

Ed Slayton and Mrs. Anna Adams left Monday night for Portland, being called to that city on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Slayton, who has been in ill health for some months.

Willard Wirtz, N. G. Wallace, D. M. Graham, Geo. Bernier, Jay Upton and M. E. Brink were among the local attorneys to spend a few days in Madras the first of the week, attending circuit court.

Former school mate of Zelda Winer will be interested to know that she was operated on this week for appendicitis, in Portland. She is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Frank Winer, who formerly lived in this city.

Mrs. Dorothy Cowne left for her home in Portland Sunday, after an extended visit with her aunt, Mrs. Jay Upton. Mrs. Cowne made many friends while in Prineville, and has been extensively entertained during her stay here.

Duffy Knorr was a visitor in town from Terrebonne this week. He is becoming well known throughout this part of the country as a boxer, and will engage in a bout with Joe Hofs of Portland at the Legion bouts tomorrow night.

The Deschutes Power Company has been replacing the old and worn out poles in and around town with new cedar poles, which were shipped in from Washington. They are also sending a load to Redmond and one to Madras.

Mrs. S. W. Babcock and little daughter Maxine, returned from McMinnville Sunday evening, after being away several weeks at the bedside of her brother, who was injured in an auto wreck. She states that he has been removed from the hospital, and is believed to be out of danger.

The Shumia Club had their meeting last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Edwards. The main attraction of the afternoon was a Christmas tree, shining with tinsel and other ornaments, and laden with gifts. Each Shumia brought a gift for someone else, and these were numbered. Every member drew a number and received the gift to correspond. During the afternoon, the hostess gave a sketch of the life of Christ, and Mrs. J. H. Rosenberg told a Christmas story. Refreshments carrying out the Holiday spirit were served.

OFFICE ROOMS

Modern, well-lighted
Brick Building
Good Location
Rates Reasonable

SEE
Dr. A. W. Grater
Benton Block - Phone Red 771
PRINEVILLE - OREGON

Dr. and Mrs. Horace Belknap of Nampa, Idaho, will arrive in town on the 24th to spend the Holidays in Prineville. While here Dr. Horace will assist his father with a number of operations, and other details of his practice.

Mrs. Lola Rhodes left on the evening train for Bend yesterday, for a visit with her son at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Lake Bechtell took their house guests, Mrs. Lucretia Woods, Miss Roma Woods and Miss Gertrude Woods, who are visiting them from Iowa, to Bend last Tuesday, on a shopping trip and sight-seeing tour.

George Meyer, Prineville's well-known undertaker, arrived home Sunday from a business trip to Portland. He said that Portland had a miniature blizzard for a few minutes on Monday, with lots of snow and wind and cold, and that he was glad to get back where there was a little sunshine to take the edge from the cold weather.

The fifth grade room, taught by Miss Marion Allen, won the big flag given to the room having the most people present at the profl meeting at the Methodist Church last Thursday night. Twenty-two people who were present voted for this room. The sixth grade room, taught by Miss Louise Young, was second, with 20 present, due to their efforts.

FURNITURE GIFTS

Are always Useful and Appreciated

We are busy this week moving into our larger new quarters, but we always have time to care for the requirements of our friends and have a large assortment of appropriate goods to pick from at prices that are right; Rugs at before-the-war prices, settees, rockers and complete bed room, dining room and living room furniture. Let us help you make a selection.

Pedestal Floor Lamps

In many shades and designs besides a large assortment of table lamps. Also high quality trunks and bags in many styles. Baby cabs, high chairs and child's beds.

Bend Furniture Co.
BEND - OREGON

YOU CAN'T BEAT THIS FOR A XMAS PRESENT

NEWELL MOTOR

SALES COMPANY