

LOCAL ITEMS AND CITY NEWS

Recital Saturday night, April 22. The subject next Sunday morning at the subject next Sunday morning at the M. E. church will be, "Christ our Life."

There is a great deal of interest manifested in the revival services being held at the M. E. church.

Recital Saturday night, April 22. B. F. Neal and family, of Scio, Ore., will arrive here this week, and will make their future home.

The Rev. W. T. Kerr and Young have aided in the revival meetings now being held in the M. E. church.

Recital Saturday night, April 22. J. W. Steing, of Roseburg, Ore., was in the city Saturday. He reports well in the city Saturday, but is well pleased with the outlook for St. Johns.

The new Odd Fellows lodge holds regular meetings every Monday evening. Their meeting last Monday night was attended by all the officers of Hillson encampment.

Recital Saturday night, April 22. William Pierson and Ed Dennison, tonorial artists of Portland, were St. Johns visitors a few days ago. They were amazed at the growth of our city, and may return.

Angus Forbes, an old-time East Portland business man, was in St. Johns Sunday, looking over its possibilities. Angus spent three years in Alaska, and knows a good thing when he sees it.

Fruit buds have not been seriously injured by frost in this locality, and the visceres predict a bountiful crop, especially of the celebrated cherry, better than which are not produced on this mundane sphere.

Recital Saturday night, April 22. W. W. Raser has opened a confectionery, ice cream parlor, cigar tobacco and fruit store, on Jersey street, two doors north of THE REVIEW office. He keeps a good stock and sells at up-town prices. See his ad in another column.

Satisfactory arrangements are said to have been concluded whereby the Portland Consolidated will be permitted to use the contemplated railway bridge across the Columbia river at Vancouver. Work will be commenced on the bridge very soon.

Rev. John Bentzien, Baptist city missionary for Portland and vicinity, has found about thirty Baptists in St. Johns, and doubts there will be a church organized here of that denomination. Rev. Bentzien will preach again next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Miss Cole has a fine lot of hens, but she has one that is evidently imbued with the correct St. Johns spirit. For several weeks this particular hen has produced one double egg, but last week she got a move on and laid a triple egg, with three distinct yolks. This is a rare occurrence.

Recital Saturday night, April 22. Monday was surely a full day for Portland people as St. Johns was full of them. Timothy Thompson, an old resident of Washington county, was in the city and bought eight lots in the vicinity of the schoolhouse. "Tim," as he is familiarly called, is a pioneer of the early '90's who has grown wealthy in the state of his adoption.

The excavators for the new buildings at the corner of Jersey and Burlington streets broke a water main Monday, and the city house-wives went absolutely dry. There were no naughty cause-words heard, but it is safe to wager a lot of the cooks of St. Johns thought "darn it," if nothing more strenuous passed their pretty lips.

The musical recital to be given by Miss Amy B. Rowland and her pupils at Bickner hall tomorrow evening, promises to be a most pleasing event. Some of the best musical talent of Portland will be present and assist. Our music-loving people should not miss the recital, if they want to enjoy a most pleasant evening's entertainment.

Recital Saturday night, April 22. Owing to the Burnside street bridge being closed, all the street cars and much of the team traffic which went over that bridge, has been diverted to the steel bridge, with the result that the latter is overcrowded, and much delay is caused. This condition will continue for at least two weeks, so that patience is necessary.

At the Evangelical church next Sunday there will be appropriate music rendered in recognition of Easter day. The pastor will speak in the morning. Subject, "Evidence of Christ's Resurrection. Instead of the regular evening service, there will be a service held at 3 p. m., when Bishop W. F. Heil, of Highland Park, Chicago, Ill., will preach. He is a very powerful and eloquent speaker and no one can afford to miss this service of all others of the day.

An O. R. & N. surveying party has been working in this district the past fortnight. A line was run to the Weyerhaeuser site, and it is understood the track will be extended to that point at once, in order to facilitate the moving of the large amount of heavy machinery and building material to be used in the erection and equipping of the large mill. It is understood the Weyerhaeuser people will commence the building of wharves as soon as material can be got on the ground.

Among the guests stopping at the St. Johns hotel this week, we note Moses Tufts, real estate dealer, L. J. Brand, of Chicago, H. B. Klippel, Melford, John Prickett, Portland, N. J. Wright, Hood River, Leslie Mercer, Portland, G. S. Wetzler, Pa., R. R. Whitney, Iowa, B. Morris, Portland, W. B. Case, San Francisco. This shows that St. Johns is attracting people from all parts of the United States, and most of these will become permanent residents of our flourishing little city.

The New Bank.
F. C. Knapp, of the Peninsula Lumber Co., returned from the East this week. While in Wisconsin he met Charles Wood, who informed him that he had about all his arrangements perfected to arrive here about May first to open up St. Johns' first bank, with an amount of capital behind it that guarantees success. In fact, Mr. Knapp told our informant that it was not a question of any stipulated amount that will be invested, but what amount can be used profitably in the enterprise. The demand will be the only limit. It is thus assured that the concern will be one of the strongest and most substantial in the country. Mr. Knapp was commissioned to go ahead and get all the fixtures necessary manufactured and in place, so that when Mr. Wood arrives no time will be lost in opening up business. The corner room in the Cochran block will be occupied for the present.

A Worthy Benefit.
The ladies of the Royal Neighbors and Civic Improvement League have arranged for a ball to be given at Bickner hall next Thursday evening, for the benefit of the M. W. A. band of this city. The purpose is to assist the boys in securing uniforms. The object is a most laudable one, and one in which the citizens of St. Johns should feel a pride. The price of tickets: gentlemen, 50 cents; ladies, 25 cents. The band deserves well of the people, and by constant practice and close application is becoming very proficient. Let everybody turn in and help the ladies in their undertaking, and see to it that a handsome sum is realized.

Announcement.
To the ladies of St. Johns: May first Mrs. L. Flint Chase will open first-class dressmaking parlors in the Freedman block. None but first-class cutters and fitters will be employed.

Daring Burglary.
One of the most daring burglaries ever perpetrated in St. Johns was that which occurred at the residence of A. A. Hurlburt Wednesday night. A burglar gained entrance to the victim's bed room through a window, and took his trousers from beneath the sleeper's pillow. In handling the garment some $6 in silver dropped on the floor, but when the thief got outside he went through the pockets taking therefrom a $20 gold piece. Mr. Hurlburt, who is an old soldier, had drawn his pension money during the day, and no doubt the burglar had knowledge of this fact. While not great, yet Mr. Hurlburt, who is well along in years, feels the loss keenly.

Additional Locals.
Recital Saturday night, April 22. S. C. Norton has just returned from a trip to Toledo, Oregon.

The city council will hold an adjourned session, this, Friday evening.

J. P. Wood, of Birmingham, Ala., was a pleasant caller in our city Monday.

Mrs. Coleman, of Forest Grove, Ore., was a St. Johns caller last Thursday.

Recital Saturday night, April 22. Concrete sidewalks will be put down around the French block in a few weeks.

Work on the large new hotel in the French addition will be commenced soon.

Recital Saturday night, April 22. "The St. Johns Pharmacy have a change of ad in this issue concerning a May day event they have scheduled. Watch for it.

A party of engineers are engaged in surveying the site of the Weyerhaeuser mill, preparatory to commencing building operations.

The St. Johns Lumber Co. will install a pony siding resaw. The capacity of the mill will be increased to 30,000 feet per day.

"When will the Jersey street improvement work commence?" asks a reader. Don't know, but perhaps—but no, we know we don't know. Give it up.

Recital Saturday night, April 22. Don't neglect to buy a ticket to the benefit ball to be given by the ladies next Thursday night, and assist our excellent band organization to secure uniforms.

P. J. Peterson has bought block 12, lot 1, of his partner, H. W. Smith for $450. The firm are figuring on purchasing a fine stock ranch near Westport, Ore.

Ed Hurlburt has leased the grounds south of the school house, and is cleaning it up, erecting seats and booths for a picnic ground. It will be quite attractive when completed.

W. L. Bullis will commence at once the erection of a two-story veneer block 25x50 in French's addition. The lower floor will be used for store purposes, the upper floor for living rooms.

Who will be the next city marshal? That's the question agitating the minds of many people about town with bees in their bonnets. Perhaps there will be no next. Marshal Organ is still "it."

Recital Saturday night, April 22. FOR SALE—A good sorrel work horse, single driver, true for cars, coming ten-years old, weighs about 1250, with new double set of work harness used three months for $125. PETERSON & SMITH.

A large cofferdam is being built at the wooden ship yard with the view of docking the steamship Elder, wrecked some two months ago. The steamship is expected to arrive very soon.

Windle Bros. have sold the Star meat market to Hiatt & Fortune. Billy Windle is like a fish out of water without the proverbial butcher's apron. The boys have not decided what they will engage in as yet.
