Pompeyville has a population of about 1,500. Pompey is located about 10 miles west of Portland, Oregon, in Yamhill County. The town is named after Civil War General William T. Sherman. Pompey was founded in 1849 and is known for its historical significance and its role in the Klondike Gold Rush of the late 1800s.

Speculation are new order under the Oregon irrigation and drainage project. The town of Pompeyville, located in Yamhill County, has been preparing for several years to host the 1908 Olympic Games. The town has been working hard to prepare for the event, and the local community is excited about the opportunity to host this historic event.

In addition to hosting the Olympic Games, Pompeyville is also known for its beautiful natural scenery and its rich history. The town is located near the Willamette River and is surrounded by mountains, forests, and other natural wonders.

The Olympic Games in Pompeyville are expected to attract thousands of visitors from around the world. The town has been working hard to prepare for the event, and the local community is excited about the opportunity to host this historic event.

In addition to hosting the Olympic Games, Pompeyville is also known for its beautiful natural scenery and its rich history. The town is located near the Willamette River and is surrounded by mountains, forests, and other natural wonders.

The Olympic Games in Pompeyville are expected to attract thousands of visitors from around the world. The town has been working hard to prepare for the event, and the local community is excited about the opportunity to host this historic event.

In addition to hosting the Olympic Games, Pompeyville is also known for its beautiful natural scenery and its rich history. The town is located near the Willamette River and is surrounded by mountains, forests, and other natural wonders.

The Olympic Games in Pompeyville are expected to attract thousands of visitors from around the world. The town has been working hard to prepare for the event, and the local community is excited about the opportunity to host this historic event.

In addition to hosting the Olympic Games, Pompeyville is also known for its beautiful natural scenery and its rich history. The town is located near the Willamette River and is surrounded by mountains, forests, and other natural wonders.