

Chas. Ross spent Friday night in Redmond.

Ed Staley spent Sunday on a visit to Bend.

E. A. Elliott was a Bend visitor on Saturday.

Howard Davis has been visiting his sister in Bend for a number of days.

Mrs. Edna Morse spent a number of days visiting in Redmond the last of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Nevel motored to Redmond on Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. W. B. Russell.

Leola Rose is much better, and is thought well on the road to recovery from her recent serious illness.

Dayton D. Kay, representing the Wiggins Company, called on the auto trade the first of the week.

The Carnation Thimble Club will meet with Mrs. J. W. Carlson at the Masonic rooms next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Hatch, and Mr. and Mrs. Collins W. Elkins were Friday visitors in Bend, returning on Saturday.

The ranch of Mrs. Grant Mays, three miles south of this city was leased for three years by B. B. Balfour, this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Yancey, at Sundre, Alberta, Canada, on March 28, a boy. He has been named Robert Orville.

Vernon Bell has been spending a number of days in town attending to business interests here. He is working in Portland.

Albert Plummer, proprietor of the Redmond Steam Laundry, purchased a Studebaker Six from the Elkins Motor Sales last week.

John Elliott and family came into town from the ranch on Saturday. Mrs. Emma McMeen returned with them for a short visit.

Mabel Connelly came over from Bend Saturday to attend the wedding of Martha Gillett to Bruce Ensley, and visit with friends.

Taxes are coming in rather slow, according to Sheriff Olson. Monday was the busiest day this year, $14,000 being taken in on that day.

D. H. Peoples of Bend motored over to Prineville Saturday. Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Barrett and Miss Farnsworth were also in the party, spending the evening visiting in this city.

The ladies aid of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. O. G. Adams, next Thursday, a week from today.

Carey Foster returned yesterday morning from a trip to Portland, going down last Friday evening.

Miss Dessell Johnson and Miss Josephine Thompson motored to Redmond Tuesday on a shopping trip.

Joe Howard made the trip to Bend on Saturday. Mrs. Howard accompanied him as far as Redmond, and visited with her mother at that city.

Judge Wallace took a party out to look over the O'Neill road last Saturday. A crew is busy graveling this road from the Crooked River bridge on.

During the wind storm yesterday, the big front door of the court house slammed with a bang just after Wade Huston passed through, and the jar smashed the glass, which makes the entrance way rather airy.

The evening bridge club met on Tuesday night with Mrs. C. W. Woodruff. Mrs. Fred Eickemeyer taking high score. The meeting also took the form of a delightful surprise shower, honoring Mrs. Bruce Ensley, recent bride.

Prof. Platts moved into the Baptist parsonage last Saturday. Mrs. Platts will be hostess to the Mission Circle next Thursday afternoon, and the members have been requested to bring their crochet needles with them.

Charles Goodknight and Lee E. Blevins passed the civil service examination last October for forest ranger in the national forests, according to a report just issued by the Portland office. Fifteen men in Oregon passed the examination.

J. S. Tolladay was a business visitor in Prineville yesterday. Mr. Tolladay's home is at Paulina, but he has been working at the George Russell ranch on Upper Ochoco, for the last month. He states that the grass has started well in that country, feed is fine, and prospects were never better for a good season.

Clarence Bixby arrived in town Thursday evening, accompanied by Mrs. Bixby. Their marriage took place recently in Portland. They left the last of the week for a visit with Mr. Bixby's mother, Mrs. Van Puett, at Paulina. Mr. Bixby is a graduate of C. C. H. S., and a brother of Tuck Bixby, formerly deputy in the county clerk's office.

50 good cigarettes
for 10c from one sack of

GENUINE
"BULL"
DURHAM
TOBACCO

U. R. Wilson was in Redmond on Tuesday on Deschutes Power Company business.

Mrs. Fred Eickemeyer is leaving tonight for a visit of a week or two with friends in Portland.

Miss Marion Allen and Miss Louise Young were joint hostesses to the girls' bridge club last evening.

Mrs. Frances Durand left yesterday to make an indefinite visit with her mother on the ranch near Deschutes.

Mrs. Col. Smith is entertaining the ladies of the Christian church at her home on West First Street this afternoon.

Paula Garrison is just recovering from a severe attack of poisoning, caused by eating an Easter egg in which the color had penetrated thru the shell.

Tuck Bixby and Eugene Miller arrived home yesterday morning from Eugene where they have been attending the University. They are on the way to their homes at Paulina.

Miss Myrtle Moore, third grade teacher in the Prineville schools, is leaving this week for Portland, where she will be affiliated with the Ellison-White Chautauqua system in charge of junior work. During her stay in Prineville she has made a host of friends, and is much loved by her pupils.

P. C. Garrison left for Portland on the evening train yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay H. Upton returned Sunday from a trip to Portland.

C. W. Elkins left last night to attend the mining convention in Portland.

Leland Smith of Seattle is making a visit with his uncle R. G. Smith.

Curtis M. Bailey, prominent rancher of Sisters, passes through town on a business trip last week.

The afternoon bridge club met with Mrs. C. W. Elkins last Friday. Mrs. R. E. Froiseth taking the high score.

T. M. Jordan, travelling agent for the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, visited the local railroad office Saturday.

F. M. Wood, well-known stockman of Paulina, was on the out-going train, headed for Portland, last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis returned Monday morning from Portland, where they were called on account of the death of Mr. Davis' mother.

The home of Lamont Horney near Culver was burned Tuesday, according to word received in Prineville. Mrs. Horney is the daughter of Wm. Peck.

Leland Davis and wife of Bend visited at the N. G. Davis home on Tuesday. Mr. Davis returned to Bend that day, and Mrs. Davis remained over for a visit with her parents.

The Fairview Stock Farm shipped two cars of cattle to the Portland market on Saturday. The Sevier Commission Company also shipped two cars. H. Bernard shipped one car to Grand Dalles last night.

Several of the neighbors of Mrs. Louis Hodges dropped in on her yesterday afternoon, surprising her with a birthday remembrance and remaining for an informal bridge party.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hall are the parents of a baby girl, born last Saturday at their home in Ashland. The Halls lived in Prineville last summer. The baby has been named Lucile Marie.

The Psychocrats will meet on Saturday with Mrs. Bill McFarland. Those who have not paid the Federation dues should be ready to pay them on Saturday. Mrs. C. L. Shattuck, President.

Will Wurzweller, Prineville's busy mayor, left last night for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Feely of Suplee were Prineville visitors on Monday.

Arthur Lane and D. Cordes came down from Post on Friday for a business trip.

R. W. Birdsall and wife visited in town from the Muddy Ranch on last Thursday.

Mrs. J. M. McEachern of The Dalles arrived last Thursday evening to make an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Balfour.

According to a recent issue of the Oregonian, Taylor Hill, an old-time resident of this city, is dead at his home in the valley. He was formerly very prominent in the stock growing business in Crook county.

A high fence has been built from the buildings in the rear of the old barn lot north of the Tri-State store, to and across the front of the lot. This hides the old sheds at the rear, as well as makes a fine sign board, much improving the property.

SAM GANGER ELECTED AS BASEBALL MANAGER

At a baseball meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Lyric, Sam Ganger was elected manager for the coming season. He has decided to ask all business houses in town to give five dollars each or more to support the team. The money will be used to buy new equipment and repair and clean up the ball park.

All boys who are interested in this sport are asked to turn out Sunday afternoon, and it is expected that a world-beater team will be developed, as there is considerable baseball talent in this city, as was proved last year when Prineville won every contest played during the Fourth of July celebration, without any special practice, including the mighty Maupin team.

Testing Water.

To test water—almost fill a clean pint bottle with it and add half a teaspoonful of granulated sugar to it. Cork tightly and keep in warm place for two days. If at the end of that time the water has become cloudy or milky, it is unfit for domestic use.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—A course in horse breaking and training. Original cost $25. For sale at $10.00. Write "J.B.", care Journal, city. 29-35p.

ENSLEY-GILLET MARRIAGE LAST SATURDAY.

In the presence of a number of friends, Miss Martha Gillett became the bride of Bruce Ensley, at the home of Mrs. E. S. Dobbs, last Saturday afternoon, at half past two. The ring ceremony was used, Rev. M. R. Gallaher officiating.

Mrs. O. G. Adams sang "O Promise Me", and Miss Florence Cramer played the wedding march, the music continuing softly through the ceremony. Little Wilma Holice Wirtz acted as flower girl, and Billy Wirtz carried the ring in a small basket.

The bride was dressed in a simple rose colored taffeta frock, and carried a bouquet of carnations. The rooms were decorated in potted plants and flowers, and the ceremony took place under the large arch between the parlor and dining room.

After congratulations were over, the bride cut the large wedding cake which was served with ice cream to the guests. Miss Gail Reeves found in her piece a ring. Miss Marie Olson received the thimble, and Miss Mabel Connelly got the dime, symbol of prosperity.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Russell, Dorothy Russell, Morris Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lafollette, Mrs. Eva Beard, Miss Anna Beard, Mrs. Mabel Connelly, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wirtz, Wilma Holice and Billy Wirtz, Miss Lola Morgan, Miss Marie Olson, Miss Gail Reeves, Miss Oma Emmons, Miss Marion Allen, Miss Louise Young, Mrs. Clara Pratt, Miss Florence Cramer, Mrs. O. G. Adams, Odgen Mills, Clarence Mertsching, Raymond Smith and Mrs. E. S. Dobbs.

Shortly after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Ensley slipped away by auto for Redmond, where they took the train for Bend to spend the week end.

The bride is the daughter of A. H. Gillett, who taught for two years in C. C. H. S. She has been working on the editorial staff of the Crook County Journal for the last year.

The groom is the son of Charles Ensley, a rancher of Lebanon, and has been employed at the Carey Foster ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ensley will be at home to their friends at the Dobbs' cottage, which is being remodeled for their occupancy, after the 11th of the month.

Alikeless in Unlike Things.
Watches and rivers seldom run long without winding.

CLOAK AND SUIT SALE

AT THE

J. E. Stewart & Co. Store PRINEVILLE, OREGON

Friday and Saturday, April 8 and 9.
Featuring the latest styles in Ladies
Cloaks, Suits and Dresses, by Foster
Cloak & Suit Co., of Spokane, Wash.
Due to the fact that a very low price is being named

Terms Must Be Spot Cash