"WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE"

Be Truthful Always.
He that is habituated to deceptions and artificialities in craft, will try in vain to be true in matters of importance; for truth is a thing of habit rather than of will. You cannot in any sudden and single effort will to be true if the habit of your life has been insincere.—F. W. Robertson.

Riches of the Incas.
The image of the sun, which the Incas worshipped, "was engraved on a massive plate of gold of enormous dimensions, thickly powdered with emeralds and precious stones." An effigy of the moon, the sun's supposed wife, was a vast plate of silver.

Had the Spirit of Thrift.
What a quaint jumbling of thoughts on waste of power must have been in the mind of the little girl who said half her prayers was right, and then was interrupted. She stopped, began all over again, and then, struck by the strangeness of the repetition, looked up and exclaimed, "There now! I've wasted half my prayers."—London Morning Post.

Love Letters.
When a New Guinea woman falls in love with a man she sends a piece of string to his sister, or, if he has no sister, to his mother. Then the lady who receives the string tells the favored man the particular woman is in love with him.

Want Stronger Windmills.
Windmills are not used in any great extent in Mexico, because the "north-ers" blow them over. It is thought that a windmill of low construction with a wide base would overcome this and might prove very popular.

Conservative Kilkenny Castle.
Some of the rooms in Kilkenny castle are almost exactly as they were 800 years ago.
