

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Clarence Mertching

Last Saturday, Bend's high school eleven went down to a 76 to 7 defeat. Prineville's backs smashed through the line or made yardage around the ends at will. Whenever the ball was brought close to Bend's goal, no difficulty was encountered in carrying it across the line at any time. Not once did Bend carry the ball into territory that was dangerous for Prineville's players. One of Bend's chief weaknesses was her fumbles, several of which were made near her goal immediately following the kickoff. Handicapped by greater weight and superior coaching, the opponents were easily crowded back by the advance of the Blue and Gold. Mills and Smith showed up in fine shape when it came to punching holes in the line. O'Kelley and Jacobs in the half back positions, played a commendable game during the entire mix. Bend's only score was made when Coyner intercepted a pass and ran down a clear field for a touchdown. At this feat the Bend rooters went wild as their hopes brightened for a Bend victory. It was the first time in five years that Prineville has been able to return home with a victory off Bend on the Bend field. The game was fast, as time was called very few times because of injuries. One of the features of the game was, that no penalties were called on either team. A square, clean game was played and this is something unusual when these two teams clash. Prineville was well represented on the sidelines and the team can have no complaint against the support given by the rooting section.

Next Friday a game will be played with Redmond on our home field. This will be the last game to be pulled off here in the Central Oregon meet. In the game with Bend, Redmond showed a wonderful improvement over their game with our team, and since playing Bend, their team has a chance for further development. Their line is heavy, and with proper coaching, they have every opportunity to put up a good dispute for the championship. Redmond's eleven will be well supported by their rooters and it is up to Prineville to get back of their team. Since this game is on the home field, there is no reason why a good attendance should not be had. Prineville's victory in the coming game will give her the championship.

A letter has been written to The Dalles asking for a game with them, but upon receipt of a return letter, it was learned that all their dates were full and a game could not be scheduled this year. Up to the present time no letters have been received from any of the Portlanders in regard to securing games.

Plans are under way to hold another rally. This time it is to be the biggest one ever held in this school. Each class was instructed to contribute to the success of the rally by performing some original stunt.

Last Tuesday the high school held an election, the students voting for the candidates for office in the general election. The election was conducted in the same manner as the regular elections are. Necessary supplies were obtained from the County Clerk's office, and sample ballots were used to vote with. Mr. Evans instructed the students in folding the ballots properly and the manner in which they were to be marked. After the instructions were given, two election boards were chosen, and instructions were given to the judges and clerks as to their duties. Ballots were then handed out and the students proceeded to vote. During the casting of the ballots, some of the votes were challenged and examinations were held to ascertain if the voter was qualified to vote.

In the evening the ballots were counted by one of the election boards and the results placed on a tally sheet. The result of the count of the principal officers were: Harding 69, Cox 61; Chamberlain 69.

Wood Sold by the Pound.
Circassian walnut, a popular wood for furniture, is sold by the pound ton. As early as 116 B. C. it was introduced into Italy from Persia. The logs are so heavy that they will not float. Only the heart of the wood is used, and it is the crooked, irregular logs that possess the best figured wood.

Thought Horse Shoe Lucky.
The belief in the luck-bringing power of the horseshoe attained its greatest diffusion at the end of the eighteenth and the beginning of the nineteenth century. Lord Nelson had a horseshoe nailed to the mast of the Victory; and in many towns it was not unusual to see half of the houses with horseshoes fastened over the door.

Remarkable Endurances.
A man, fifty years old, has walked from London to Yarmouth in less than twenty-eight hours. This distance is one hundred and twenty-four and a half miles. It would take a very good horse to equal such a feat. Another man, C. A. Harriman, tramped a distance of over one hundred and twenty-one miles without resting.—London Mail.

The After Years.
The early months of marriage bring with them a new experience of life, in which there are excitement and change of outlook, wonderful ambitions, and new codes and habits for the man and woman. The emotional life reaches the extremes of feeling—happiness and despair, hope and disappointment, mingled in confusion.

Food Value of Peanut.
Experiments on the digestibility of soy beans and peanuts, conducted by the United States department of agriculture, prove that these are especially valuable for human food and are well tolerated by the human body when cooked for two hours by steam at 15 pounds' pressure.

Reversed Position.
A friend took her four-year-old son to the circus. And upon returning home his father asked him: "Did you see the elephants, too?" The little fellow replied: "Yes, and they wagged their tails in front."

Town's Proud Boast.
This town has a young man who pawned his watch to obtain money for a bath. We contend that this is a claim to distinction possessed by no other town of earth.—Shawnee Register.

Wild Cinnamon.
Although the cultivation of cinnamon in Indo-China is increasing, most of the product comes from a wild shrub. When a native discovers a cinnamon tree he must make a declaration before the local administration, which cuts down the tree.

Good Work Never Lost.
The work of an unknown good man has done is like a vein of water flowing hidden underground, secretly making the ground green above it.—Carlyle.

Message for Deafness.
Hearing has been restored to more than two-thirds of his accidentally deafened patients by a French physician who massages their ears with sound waves.

Lower Prices for Our Customers

A lot has been published in the papers of late regarding lower prices. To a certain extent there has been price reductions but not to the extent that many have been lead to believe.

In every instance where there has been a market decline we have marked our merchandise to conform to the new level and our customers can be assured that we are going to continue to give the benefit of any market declines.

On many items this is going to mean a loss to us as it is impossible for any concern to carry the stock that their customers have a right to expect and still be able to get out without some loss. It is simply a loss that merchants must take on a declining market. Some of the prices named in this advertisement are special to clean up overstocks while others show market declines.
