Moody's Last Sermon.
Dwight L. Moody preached the last sermon of his life in Kansas City in Convention hall on the night of November 16, 1899. He had undertaken to conduct revival meetings in the hall from November 12 to 19, but on the night of November 16 he became so ill that the next afternoon he gave up the meetings and returned home. He died at his home in Northfield, Mass., December 22, 1899.

The Columbia River Highway

THE remarkable engineering skill which built the Columbia River Highway opened a veritable paradise for motorists.

This highway follows the Columbia River from the Pacific Ocean—near Astoria—as far east as The Dalles, and leads the tourist through a country of indescribable scenic interest—high waterfalls, huge rocks, picturesque woods—an ideal vacation land for the motorist who appreciates nature at its best.

The Gasoline of Quality

And on your travels along the Columbia River Highway you can always get "Red Crown," the gasoline of quality—an all-refinery gasoline with a continuous chain of boiling points.

Look for the Red Crown sign before you fill.

Is Your Money Supporting the Government?

At this critical period in our history our manufacturers are offering their mills and our young men are offering their services to the United States government. Would you like to do your share and help, by putting your money where it will support the new Federal Reserve Banking System, which the government has established to stand back of our commerce, industry and agriculture?

You can do this by opening an account with us as part of every dollar so deposited goes directly into the new system, where it will always be ready for you when wanted.
