

UNIVERSITY PARK and PORTSMOUTH

The Local Happenings of These Lively Suburban Points Carefully Compiled Each Week

By a Special Reporter, for the information and Edification of The Review Readers and the General Public.

Mrs. C. W. Osborne has recovered from an attack of the grip. M. O. Faulk, of the firm of Faulk & Merrill, is severely ill with the grip.

Miss Buckenmayer's dancing class met Tuesday night and was well attended.

Harry B. Reynolds, who has been suffering from grip, is now well again.

P. Swan has bought a lot on Portsmouth avenue on which to build a home.

The shingle mill at the foot of Fiske street, will start operations next Monday morning.

The Narcissus club will give a valentine dance at the Artisan's hall next Tuesday evening.

The Portsmouth pharmacy has installed a new typewriter (machine) and is much pleased with it.

Mrs. F. P. Walker, who has been quite ill of the prevalent ailment—grip—is now convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lucky, of Hood River, are visiting Mrs. Lucky's father and mother, at Portsmouth.

Mrs. Frank Ireland, of Piedmont Junction, is able to be about again after an illness of several weeks.

J. R. Rutter, barn foreman at Peninsula lumber mills, is recovering from a severe attack of the grip.

The Congregationalists will hold services at the University Park Baptist church, every Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

H. G. Sibray has quite recovered from the painful affection of eyes, which for some time threatened severe results.

F. Atwood and family of Shaniko, have moved into the property vacated by Mrs. Nash, on Stockton street.

Prof. W. H. Tierney, of Columbia University, is again with his classes after an illness of several weeks.

Frank Ireland, the popular Piedmont Junction merchant, has gone to Denver, Colo., to visit his mother, who is seriously ill.

The D. S. Young house on Woodsey street, of which A. O. Temple is contractor, will soon be ready for the plasterers.

C. C. Barker, of Bay City, Mich., president of the Peninsula lumber company, was here this week in the interests of the company.

The grocers of Portsmouth and University Park have entered into an agreement to close their places of business at 7 o'clock in the evening.

The plumber is the man most sought for just at present. It is estimated that half the water pipes on the Peninsula burst during the recent cold snap.

Geo. F. Withler, of Indianapolis, Ind., is looking over property in University Park, and expresses himself as highly pleased with the prospects of this suburb.

Edward K. Brown, who recently went east and brought back a bride, is building a home on Syracuse street. Mr. Brown is an employe of the Peninsula lumber company.

Jacobson & Bude, the plumbers, have opened up a first-class plumbing shop on Fisk street, near Dawson. H. Pritchard will have charge of the establishment.

A valentine social took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pully, Tuesday evening, and was largely attended. Many valentines were exchanged, and a merry evening was spent.

It is thought that in the capture of the Lebanon bank robbers, the police have secured the safe blowers who operated in the University Park post office and in the office of the Acme lumber company.

The safe of the Acme Lumber company, which was cracked about two weeks ago, has been repaired and is now as good as ever. Of the papers lost none have been found excepting a few belonging to Manager C. W. Barber.

University Park wants a bakery. H. G. Sibray offers to build a shop and oven for any good practical man who will undertake the enterprise. There is no question but that the business will pay with an enterprising man to conduct it.

Portsmouth Tent, No. 55, R. O. T. M., will give a public installation on Tuesday evening, February 21, at Hemstock's hall. There will be coffee and cake and other "doings" for the entertainment of the wives, sweethearts and friends of members.

Ellison and Palmer, one of Portland's most reliable contracting firms, did the bricklaying, placing of the boilers and heavy machinery in the Olson shingle mill. This firm does all the brick work for the Portland General Electric Co., and has erected some of the most substantial buildings in Portland.

The gentlemen have the reputation of doing good honest work, and when a contract is completed there are no Tanner sewer odors about it.

Subscriptions for The Review will be received by Postmaster George H. Hemstock, of University Park. One dollar a year.

Miss Hazel Foreman was successfully operated on Monday at the Good Samaritan hospital for the removal of a tumor from her neck.

The University Park Baptist church will hold services as follows: Sunday school, to a. m.; preaching, 11 a. m.; regular weekly prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.

Nell Collamore, of Sumner, Wash., is visiting with his mother, Mrs. V. Collamore on Hereford street, while recuperating from an attack of typhoid fever and pneumonia.

The Haywood club gave a sheet and pillow case masquerade at the Haywood auditorium, Tuesday evening. On account of other socials, the attendance was small but those present enjoyed themselves hugely.

Mrs. Floyd Fields, of Evanston, Ill., visited during the week with the family of A. W. Bagley, her brother-in-law. Mrs. Fields is the wife of Prof. Floyd Field, an Oregon boy, of the Northwestern University of Evanston.

The mother of R. W. Pritchard, manager of the Portsmouth pharmacy, has bought six lots on Syracuse and McKenna avenue, just to show her confidence in the Peninsula. Mrs. Pritchard expects to build a home in Portsmouth in the near future.

A new station has been established at Columbia Park and a subscription is being circulated by D. V. Hart for funds to build a platform and waiting room. The walks through Columbia Park have been graveled and the new station will be a great convenience to residents of the neighborhood.

In line with the efforts of the Civic Improvement club, H. G. Sibray this week devoted his attention to an unsightly telephone pole that had long lain in the street in front of his office. He succeeded in working it up into fence posts to his own benefit and much to the improvement of that particular portion of the street.

W. F. Stewart has joined his parents in their new home at University Park, 1014 Haven avenue. Mr. Stewart, whose home was formerly in Portland, has lately come up from California. He has been appointed secretary of the Oregon Christian Endeavor bureau, a bureau organized by the State Christian Endeavor for the purpose of listing rooms in Christian families for out of town tourists who will visit the fair. Mr. Stewart stated so many improvements have been made in the peninsula, that he firmly believes it will soon take the lead of any of the suburbs of Portland. He has demonstrated his faith in the community by purchasing two lots on Haven avenue, adjoining the home of his parents.

A New County Road. Road Supervisor D. V. Hart is opening a county road 80 feet wide and a half mile in length along that portion of the St. Johns car line which runs through the Mock tract. The fences are now being set back to correspond with Dawson and Pippin streets of which it is the connecting link. Mr. Hart expects to get an appropriation from the county court which will enable him to remove the stumps along the road, and thus give a shorter line of access for teams traveling in that locality. Later on, Mr. Hart, who is a hustler, expects to get an appropriation for grading and graveling the road. This makes the street from Peninsula to McKenna avenue continuous and of a uniform width.

Bull-Dog Wedding. The marriage of Miss Ruth Manchester Dow and Mr. Henry Vincent Bull took place on Wednesday evening, January 18, at the home of the groom's father, Mr. Elizabeth Bull of Dumplin, Tenn., Rev. M. A. Rule, of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiated, using the wedding ring of the bride's mother.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white lace and net oversilk. After the ceremony the party, consisting of relatives and a few immediate friends, were seated to a delightful supper in the spacious dining room, beautifully decorated with ferns and autumn leaves. The ring in the bride's cake was found by the groom's sister, Miss Kittie Viola Bull.

The groom is a promising young man of marked talents and a social favorite, both at home and in the west, where he has spent six years. The bride is a native of Oregon and a most lovely and accomplished young lady. For the past two years she has made her home in San Francisco with her mother, at which place she left a host of warm friends as well as in her native state.

Mr. and Mrs. Bull are to reside at Dumplin.

The groom was formerly a resident of University Park, being in the employ of Road Supervisor D. V. Hart.

A Parish Whist Party. The ladies of Holy Cross parish gave a whist party and supper at the Artisan's hall last Saturday evening which was a very enjoyable affair.

On account of the cold, stormy, weather prevailing the attendance was not so large as was anticipated but those who did grace the occasion with their presence were amply repaid for their courage in venturing out into the wintry night.

The evening was spent in playing whist and in the enjoyment of the sumptuous supper provided by the ladies.

There were spread upon the tables all the toothsome goodies that the good housewives of the Peninsula could provide, and to sit down to such a feast, was sufficient to drive away all thoughts of the howling tempest that raged without.

In the whist contest the first prize was won by Mr. Schwab and Miss Hughes and the booby prize by Prof. Long, of Columbia University and Miss Cecelia Grady, of St. Johns. The net receipts were $10.

"LEST HE FORGET." Let's Keep Knocking at the Railroad Office Door.

[By Ina Webfoot.] Last week's REVIEW gave us the information that a committee had waited upon the Portland Consolidated management, that they presented their petition for a through service to St. Johns, and that the said management had reported progress, and begged leave to sit again, or words to that effect.

This is encouraging, but results are lacking. Of course all the eggs in a basket are not laid in a day, (by a single hen,) and of course the Consolidated company, being conservatively managed, their cars are conservatively run—the time table being prima facie evidence—and it is not to be expected, or even hoped, that we will soon pass Piedmont without the pleasant sensation of changing from a heated to a fresh-air car; if fortunate enough to avoid taking all the cold one can carry, and a bunch or two of influenza, while waiting for the coach.

Of course, it will not do to appear hurried in this matter. We must take our time. The railroad company has appropriated so much of our time in the past it would seem to be economy to use a little of it ourselves.

So, while it will not do to become agitated, will it not be wise for us to call again, say about 2 o'clock next week, in anticipation of an answer—a favorable one, you understand—being ready and waiting to make our hearts glad and our little feet less weary in doing a hasty skate at the half-way house.

But cheer up. Cherries are not ripe, but they will be, and about that time we won't get so chilly waiting for the cars that have just gone. Remember to call again, Mr. Committee, and may you persevere until results are obtained.

R. A. Whitney is building a fine house Peninsula avenue.

The Review can be found on sale at the Portsmouth Pharmacy, the University Park drug store and at the Piedmont station.
