Powell Butte News

The meeting Thursday night at Community Hall for the purpose of ratifying the articles of constitution and by laws of Crook County Chamber of Commerce, was well attended by Powell Butte people. A delegation from Prineville and Ochocho were present and explained the basis of the plan and thirteen names were secured at that time. No doubt most of the men of Powell Butte will be ready to take a membership when the canvas for members is made.

The following named gentlemen were present from Prineville and Ochocho, Messrs. Fuller, Upton, Skipworth, Woodruff, Gallaher, McRae, Jordan, Battles, Douglas, Hoebscher, Barrett, Fessler, Holmes and County Agent Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert (Pinkie) Reynolds have rented their place to Mr. Lott of Lamonta, and will move to Redmond next week. Mr. Lott will move his family to the Powell Butte ranch immediately. Mr. Reynolds will hold a sale of stock and farm implements Monday, May 16th.

George Brazeo has gone to Portland and Seattle on a business trip. He expects to return in about ten days.

Clifford L. Worrell, E. Hugh Stewart and Mr. Jackson attended the ball game at Redmond Sunday between Warm Springs Indians and a Redmond Team.

A. W. Bayne is in Bend in attendance with his father, Francis Bayne who is ill at his home there.

Mrs. Frank Barnes, Mrs. Pickett and Miss Vivian Huckle of Prineville visited with Grandma Spray at the C. M. Charlton home Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Foster is visiting her brother Jake Critser in Redmond this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Nevel and Mrs. McCoy of Prineville were guests at the E. A. Buset home Sunday.

Mrs. Green Beard, Mrs. George C. Truesdale, Mrs. J. J. Flint and Mrs. John Skeen went to Ochocho last Thursday where they visited with Mrs. Wallace Smith and family. The ladies enjoyed a fine turkey dinner cooked in their honor as only Mrs. Smith can cook them. The Smiths formerly lived at Powell Butte and had specially invited the guests for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kissler gave a dinner last Thursday in honor of Mr. Kissler's brother Henry, and wife who are visiting here from Sanbourne City, Iowa. There was present: Mr. and Mrs. John Kissler of Redmond, Mrs. Miller of Oakland, California, Grandpa Kissler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kissler and Frank Kissler's family. The next day Frank Kissler took them in his car to Prineville and up to the Ochocho Dam. They are wonderfully impressed with this country.

James Griffin took a fine load of wood to Prineville on Monday.

Levi Ernest sold a load of potatoes in Prineville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Washburn of Prineville visited at the G. C. Truesdale home Sunday evening.

George C. Truesdale, road supervisor of this district has a large force of men at work on the road leading north from Community Hall. Eight new culverts are to be put in and some graveling done to prepare the road for the heavy gravel trucks that will haul gravel to the highway over this road. This is a county road work and will be of much benefit to this section.

Powell Butte Sorosis met last week with Mrs. Edward Luthy. 12 ladies present enjoyed the social afternoon and the delicious luncheon served by the hostess was the kind that makes the ladies present dislike to have to go home and cook a common supper for the man of the house and the school children who were not fortunate enough to be a club member.

Ed Barnard of Ochocho Project attended the dance at Community hall Friday night. Mr. Barnard formerly lived at Powell Butte and enjoys getting back once in a while to see the old friends.

The dance at Community Hall was a pleasant affair. All enjoyed the good music by Johnson Creek Orchestra.

J. A. Riggs, President of the Central Oregon Irrigation District is in Salem this week on business connected with the district.

ALFALFA ITEMS

Mrs. Worrell left on Sunday evening for Astoria, Oregon, to be at the bed side of a daughter who is critically ill.

Linn Covert returned this week from Grants Pass bringing with him a fine bunch of dairy cows, and a Crawford car for their ranch at Alfalfa.

Gustave Berry, Mark and Verel Taylor and Gerald Lidwig returned to their homes in Alfalfa Saturday, having finished their work on the Highway near Redmond.

Miss Nellie Moffitt of Powell

Butte was a Sunday guest at the Schults home, Miss Verna Shults accompanying her to Prineville where she will visit friends this week.

John Gribbling of near Bend purchased some alfalfa hay from Billy Free Monday.

Charles McCune has a full blood poland china sow that farrowed 8 pigs, some of which are already contracted at $25.00 each at weaning time.

J. N. Crow and son and Walter Taylor and sons took their cattle to the high desert range Monday.

Mr. Shults of the High Desert visited over Sunday with an old neighbor, Walter Taylor, who formerly lived on the desert.

The barn on Benson place burned Wednesday evening. The origin of the blaze is unknown.

The Jolly Neighbors Club met with Mrs. J. N. Crow Thursday and surprised Mrs. Barlow with a quilt pieced and quilted by the members of the club as a token of their friendship. Mrs. Barber is leaving Tuesday for California to make her home.

Denver Good arrived from an extended trip through Oregon and California.

Leading Fruits.
The eight leading fruits consumed in New York city during the course of one year would fill 50,000 freight cars. This would make a train 270 miles long.

Another Definition.
The unpardonable sin in a person of a different race or religion from ours is to be smarter than we are.—Ohio State Journal.
