P.D.
PROMPT DELIVERY
A Boon to Business

Facts about the Woodstock, the highclass, standard typewriter manufactured by the Woodstock Typewriter Co., Woodstock, Ill.

The typebar system, carriage and escapement wheel, the vital parts of any typewriter, are made much heavier in the Woodstock than in other machines. That is why it holds up better and why it is guaranteed for one year longer than any other modern typewriter. Used in all the principle institutions of learning in America.

MUCH NEEDED BUILDINGS

Manager Hershey of the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co., states that lumber prices have declined somewhat but that shortage of workmen may delay fall building until bad weather sets in. However he advises all who contemplate building to take early action in securing plans and making arrangements for that

"AFTER HARVEST BUILDING."

R. W. Wallace and Mike Trapman are still busy putting on the finishing touches on the Masonic Temple but will be at liberty in a few weeks to take on additional work.

Edward J. Barrett is very busy in the construction of the R. L. Schee residence and also a mansion for himself. However, Ed. can always find time and arrange for the construction of anything in the building line.

Omar Wilson is kept busy these days from one job to another, besides the completion of his own beautiful residence on east Third street.

A. A. McCord has just completed a fine little home for himself and moved in, and is now contemplating the erection of another cottage.

Manager Hershey says there is almost certain to be an advance in the price of lumber again when the fall demand begins. "Size up your crops" and plan "AFTER HARVEST" BUILDINGS now, is Manager Hershey's advice. Tum-A-Lum Plan Depart. furnishes in 48 hours when required plans and estimates of cost of buildings for homes and farms. No obligation to buy and not a cent to pay. HERSHEY has the plan books of homes and farm buildings which he will be glad to explain.

CORK CITIZENS AND SOLDIERS IN CLASH

Cork.—Two military lorries loaded with soldiers which passed through the streets of Cork at 3 o'clock in the morning were attacked by civilians with bombs and blown up. Between sixty and seventy soldiers were injured. The civilians threw twenty-nine bombs.

This attack followed a night of terror into which the city was plunged as a result of street fighting in which Sinn Feiners and the military participated. Two men were killed and some forty were wounded in the gun fighting, which brought the total of casualties well over the 100 mark.

The fighting broke out as the result of a bayonetting incident in the street in which a former soldier was killed.

STARBUCK BANK LOOTED

Attaches Locked in Vault While Mischance Makes Escape.

Starbuck, Wash.—A lone robber, wearing amber glasses, entered the Starbuck bank shortly before noon, and after locking the cashier, C. M. Zintheo, the bookkeeper, Miss Gladys Brotherton of Walla Walla, and C. H. List, a customer in the vault, robbed the cash drawer of between $3000 and $3500, all in bank notes of less than $100 denomination.

Zintheo released himself and the others from the vault within five minutes, with the aid of a screwdriver, by taking the plate off the combination and moving the tumblers with his hand.

British Regret U. S. Flag Insult

Washington.—Regrets were officially expressed in connection with the trampling upon a United States flag by British sailors on July 4 at Bermuda, the state department was advised by the American consul there. The guilty sailors have been imprisoned, heavily fined and are undergoing naval punishment while the British magistrate who judged the case severely reprimanded the culprits, consular advice stated.

No, Robert, beer is not mentioned in the Bible; not lager beer, at any rate; but we read in Job; "I have seen the foolish taking root."—Boston Transcript.

Morality's Foundation.
A Bible and a newspaper in every house, a good school in every district—all studied and appreciated as they merit—are the principal supports of virtue, morality and civil liberty.—Franklin.

Cure for Seasickness.
Stuffing the ears with light gauze is a new cure for seasickness.

Don't Be Too Curious.
A person who is too nice an observer of the business of the crowd, like one who is too curious in observing the labor of the bees, will often be stung for his curiosity.—Pope.

Too Many Missing Periods.
Mary was in the hospital for some time and did not see as much of her mother as she would have liked, and bewailed the fact by saying: "Oh, mamma, I only see you at the tops and bottom of these days and I don't like it a bit."

Why Nurses Wear Blue.
