Rev. Patterson, Mrs. Patterson and their daughter Mary left Monday for Ohio. Mr. Patterson has made many friends as pastor of the Presbyterian church here for the last few months. They will spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Patterson's mother in Columbus, Ohio, whom she has not seen for 19 years.

The Fourth Roll Call of the American Red Cross will end on November 25th. Chairman Skipworth has appointed each schoolteacher, outside of Prineville, to conduct the Roll Call in her respective district. In addition to that, Mrs. Hugh Lister has been appointed chief assistant for the Paulina country and Mrs. Frank Foster, chief assistant for the Powell Butte country. Here in Prineville, the Shumia Junior Club has taken charge of the work. Prineville will be divided into districts and thoroughly covered.

The most popular commodity received at the Prineville post office this week, and also taking up the most room, are boxes upon boxes of apples, shipped from Hood River to patrons in this part of the country. The Ochoco Warehouse received a shipment of 90 boxes Tuesday morning, and Homer Norton of Post has also received a great number of boxes of this excellent fruit from time to time. Box lots come every day for others, also.

Catherine Love is in Portland this week visiting with friends in that city.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid met last Thursday with Mrs. Robert Douglas. The "American negro" was the subject under discussion, and Mrs. W. I. Dishman read a most interesting paper along the lines of the place of the negro in American literature, art, music, and in other lines. Mrs. Oliver Adams sang several negro melodies. Mrs. E. True Shattuck read three selections from the well known negro poet, Paul L. Dunbar, and Mrs. Patterson read an article about Will H. Patten, the negro artist. The meetings of the ladies are very interesting, and they are having a good attendance.

BASIN NEWS

W. J. Ward has finished his fall farming and left this week for Spokane, Washington, where he will finish his vocational training in the Modern Automobile and Tractor school. Mrs. Ward accompanied him, and they will return about March first.

J. W. Johnson, Grant Allen and Geo. Stetson spent Monday and Tuesday in Prineville, in connection with the final proof on the latter's homestead.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Boeetto, who has been seriously ill with bronchitis is some better now.

On account of illness, Wes Allen's smiling face and pleasant ways were missed at the picnic.

T. J. Fergusson spent the weekend in Prineville buying winter supplies. We hope that Thomas will bring to our neighborhood that nice looking young lady he was seen with not long ago.

Jim Johnson, the well known trapper, has been on the trail of a skunk who has been making frequent visits to his chicken roosts.

John Knox, a prominent stockman and a one-time resident of the basin, was visiting with old friends and neighbors the past week.

Mrs. T. O. Conners has been spending the last week in Prineville where she has her young daughter under the care of Dr. Grater.
