

UNIVERSITY PARK AND PORTSMOUTH

Happenings of the Week In and Around These Enterprising Suburbs.

Gathered and Condensed for the Information of Review Readers—
Personal, Social and Otherwise.

Mr. Sibrey has just moved into his new house at Goddard.

Arrangements are being made to build a large drying kiln at the Cone mill.

Eugene Philips, from Colorado, is in Portsmouth, looking for a business location.

Mrs. Belle Nash returned Monday from a week's visit with friends at Dundee, Or.

Mr. Burton's new house on Fiske street is nearly finished, and the family will move in soon.

Mrs. Beauman's baby has been sick for several days. Mrs. B. lives near Portsmouth avenue north.

Mrs. Wallace Mason, daughter of D. V. Hart, has been very sick. Severe attack of pleurisy.

The Cain Brothers have about completed their green houses and will soon commence using them.

Mrs. Robbins, whose husband is foreman at the Acme Lumber Co., has joined her husband, and will reside in Portsmouth.

Five new residences are being built just below the boulevard, and a large number are going up in other parts of the Park and Portsmouth.

S. F. Fouts, of Hood River, was in Portsmouth Sunday last. He is interested in the Portsmouth Pharmacy and is pleased with the outlook.

The three-masted schooner Watson, will load lumber at Cone's mill next week. A portion of the Watson's cargo is now being taken on at Vancouver.

The Haywood Club's production of "Tompkin's Hired Man," at their auditorium tonight gives promise of being one of the best yet given. A crowded house is anticipated.

Mr. Latimer, of Wisconsin, arrived here Wednesday evening. Mr. Latimer is largely interested in the Peninsula mills, and is here for the purpose of looking over the property.

The Congregationalists will begin services in Haywood Auditorium, University Park, December 11th, 1904. Preaching by Rev. J. J. Staub of the Sunnyside Congregational Church at 3:30 p. m.

O. E. Rider, of Portsmouth, who has been employed for a number of years at G. W. Cone mills returned Friday evening from an extended trip east. He is glad to get back to Oregon and the peninsula.

The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peddicord, of University Park, Sunday. Mr. Kellogg is the editor of the Cowlitz Valley Journal. He gave the boys a lesson in Jim Jitsin. The novelty of this art makes it interesting. It is full of surprises and astonishing feats.

The ladies' aid of the University Park M. E. Church gave a missionary tea at Mrs. Sharp's on Tuesday afternoon and was a good success. Another is to be given soon. They will also have a booth at ladies aid at St. Johns to be held on Thursday and Friday of this week.

The congregation of the M. E. church has outgrown its present accommodations and plans are being devised to enlarge and otherwise improve the church building. The trustees held a meeting Monday evening, when committees were appointed to get estimates on cost of an addition, and necessary repairs. The growth of the membership and attendance has been very great within the past year, and it has come to a point where enlargement is necessary. The present intentions are to commence the work without delay.

We are glad to see the steps taken by some of our churches and Sabbath schools that are now looking forward to the holiday festivities. It seems at last the children are to be taught that, blessed though it is to receive, it is still more blessed to give; hence they are expected to contribute something of their stores to aid the needy poor, some of whom are in nearly every neighborhood. Nor should the homes to the poor and unfortunate whose bark on life's tempestuous sea has often been in storms or distress, be forgotten, stranded though these luckless voyagers be, we should show them that they are not on unfriendly shores. What better lesson can we teach our children than the scripture lesson, "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

At the University Park board of trade meeting Saturday evening, the following ladies were appointed a committee on civic improvement: Mrs. Athey, chairman; Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Faulk, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Van Tyne, Mrs. Bagley, Mrs. McGregor, Mrs. McKeen, Mrs. H. I. Davis, and Mrs. G. Cone. We trust that these ladies will see to it that the men improve, that is, improve the appearance of the Park we mean, and make it a more desirable and attractive place to live. While the place is naturally beautiful, it is evident to the observing stranger that man has not been a very faithful collaborer with nature. The park ought to be one of the loveliest suburbs of "the evergreen city." We trust that these ladies will see to it that University Park shares deservedly in the many compliments to be paid to Portland far and wide after the 1905 exposition; and it will be greatly to their honor.
