

UNIVERSITY PARK AND PORTSMOUTH

Happenings of the Week In and Around These Enterprising Suburbs.

Gathered and Condensed for the Information of Review Readers—Personal, Social and Otherwise.

E. Wright, of McMinnville, visited relatives here during the past week.

Mr. A. O. Temple's new house on Haven avenue, will be ready for occupancy by February 1st.

G. H. Hemstock, the Park's popular druggist, spent Sunday with relatives and friends at McMinnville.

Mr. Gray has commenced to break ground for a fine large residence on Haven avenue and Davis street.

It is reported that Mr. Allen has sold his property to Mrs. Fifer, who will take immediate possession.

The Rev. Speer is having his lots on Bowdoin street and Haven avenue fenced and improved and talks of building in the near future.

M. O. Falk, of the Park, has been confined to his home during the past few days from the effects of one of Jules' cuffs on his face.

Mrs. Russell is contemplating finishing her house on Danna street and it will be probably occupied by herself and mother in the near future.

Two vessels, one 10,000 bbl. and the other 15,000 bbl. burden, discharged their cargoes of oil at the Union Oil Co.'s docks at Portsmouth this week.

Sunday services at Holy Cross Church, Portsmouth Station: 8:30 a. m.; 10:30 a. m.; 3:30 p. m. Everybody welcome. Father Thillman, C. S. C., rector.

Mr. A. O. Temple has the contract to build a two story residence for Mr. Leroy Young, of Moro, Or., on the corner of Woodsley and Angnes streets.

Grandma Alford, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ellis, of University Park, expressed great surprise at the amount of building done at the Park since last she was here.

H. S. Hudson, supreme master Artisan, made his family a flying visit Monday night, at least he missed his train for St. Johns—possibly he went down on the opposite side of the river.

The Narcissus Club have invitations out for a snow ball party, Tuesday evening. This is a new innovation in the way of social events and many of our younger people are wondering where the snow is to come from.

University Park is fast showing her superiority over the other suburbs, as a fine residence quarter, and the activity with which buildings are going up and the superiority of the houses being built, is attracting the home seeker's eye.

Dr. Mrs. Edgington, of Wasco, was a guest of Mrs. Peddicord this week. In company with Mrs. Peddicord she visited the fair grounds and was delighted with the present appearance and prospect for a most successful fair in 1905.

Grandma Beason died at her home in Portsmouth, Sunday morning Dec. 18, after quite an extended illness. The funeral services were conducted Tuesday according to the Congregational church. The remains were followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

A very pretty home wedding took place Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Howe, of Portsmouth, when their accomplished daughter, Miss Louise, was united in marriage to Mr. E. O. Binder, one of University Park's popular young men. Only friends of the family were present.

Our veteran shoemaker, Mr. Hatfield, sold his residence on Haven avenue to Mr. Coon, of Hood River, who has already taken possession. Mr. Hatfield is moving into the Reverend Dunning's residence on Vanderbilt street. However, Mr. Hatfield showed his good judgment by purchasing a lot as near and convenient to his old home on Fisk street and the contract has been let to build an up-to-date residence.

Manager Fowler, of the Peninsula Lumber Company, states that the company will put on a night force of 100 men at once and operate the mill at night. This will give a force of 200 men. All the improvements and additions to the Peninsula sawmill are completed, but next year the big box factory and second sawmill will be erected just north of the present plant, with the cable tramway between. It was stated that the company was negotiating for the purchase of the Douglas Company's plant at St. Johns. There are also rumors afloat that there is to be another sawmill north of St. Johns.

Christmas Services at the Holy Cross.

- Benedictus, Choir, "Kind-Jesu-Messe."
- Agony, Tenor, Choir, "Kind-Jesu-Messe."
- Solo, Christmas Hymn, Miss McKenna assisted by choir.
- Benediction.
- Oratorical Hostia, Choir, A. Werner.
- Tantum Ergo, Choir, L. Borsese.
- Thanksgiving, Choir, "Holy God We Praise Thy Name."

The members of the choir are the Misses O'Grady, Pearl McKenna, Mathews, Margaret McKenna, Messrs. Long, B. Jerome P. Month.

The sermon of the day will be preached by the pastor, Rev. Thillman.

The Columbia Juniors Win.

The Junior Columbia team added to their already long list of victories, when on Saturday, December 10th, they took the All Albina Junior aggregation into camp to the tune of 12 to 0.

Despite the difference of weight of nearly seven pounds to the man the "prep" team played a stout game, forcing their opponents to the unusual method of lining the men down on their knees with their arms interlinked to attempt to withstand the smashing line plunges of Capt. O'Brien, George Krebs and Fullback Leavy. The ends on the Albina team were their mainstay, blocking all end runs and running down punts in a truly scientific manner. Only once did they fail to get their man, when Quarterback Boyle of the Columbia, behind a splendid interference tore 45 yards down the field, but fumbling the ball behind the goal so the credit for the touchdown is divided between the runner and Jeff Krebs, his center who fell on it. E. Wilkinson, halfback, kicked the goal.

In the second half the game was waged in the center of the field until Capt. O'Brien began signaling for line bucks, when the ball was slowly forced to the opponent's goal. Leavy went through the line six yards for a touch down and again Wilkinson kicked goal.

In the last few minutes to play Wilkinson tried a drop kick from the thirty yard line for a goal but missed by a few feet. Throughout the game his kicking was of the first order, always sure of punting from twenty to thirty yards.

The final score stood: C. U. "prep" 12; Albina 0.

S. S. Christmas Program.

The Sabbath school of the M. E. church at University, will give a short Christmas program Sunday evening, to which all are cordially invited. In lieu of the Christmas tree there will be a large "stocking" to receive donations for the worthy poor. Should you desire your donation of flour, sugar, potatoes, rice, or articles of clothing, to go to any particular person, old women, or babies homes, attach a card so directing the committee of what disposition you wish to be made of your donation.

Friends, you who are favored with reasonable health and plenty, remember God's words says, "The poor ye have always with you;" also, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Do you believe the former? Look about you. Do you realize the latter? Try it again in your liberal way.

Have you your Christmas tree at home this year? It will help to make the family circle very dear to both parents and children. It may be a broken circle ere another Christmas returns. Other the years will come to our children, as they come to us, tender memories, memories too sacred for aught but tears to express. Yes, have a beautiful little Christmas tree at home. It's happy associations will be the tie that binds.
