INTER-STATE FAIR OPENS WEDNESDAY AUTOMOBILE RACES FOR THE BIG INTER-STATE FAIR

Just six days from today, on Wednesday, October 6, the gates for the Oregon Inter-State Fair will swing open, under the most favorable circumstances that a fair has ever been held in this city.

The Oregon Inter-State Fair, an outgrowth of the county fair which was held here a number of years, invites exhibits from every county and state, and the stockmen especially will welcome stock from everywhere, and if better stuff can be brought out than the local product, there will be no doubt about the premiums being awarded where they belong.

One of the largest herds of Aberdeen-Angus cattle in the United States is owned by Dickson & McDowell of this city, who have promised to bring out a large showing of these cattle.

One of the largest and best herds of Shorthorns in the West is owned by M. R. Biggs, the Williwale herd, and these, headed by the young bull which Mr. Biggs purchased last fall at the Pacific International for $2,500, will make a good showing in that class.

Herefords, good ones, from the herds of H. D. Dunham, Ralph Reese and others will be out.

These are but a few of the beef breeds that will be represented, while the McCall, Fround and Kemmling dairy herds and others will be found in the dairy barns.

Several new herds, which have never been seen at this fair, have received large spaces in the livestock barns.

In the pavilion there will be a large showing of farm products, some of the most interesting contests to be between communities who will have out large exhibits competing for community prizes.

The Powell Butte community exhibit will be one of the largest, and the Tumalo, Ochoco and Terrebonne exhibits will all compete for the prizes which will be $100 for first, and $50 for second best.

In addition to the community prize, each individual is entitled to the prizes on his private articles included in the community exhibit.

In the line of amusements, there will be some new and thrilling features.

The largest string of track horses that has ever been on the local turf for years will be present, made possible by the arrangement of dates, and king of sports will be high class and plentiful.

Plan now to attend the fair, for without question it will be bigger and better than ever.

MRS. DUFFY ENTERTAINS CLUB

Ten members of the Shumla Club autoed to Bend Tuesday to be the guests of Mrs. T. E. J. Duffy, at a one o'clock luncheon at her home in that city.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Collins W. Elkins received the book, 'School for Scandal', by Sheridan, in a very interesting manner.

The three oldest bibles in the world were the subject of a talk by Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg, which was interesting as well as educational.

The members of the club were also given a practical illustration in the correct way to speedily change auto tires by Mrs. Dishman. Her car had a blow-out both coming and going.

The members of the club who were able to make the trip were: Mrs. Wigle, Mrs. H. P. Bolknap, Mrs. M. E. Brink, Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg, Mrs. Guy Lafollette, Mrs. E. J. Wilson, Mrs. G. M. Clifton, Mrs. C. W. Elkins, Mrs. W. I. Dishman, and Mrs. H. W. Howard.

LAST SEASON'S FOOTBALL TEAM

Much enthusiasm is shown this year in the football practice on the high school field, in the neighborhood of thirty men trying out in this branch of school athletics.

Five of last year's team remain to strengthen the lineup this year: R. Goodmiller, L. Horigan, M. O'Kelley, O. Mills, and R. Smith. The rest of the team will be composed of new men, mostly without any football experience. Though the new material is a trifle light, it is fast whipping into shape for an excellent team, and will unite in the best manner in team work and trick plays.

The team is putting in all available time practicing, in order to be ready for the game next week with Bend on the home field.

WAR VETERANS TO HAVE AN EXHIBIT

One of the most interesting exhibits at the Inter-State Fair next week will be that of the War Veterans, collected on the battle line in Flanders.

The relics are owned and lectured on by wounded and crippled soldiers, sailors and marines.

The war dog, Don, who is credited with saving 104 lives in the conflict, after which he suffered the loss of a leg, will be with the exhibition. Do not fail to see it.

PHYSOCRATES MEETING

The Physocrates met last Saturday at the home on Mrs. W. I. Dishman. Miss Florence Cramer entertained the club with a pianologue, and Mrs. William McFarland reviewed Vanity Fair, by Thackeray.

The club will meet next Saturday at the home of Mrs. Charles Ross.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The registration books will close on Saturday evening, October 2nd.

It is important that all citizens should be properly registered so as to be able to vote without trouble. If you have moved since last election, look the matter up.

O. I. D. BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

The board of equalization for the Ochoco Irrigation district will be in session Tuesday and daily thereafter to consider tax matters under the project.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETS ON TUESDAYS ONLY

Meeting dates for the commercial club, for the weekly luncheons, have been changed to Tuesday.

The first meeting under the new plan was held Tuesday of this week and was well attended.

The club went on record as endorsing the plan for a series of signs along the highways throughout this part of the state and appointed a committee consisting of V. V. Harpam, Arthur Michel and H. W. Howard to erect a number of signs.

REXAL STRAW VOTE FAVORS HARDING

The Rexal straw ballot, which the thousands of Rexal stores are conducting throughout the country, to feel out the sentiment regarding the presidential candidates, shows an overwhelming majority in favor of Harding.

The national vote at the last date reported is 51,103 for Harding, and 25,003 for Cox. The Oregon vote is 2006 for Harding, and 956 for Cox.

The vote at the Prineville Drug Company, the Rexal store here, is very light, and shows Harding in the lead, 155 to 53.

COUNTY TAXES BECOME DELINQUENT AFTER OCT. 5TH.

County taxes are due April 5th of each year, and if the first half is paid at that time you have until October 5th to pay the balance. After October 5th all taxes become delinquent.

Tax paying time is now approaching and this announcement is to call everyone's attention to that fact.

Be sure and bring your receipts for the first half of taxes with you, when you come to pay up the last half of taxes.

STOP THAT NOISE

Have you ever wondered what the racket is in East Prineville Sunday mornings and sometimes in between? It sounds like two old dish pans being slammed together didn't it? Well, it's the old cracked bell at the Presbyterian church ringing. Mr. Patterson says he intends to ring that bell until enough money is raised to buy a new one.

If you want to help stop that noise attend and liberally patronize the cooked food sale the Ladies Aid is giving at the Tri-State next Saturday. The proceeds go towards a new bell.

Attorneys Brink, Bernier, Skipworth and Bechtell made a business trip to Madras and Culver Monday

BIGGEST FAIR EVER IS THE SLOGAN

Earlier than ever before, extensive preparations are being made for the Inter-State Fair, which will open here next Wednesday, in what promises to be the largest event on record in its class.

The principal streets of the city were scarified and regraded recently and were never in better condition.

An experienced decorator will arrive in a few days, to do the work of street and other decorating, and all over the city everything is being put in readiness for the crowds, forerunners of which are already arriving.

A clean up campaign has been conducted during the week, and all through the city citizens have been busy collecting and burning rubbish, and putting their premises in a tidy condition.

A merry go round and a ferris wheel are being erected today, and a larger number of concessions than ever before will line the streets, according to early indications.

The management have announced that no concessions of questionable nature will be allowed, which action is endorsed by the city council.

K. of P. GRAND CHANCELLOR HERE TONIGHT

Julian A. Hurley, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, will be with the local lodge tonight. This is his regular annual visit to the Prineville lodge, and a good attendance is especially desired.

Besides the regular routine business there will be addresses by the Grand Chancellor and local men. A real "feed" will be served and everybody will have a good time.

THE CITY

The Methodist Ladies Aid gave a reception Monday evening for the new pastor of the Methodist church. The members of all the churches in town were invited. A program was enjoyed, consisting of flute music, by Vernon Shippe, accompanied by Mrs. Shippee; a reading by Mr. Hershey; and a reading by Miss Johnson. The married women then recounted where and how they first met their husbands, and the bachelors described what kind of a woman they hoped to marry. Everyone present very much enjoyed the evening.

THE PRESBYTERIAN LADIES AID MET

At the church last Thursday, 'China' was the missionary study topic for the afternoon. Long streamers were attached to the missionary map of the world, at China points where the ladies of Alaska, Oregon and Washington are supporting eight missionaries. At the end of each was an article telling of the work at each mission, for the ladies to read. A very interesting afternoon discussion China was spent.

Mrs. C. B. Garrison left last week for Seattle, where she will make an indefinite visit with her son in that city. Her son, Paul Garrison, accompanied her as far as Vancouver, and went from there on a business trip to northern Idaho.

The Tennis and Volley Ball club of the Presbyterian church went on a hike up into the rim rocks Monday night and had a weenie roast and baked bean feed. Their next social meeting will be the first Friday evening after the Fair.

Claude Dunham spent Monday in town from his ranch on Dry Creek

ARRIVING PLANE DAMAGED IN LANDING

The aeroplane which unexpectedly arrived over the city about noon yesterday, got mixed up in landing, and came down in Cram's field instead of Biggs' meadow. The Cram land is very boggy, and in making a landing, the wheels of the plane sunk into the ground, forcing the plane to a sudden stop. The propellers were unable to clear the ground and were entirely wrecked, and the machine was thrown into a sideways tilt.

The plane was piloted by J. D. Caverhill of Portland, and the necessary repairs are expected to be finished in time to put the machine in use in a few days.

of this edition of the Journal may be had at this office for mailing to your friends at ten cents each. A limited number only. Call early for yours.

OPEN SEASON FOR BUCKS AT FAIR

The largest pilgrimage of Indians from Warm Springs to this city yet recorded has already started and the Indian village will be well populated by opening day, according to information furnished by the fair management.

The Indians have played a large part in the success of former fairs, and we have many special preparations for the event which will start here next Wednesday.

PRYBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Friendly Church Services next Sunday. Sunday school at 10. Divine worship at 11 and 7:30. At the morning service a very fine review of the life of Moses will be given by Mrs. Wigle. This is a paper of exceptional merit and every one should hear it. In the evening there will be still pictures on film, portraying the life of Moses and his times. Moses the man who laid foundations, is the subject of the lecture. The church hour every Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation extended to all the services.

Saturday afternoon at the Tri-State the ladies of the church will give another food sale. Orders are coming in. Have you placed yours? Plan to help on Saturday afternoon.

M. E. CHURCH RALLY DAY NEXT SUNDAY

The "Home" church with a welcome and warm hand shake invites you to participate in their autumn gathering and really feel at home. We offer you a comfortable chair, in a cozy room, a hearty welcome, a worshipful atmosphere, and the Sunday school will render a suitable Rally Day program, which will be followed by communion and an address by the pastor.

"The Marks of a Christian" is the theme for the evening.

M. R. Gallaher, Pastor.

One of the most exciting events on the speed program at the Inter-State Fair next week will be the automobile races.

A Hudson bug, and a speedy Stutz racing car have already been entered and other entries may be made. The distance is five miles, or ten circuits of the track.

A Ford race will occur on Saturday in addition to the regular speed events of that day.

On the opening day, Wednesday, a saddle horse race, in which every horse must carry a regular stock saddle and a rider of not less than 140 pounds in weight, will be run, distance three eights.

This race is for Crook county horses only, and a committee to pass on the eligibility of the horses has been appointed as follows: H. J. Lister, Wm. Stanton, B. L. Kidwell, F. W. McCaffery and V. Butler.

On Friday, October 6, one of the events will be a novelty race, one and a half miles.

The first half to be walked, the second trot or pace, and the third run. An entrance fee will be charged in all these races, the amount to be added to the purse.

J. O. F. ANDERSON MAKING TRIP

J. O. F. Anderson left Sunday for The Dalles, and Monday left there for Albany. He stopped at the Oregon State Fair while enroute to that place.

In a recent communication from him, he states that the roads are all pretty good, except between Hay Creek and Antelope, where they are pretty rough. He also states that there is no gas shortage at any point along the road, and cars by the hundreds are using the highways.

Mr. Anderson expects to leave Albany today for Portland, Olympia, Port Angeles, Seattle, Bellingham, and British Columbia, and he will then return to Prineville.

GETS HEAVY YIELD OF WHEAT

One of the heaviest yields of wheat reported this year was threshed last week by Sam Reynolds, who had a field of winter wheat which averaged about 47 bushels per acre. Mr. Reynolds threshed a total of about 2200 bushels.

A. F. Jones reports a heavy yield also, likewise several farmers in the project.

Many teams and trucks are busy hauling the grain from three threshing machines working in the vicinity.

J. W. SMITH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

J. Wesley Smith, who was on the staff of the C. C. H. S. several years ago, is now principal of the Woodlawn, Washington, schools at a salary of $2400 per annum.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION TO BE HELD HERE OCTOBER 9

There will be a civil service examination at the post office in this city, October 9, for the position of city mail carriers.

Anyone between the ages of 18 and 45 years is eligible to take the examination, and the salary is $1100 per annum.

OCHOCO ELECT OCTOBER 16.

An election, called to secure approval of the tax recently levied, has been called by the board of directors of the Ochoco Irrigation District for October 16th.
