

Worth the Money. A girl will cheerfully give up a dollar to have a fortune teller inform her that she isn't going to be an old maid.

The Worthy Citizen. He who possesses worth and intelligence, who is just, speaks the truth, and does what is in his own business, him the world will hold dear.—Dhammapada.

Kingtehchen an Ancient City. Kingtehchen is one of the four largest towns of China. Technically it is not a city. It is a town, because it has no wall. In reality it is a busy industrial city, with a population of 300,000. Two-thirds of the people are directly engaged in the manufacture and sale of porcelain and pottery. Historically it dates back to the Han dynasty, 200 A. D. It is during this period that we find the first records of the production of porcelain in China, though earthenware vessels were probably produced some centuries earlier.

The Earth's Crust. Interesting facts concerning the earth's crust were disclosed by Col. Sir Sidney Burrard recently. "Isostasy" is the particular science which deals with the structure of the earth, and Sir Sidney told how all mountains and heights standing above the sea level are compensated by deficiencies of matter underlying them below sea level, and that all oceans and surface hollows dipping below sea level are compensated by excesses of matter underlying them in the crust.

Homemade Ink. Ralph Waldo Emerson used to make his own ink. Here is his favorite recipe: Pour a scant cupful of boiling water over one package of slate-colored dye. When it is cool add one tablespoonful of vinegar.

Don't Kick
There ain't no use in kickin' friend. When things don't come your way;

It does no good to holler round, And grumble, night and day, The thing to do is curb your grief, Cut out yer little whine; And when they ask you how you are Jest say, "I'm feelin' fine."

There ain't no man alive but what is Booked to get a slap; There ain't no man that walks but what From trouble gets his rap. Go mingle with the bunch, old boy, Where all the bright lights shine, And when they ask you how you are Jest say, "I'm feelin' fine."

Your heart may just be bustin' with some Some real or fancied woe, But when you smile the other folks Ain't really apt to know. The old world laughs at heartaches, friend, Be they your own or mine, So when they ask you how you are, Jest say, "I'm feelin' fine." —Anonymous.

Long Distance Call
Mr. Tarzan Jones was sitting down to his breakfast one morning when he was astounded to see in the paper an announcement of his own death. He rang up his friend Smith at once. Hello, Smith, he said, Have you seen the announcement of my death in the paper? Yes, replied Smith, Where are you speaking from?—London Telegraph.

The High Cost Of Language
Hay, Bill! What is it? Your Doctor's out here with a flat tire. Diagnose the case as flatuency of the perimeter, and charge him accordingly, ordered the garage man, that is the way he does biz.

Another Sickening Thud
Probationary Reporter—Doesn't that story convince you that I've got a good nose for news? City Editor—Not by a stick full! But it does convince me that you've a good neck for noose!

Truth Will Out
Where's that infernal proofreader? shouted the irate man with blood in each eye. He certainly would be right hard to find now, said the editor uneasily, what's he done this time.

Enough
A big powerful motor car slowed up as the occupants perceived a car of very modest proportions standing by the roadside in a rather battered condition. The owner of the car was on his knees, endeavoring to straighten out some of the parts. Have an accident, my man? queried the man in the big car. No thank you, grimly returned the other; Just had one.—Life.

A Penny Saved
The butcher grumbled angrily to himself as he put up the ten-cent meat order. "Cheap Skate." He muttered "if she ever let loose of a dollar—"

Dimay is Right
There was a young lady named Banker, Who slept while the ship was at anchor, She awoke in dismay, When she heard the mate say, "Now hoist up the top-sheet and spanker."

Comedy in Make-Up
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stock spent Saturday and Sunday visiting the former's parents at Hays. Stock of all kinds looking good. They came off the wheat pasture in fine shape and are now on the grass.—Plainview Times.

This column is intended as an antidote for the blues.

Shocking
An elderly lady of very prim and severe aspect was seated next a young couple who were discussing the merits of their motor cars. What color is your body? asked the young man of the girl at his side, meaning, of course the body of the motor. Oh, mine is pink, what is yours? Mine is brown with wide yellow stripes.

Everything Wrong
The deals which Mme. Nature hands this sad and solemn race are certainly a pity, a horror and disgrace. She piles the ocean water 20 kilometers deep, which makes the famous liquid almost comically cheap she stacks the plains and mountains 20 kilometers high, and leaves the mighty country doggon dry.—Steamboat springs Pilot.

Last Big Block of the Canadian Pacific Reserved Farm Lands

This announces the offering of the last big block of the Canadian Pacific Reserved Farm Lands. Until this block is disposed of, you can secure at low cost a farm home in Western Canada that will make you rich and independent. The country is ideal for mixed farming as well as grain growing. Later, the same lands can be bought only from private owners—and naturally, prices will be higher. Never again on the North American Continent will farm lands be offered at prices so low.

Your Last Big Opportunity
This block contains both fertile open prairie and park lands in the Lloydminster and Battleford Districts of Central Alberta and Saskatchewan. You can buy farm lands on the rich prairie of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta at prices averaging about $10 an acre. Or land in Southern Alberta under an irrigation system of unfilling water from 80 an acre and up.

20 Years to Earn and to Pay
The Canadian Pacific offers you this land under a plan of long term, easy payments that is remarkable in the history of farm investments. You pay down 10%. Then you have no payment on the principal until the end of the fourth year, then fifteen annual payments. Interest is 6%. In Central Saskatchewan, near Wainwright grow the world's prize wheat. World's prize oats were grown at Lloydminster.

Lands Under Irrigation
In Southern Alberta, the Canadian Pacific Railway has developed the largest individual irrigation undertaking on the American Continent. This district contains some of the best lands in Canada. An unfailing supply of water is administered under the Canadian Government. Prices range from $10 an acre up, on the same easy payment terms. For improvements, Twenty years to pay back.

No Taxes on Improvements
There's a small tax on the land—some more than 20¢ an acre for all purposes but there are no taxes on your live stock, buildings, improvements, implements or personal effects. Good markets, modern schools, roads, churches, amusements, make farm life desirable and attractive. Here you can achieve independence.

No Sale Without Investigat
The Canadian Pacific will not sell you a unit until you have inspected it. You must satisfy—and every question answered—before taking up your home. Investigation is invited and made easy. This announcement calls attention to the last great block of Canadian Pacific Reserved Farm Lands.
