Last Big Block of the Canadian Pacific Reserved Farm Lands

This announces the offering of the last big block of the Canadian Pacific Reserved Farm Lands. Until this block is disposed of, you can secure 32 acre farm home in Western Canada that will make you rich and independent. The country is ideal for mixed farming as well as grain growing. Later, the same lands can be bought only from private owners—and naturally, prices will be higher. Never again on the North American Continent will farm lands be offered at prices so low.

Your Last Big Opportunity

This block contains both fertile open prairie and park lands in the Lloydminster and Battleford Districts of Central Alberta and Saskatchewan. You can buy farm lands on the rich prairie of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta at prices averaging about $18 an acre. Or land in Southern Alberta under an irrigation system of unfiltered water from 160 an acre and up.

20 Years to Earn and to Pay

The Canadian Pacific offers you this land under a plan of long term, easy payments that is remarkable in the history of farm investments. You pay down $100. Then you have no payment on the principal until the end of the fourth year. Then fifteen annual payments. Interest is 6%. In Central Saskatchewan, better wheat grows the world's price wheat. World's price oats were grown at Lloydminster.

Lands Under Irrigation

In Southern Alberta, the Canadian Pacific Railway has developed the largest individual irrigation undertaking on the American Continent. This district contains some of the best lands in Canada. An unending supply of water is administered under the Canadian Government. Prices range from $20 an acre up, in the same easy payment terms. $2000 loan in improvements. Twenty years to pay back.

No Taxes on Improvements

There's a small tax on the land— seldom more than $10 an acre for all purposes but there are no taxes on your live stock, buildings, improvements, implements or personal effects. Good schools, churches, and a fine climate. Here you can achieve independence.

No Sale Without Investigation

The Canadian Pacific will not sell you a land until you have inspected it. You may be satisfied—and every question answered— before taking up your home. Investigation is invited and made easy. This announcement calls attention to the last great block of Canadian Pacific Reserved Farm Lands.

Special Rates for Home-seekers and Full Information

Special railway rates for home-seekers make inspection easy. Send now for free illustrated pamphlet describing all conditions and setting forth figures about land values, acreage, prices, mortgage opportunities, etc. Do not delay. Write TODAY!

JOURNEYS IN EASTERN OREGON

By Robert Osborn
Enroute to Cheyenne, Sept. 18.— This is about the longest jaunt I have ever taken alone, and I hardly know what my duties as TB representative for the state will be at the Cheyenne conference. Speech-making is not in my line—wish I had the staying qualities of Jay Upton or George Russell.

I hope to get back to Pendleton for the last day of the Round-Up and to meet the many Prineville people who will be there. Journal readers should have a few details from an eye witness to the big show. It is going to be a blow-out that will equal the one at New York recently. Bootleggers and moonshiners from all over the state seem to be handling their wares in this neighborhood.

Try-outs for buckers have been held this week, but have stopped for the latter part of this week because of the Frontier Days attraction at Walla Walla, which has attracted most of the riders. Yakima Canutt, the champion of the past two years, will be on hand to win another silver-mounted saddle. Tex Smith has been riding 'em straight up, but the other day something was wrong and he was thrown three times.

One young looking fellow blew into town all dolled up in buckaroo clothes. Say but he was a sight. Boots, spurs, chaps, loud shirt, and a big hat with horns on it. He went out to show the boys how to ride and lasted just two split seconds on old No-name. He left town pretty pronto. Another young fellow made twelve silver bucks by staying for that many bucks on a twisty one—bareback. There are a lot of horses to be tried out and they're a vicious lot. Ibedamn is the name of one large buckaroo.

There will be the usual number of Indians out. They cherish and save their ancestral feathers and war paint and at an event of this kind come out in full force. I spent the forenoon at the reservation the other day and was shown many courtesies by the Government Agent. TB takes a heavy toll among the Indians. Interest is growing in this tuberculosis survey and the possibility of a district hospital in this section is not remote.

The slayer of TH Taylor will hang November 5 and has been taken to his death cell in Salem. The trial was dramatic to the extreme. TB has not yet shown any signs of weakening. I figure that he is a savage through and through, a step-back to the kind that slew families on the frontier. He had a grudge against the Sheriff and at the first opportunity he settled it and his execution will be met with Indian stoicism. Plans are being made to have Taylor's sorrel horse lead the parade on the last day with an empty saddle. The memorial fund for the murdered sheriff has grown to about $13,000.

I inspected thoroughly the state hospital for the insane here. It is a fine institution, nothing finer in the country. It is built of the best materials and has wise provisions for expansions. Some five hundred unfortunates are cared for there, and the care received is humane and kind, even in the case of the most violent. The old idea was to use physical violence on the insane but that has become a thing of the past in most states.

"Pilot Rock interested me the other day. I found the citizens there of the right sort. The town is a small one but there is nothing small about the general spirit of the community. It is situated in a nice farming country and is tributary to stock ranges. Most of the harvesting in this section has been completed. Another heavy shower cast more gloom on the tardy harvester today.

When I first came to Pendleton I thought there was a big parade in town, but I discovered that it was the system used for parking cars. All of the cars must be parked in the middle of the street. The plan seems to be working well. Round-Up decorations give the town a raring-to-go air, and their will be no hesitancy about that.

Isn't there a song about Cheyenne?

TEA AT THE ANNEX

A very delightful tea was given at the Annex Rooms last Saturday afternoon in honor of the new teachers and strangers in our city. An interesting program was rendered by many of the talented young people of Prineville. Mrs. Bergh gave a very enjoyable vocal selection, which was appreciated by all present. The Misses Rowell, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Lister, rendered a duet, and Miss Marjorie Wilson favored the visitors with a recitation. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

GOVERNOR PARDONS PENDER AND BRANSON

Men Serving Life Terms in Oregon Penitentiary For Murder Released.

Salem, Or.—Governor Olcott granted unconditional pardons to John Arthur Pender and William Branson, each of whom had been sentenced to and had partially served a life term in the Oregon state penitentiary.

Branson was received at the prison from Yamhill county March 3, 1917, on a charge of having killed William Booth, a Yamhill county rancher, near Williams, Or., October 8, 1915, while Pender was received from Columbia county November 19, 1914, on charge of slaying Mrs. Daisy Wehrman and her child in their cabin home near Scappoose, in September, 1911.

Pender at one time was sentenced to be executed, but his punishment later was commuted to life imprisonment by Governor West.

Before leaving the prison both men expressed appreciation for the kind treatment accorded them by the penitentiary officials and said they would go out into the world with the one aim of making good.

Both Dr. R. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital, and Louis Compton, warden of the penitentiary, have long insisted that Pender and Branson were innocent, and their names were attached to the parole board recommendations asking for the pardons.

LOSS TO APPLE INDUSTRY FEARED

Yakima, Wash.—Following a meeting here of representatives of northwest districts to consider the 33 1/2 per cent increase in freight rates on fruit, telegrams were sent by the North Pacific Fruit league to James G. Woodworth, H. M. Adams, W. P. Kenney and R. M. Calkins, vice-presidents respectively of the Northern Pacific, Union Pacific, Great Northern and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul roads, asking for a conference in Yakima on Monday, September 27, over a rate readjustment.

The telegrams declared "some concession absolutely necessary to prevent serious loss both to industry and carriers" and that "lack of orders, combined with large eastern yield and added costs, strongly indicate inability to market northwest crop of 26,000 cars (of apples) with any profit to growers."

LIVESTOCK MEN ASK AID

Appeal Made to Government to Preserve Industry.

Chicago.—More than 100 bankers, packers and grain men, meeting to discuss the livestock situation throughout the country, appealed to the government for aid to preserve the livestock industry.

Resolutions were passed appealing to the interstate commerce commission to order grain placed on the preferred traffic list at once, appealing to financial institutions to encourage stock raising industries and urging the treasury department to deposit funds in the reserve banks in livestock areas to be given out in loans to producers.

Jury Interference Charged; Trial Off.

Seattle, Wash.—Because a type-written letter discussing radicalism and attacking labor leaders was circulated in the last few days among superior court jurors trying William Cunningham, charged with criminal syndicalism, Judge Jurey, on motion of the state, declared the case a mistrial and discharged the jury. The Cunningham case was about to go to the jury after a week's trial. The letter that ended the trial was typewritten, mimeographed and signed with typed signature, "Sherman Rogers, chairman of committee." Hearing of the matter, Sherman Rogers, industrial editor of the Outlook, who is in Seattle gathering material for his magazine, called on Prosecuting Attorney Brown. Mr. Rogers indignantly denied that he was the author of the letter, and offered a reward of $1000 for the conviction of the person who wrote it.

Colby to "Stand Pat" on Suffrage.

Washington.—Suffragists scored a final victory when Secretary of State Colby announced that he will "stand pat" on his proclamation of August 26, that the suffrage amendment is legally ratified and is now part of the constitution. The attitude of the government, he pointed out, will in no wise be changed by notification from Governor Roberts that the lower house in the Tennessee legislature has rescinded its vote on the amendment.
