALE QUARTET

Opening Chautauqua Attraction Offers Two Programs of Splendid Music

Williams' Male Quartet, which comes to Chautauqua on the opening day, has been given this place of prominence because of sheer worth. Four young men, filled with life and enthusiasm, brimming over with music, constitute this splendid company. For several seasons they have been singing together and their record is one of continuous successes. They sing all manner of songs and sing them well. Their programs have sparkle, color and variety, featuring solos, duets, instrumental numbers, pianologues and costume selections. No matter what sort of music you like, you will find something to please and delight you in those two programs by the Williams Quartet.
