

UNIVERSITY PARK and PORTSMOUTH

The Local Happenings of These Lively Suburban Points Carefully Compiled Each Week

By a Special Reporter, for the information and edification of the Review Readers and the General Public.

Mr. Harrison is again stopping with the Boutwell's.

Mrs. Costello is about recovered from her recent illness.

May is here but the roses are rather slow in blooming.

Try the Portsmouth Pharmacy for a fine glass of soda.

Gus Ritewine and family, from the city, are at Club Hall.

Grandma Dickson was a visitor at Club Hall for a few days.

John Watson and wife of Castle Rock, are installed in a suite at Club Hall.

Charles Salmon, formerly engineer of the shingle mill, has left for Los Angeles.

Miss Hayden, of Hillsboro, is on her vacation, part of which she will spend at Club Hall.

The city engineer has stated that work will be commenced on the new sidewalks the first of June.

James Colfer has accepted the position of sexton at St. Lawrence's Catholic church, North Portland.

After some necessary repairs the shingle mill has started on a record-breaking cut, with wages raised all round.

Marshall Clark, of Iowa, is visiting his sister, Mrs. M. O. Faulk, at the Park. Mr. Clark formerly resided here.

Subscriptions to the REVIEW may be left at the Portsmouth Pharmacy. Extra copies are also on sale there.

A new mill is spoken of; this time in the slough, above the shingle mill, according to rumor it is to be a sash and door factory.

The basket factory, of which Melvin Smith is one of the proprietors, is busy filling the orders they have been flooded with.

Mr. and Mrs. William Whiteley, who left for a visit to Seattle, are back at Club Hall, and Robert Bruns of Tacoma, is with them.

Ed Sigman, formerly of the Peninsula mill, and now of Aberdeen, paid a visit to Club Hall last Sunday. He went back on Monday morning.

Mrs. M. Boughman, of New Mexico, is visiting her brother, M.
O. Faulk. She will spend about six weeks in hope of recuperating her health in our glorious Oregon climate.

Prof. Houghton, has about completed his tennis court. The addition of a very spacious back-stop is a valuable improvement to the grounds. The court promises to be one of the best on the Peninsula.

Devotions will be held at the Holy Cross chapel on Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Saturday evenings at 7:30, weekly, during the month of May. An able speaker will discourse at each service.

The University Park Congregationalists will hold services in Arti-an Temple Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.; Sunday school at 10 a. m. Rev.
D. B. Gray, pastor. Services will be held regularly every Sunday hereafter.

A chess club is in process of organization at University Park.
All who desire to join a club of this kind are requested to leave their names and addresses with either O. F. Merrill at Faulk & Merrill's store, or Harry Reynolds at Reynolds, Dotson & Co's. store.

Mr. McKenna is busy with his three new houses in the Park. His son, Coe, has drawn the plans for and shows considerable ability on the young artist's part. Coe is a student at Columbia University, where he is considered the best student in art.

The Rev. McComb, who is to hold revival services in the Park, beginning next week, looks forward to a big time for two months. A tent which will hold a thousand people will be pitched and regular daily services will be held. Mr.
McComb will live at the Park. He came to Portland, it will be remembered, with the Chapman company of Evangelists from the east.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY ITEMS.
The tennis tournament is in progress, and the various teams are showing up well.

Revs. Daly and Curley of St.
Mary's church Albina, were recent visitors of the faculty.

A balcony has been built in the band ball court much to the satisfaction of players and spectators.

All the boys have returned from the Easter vacation and the classes have all resumed their allotted work.

Clare Shannon and Eddie Wilkinson are the champion double players at tennis in the Junior Department.

The Botany class, under the direction of Prof. Long, is busy analyzing and classifying some of the most important flowers, trees and shrubs of the local flora.

Wednesday, being Founder's day
no classes were held. In the morning chapel services were held, at which the University choir ably rendered Rosewig's mass in G.

The Junior baseball team resumed practice last Monday, and will most probably play Saturday as the Senior team will be unable to play on account of a number of the players belonging to the track team.

The band is busy preparing some new pieces for the lawn concert it intends to give in the near future.

Its sister organization, the orchestra,
is also engaged with learning new pieces. Both are under the direction of Prof. Edwin Smith.

Hand ball is the most popular sport at the school just now and some very fast games have been pulled off. The tournament to decide who are the best players in the school will bring out some very fast players. Standing room will be at a premium both for spectators
and for the audience.

Wednesday, the Columbia University baseball team defeated the Portland high school by a score of 9 to 6 in a well played game on the Portland professional grounds. The game was interesting throughout, though a number of errors were made by both teams. As usual, Columbia won by superior hitting and team work. Wilkinson pitched great ball for the 'Varsity, and had it not been for a couple of errors by his team-mates, would surely have had a shut out. McInerney caught an exceedingly good game considering that this is his first tryout behind the bat. The high school lads played well individually but showed a great lack of team work. Mangold, Barry, Albright, and Hinkle deserve praise for their consistent work for Columbia.

The game between the Behnke-
Walker business school and the boys of the purple and white was a walk-over for the local team. At no period of the game did the wearers of the gold and blue worry the University boys. The game was a very long and listless affair and it was a question of how many runs
the Columbia team could make.
Eighteen of our men crossed the home plate, while not a run was credited to the opponents. Wilkinson for the local team pitched masterly ball, and his support was better than it usually has been.
Warren Eggerer, who replaced
Otto Moore, caught a very good game, and his throwing to second caught many a would-be pilferer.
Considering that this was his first game at the receiving end of the battery, he caught a very remarkable game. The batting of the whole team was a very marked improvement over their former display of stick work.

The track team is working out hard this week, preparatory to the dual meet with O. A. C. at Corvallis next Saturday. We will not win, is a foregone conclusion, for
with the large number of track candidates at the Agric disposal, it is but a natural conclusion that ten men cannot defeat twenty or thirty men that O. A. C. will have in readiness. O. A. C. have arranged the meet with the school principally
to see whether their much touted
Williams and Smithson can defeat Kelley, Columbia's star, in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Kelley will beat them if he is not worked too hard in the other events. Kelley has never been defeated either in the 220 or the 100, and the races will be up to the advertising that
O. A. C. is giving them. The men selected to go will in all probability
be Kelley, Walsh, Roe, Quinn, Quinlan, Leeston, Smith, Cowan,
Hinkle, Wilkinson, Mangold,
Monks, Weber and Martin.

Unsettled.
A party of Pennsylvanians, consisting of four men and one woman, struck the Park last week in search of a cheap farm. The old man of the party boasted of owning five cows and twenty hens. Some one had told them trout could be caught in the Willamette, so after a vain search for a farm close to town, or perchance, a little gold mine, they thought to soothe their disappointed minds with a big string of speckled beauties, but alas, the game fish would not rise to the tempting bait of the fortune hunters. They decided then to go back home, and on Monday morning, started on their long journey, a disappointed crowd.

So sure were they of the opportunities to make a quick fortune around Portland, that they came out on single tickets. After trying to Jew down the lodging-house keeper, the grocer, the butcher, and all whom they were compelled to deal with, they decided to leave Oregon as soon as possible. Their stay of ten days was a revelation, not only to themselves, but to the people with whom they came in contact. May the train not stop until it reaches the land of William Penn.

Wednesday, being Founder's day
no classes were held. In the morn-

ing chapel services were held, at
which the University choir ably
rendered Rosewig's mass in G.

The Junior baseball team resumed
practice last Monday, and will most
probably play Saturday as the Senior team will be unable to play on
account of a number of the players
belonging to the track team.

The band is busy preparing some
new pieces for the lawn concert it
intends to give in the near future.

Its sister organization, the orchestra,
is also engaged with learning
new pieces. Both are under the direction of Prof. Edwin Smith.

Hand ball is the most popular
sport at the school just now and
some very fast games have been
pulled off. The tournament to
decide who are the best players in
the school will bring out some very
fast players. Standing room will
be at a premium both for spectators
and for the audience.

Wednesday, the Columbia University baseball team defeated the
Portland high school by a score of 9 to 6 in a well played game on the
Portland professional grounds. The
game was interesting throughout,
though a number of errors were
made by both teams. As usual,
Columbia won by superior hitting
and team work. Wilkinson pitched
great ball for the 'Varsity, and had
it not been for a couple of errors
by his team-mates, would surely
have had a shut out. McInerney
caught an exceedingly good game
considering that this is his first try-
out behind the bat. The high
school lads played well individually
but showed a great lack of team
work. Mangold, Barry, Albright,
and Hinkle deserve praise for their
consistent work for Columbia.

The game between the Behnke-
Walker business school and the boys
of the purple and white was a
walk-over for the local team. At
no period of the game did the wear-
ers of the gold and blue worry the University boys. The game was a
very long and listless affair and it
was a question of how many runs
the Columbia team could make.
Eighteen of our men crossed the
home plate, while not a run was
credited to the opponents. Wilk-
inson for the local team pitched
masterly ball, and his support was
better than it usually has been.
Warren Eggerer, who replaced
Otto Moore, caught a very good
game, and his throwing to second
caught many a would-be pilferer.
Considering that this was his first
game at the receiving end of the
battery, he caught a very remark-
able game. The batting of the
whole team was a very marked improvement over their former display
of stick work.

The track team is working out
hard this week, preparatory to the
dual meet with O. A. C. at Corvallis
next Saturday. We will not
win, is a foregone conclusion, for
with the large number of track candidates at the Agric disposal, it is
but a natural conclusion that ten
men cannot defeat twenty or thirty
men that O. A. C. will have in
readiness. O. A. C. have arranged
the meet with the school principally
to see whether their much touted
Williams and Smithson can defeat
Kelley, Columbia's star, in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Kelley
will beat them if he is not worked
too hard in the other events. Kel-
ley has never been defeated either
in the 220 or the 100, and the races
will be up to the advertising that
O. A. C. is giving them. The men
selected to go will in all probability
be Kelley, Walsh, Roe, Quinn,
Quinlan, Leeston, Smith, Cowan,
Hinkle, Wilkinson, Mangold,
Monks, Weber and Martin.

Unsettled.
A party of Pennsylvanians, consisting of four men and one woman,
struck the Park last week in search
of a cheap farm. The old man of
the party boasted of owning five
cows and twenty hens. Some one
had told them trout could be caught
in the Willamette, so after a vain
search for a farm close to town, or
perchance, a little gold mine, they
thought to soothe their disappointed
minds with a big string of
speckled beauties, but alas, the
game fish would not rise to the
tempting bait of the fortune hunt-
ers. They decided then to go back home, and on Monday morning,
started on their long journey, a
disappointed crowd.

So sure were they of the opportunities to make a quick fortune
around Portland, that they came
out on single tickets. After trying
to Jew down the lodging-house
keeper, the grocer, the butcher,
and all whom they were compelled
to deal with, they decided to leave Oregon as soon as possible. Their
stay of ten days was a revelation,
not only to themselves, but to the
people with whom they came in
contact. May the train not stop
until it reaches the land of William Penn.

Wednesday, being Founder's day
no classes were held. In the morn-

ing chapel services were held, at
which the University choir ably
rendered Rosewig's mass in G.

The Junior baseball team resumed
practice last Monday, and will most
probably play Saturday as the Senior team will be unable to play on
account of a number of the players
belonging to the track team.

The band is busy preparing some
new pieces for the lawn concert it
intends to give in the near future.

Its sister organization, the orchestra,
is also engaged with learning
new pieces. Both are under the direction of Prof. Edwin Smith.

Hand ball is the most popular
sport at the school just now and
some very fast games have been
pulled off. The tournament to
decide who are the best players in
the school will bring out some very
fast players. Standing room will
be at a premium both for spectators
and for the audience.

Wednesday, the Columbia University baseball team defeated the
Portland high school by a score of 9 to 6 in a well played game on the
Portland professional grounds. The
game was interesting throughout,
though a number of errors were
made by both teams. As usual,
Columbia won by superior hitting
and team work. Wilkinson pitched
great ball for the 'Varsity, and had
it not been for a couple of errors
by his team-mates, would surely
have had a shut out. McInerney
caught an exceedingly good game
considering that this is his first try-
out behind the bat. The high
school lads played well individually
but showed a great lack of team
work. Mangold, Barry, Albright,
and Hinkle deserve praise for their
consistent work for Columbia.

The game between the Behnke-
Walker business school and the boys
of the purple and white was a
walk-over for the local team. At
no period of the game did the wear-
ers of the gold and blue worry the University boys. The game was a
very long and listless affair and it
was a question of how many runs
the Columbia team could make.
Eighteen of our men crossed the
home plate, while not a run was
credited to the opponents. Wilk-
inson for the local team pitched
masterly ball, and his support was
better than it usually has been.
Warren Eggerer, who replaced
Otto Moore, caught a very good
game, and his throwing to second
caught many a would-be pilferer.
Considering that this was his first
game at the receiving end of the
battery, he caught a very remark-
able game. The batting of the
whole team was a very marked improvement over their former display
of stick work.

The track team is working out
hard this week, preparatory to the
dual meet with O. A. C. at Corvallis
next Saturday. We will not
win, is a foregone conclusion, for
with the large number of track candidates at the Agric disposal, it is
but a natural conclusion that ten
men cannot defeat twenty or thirty
men that O. A. C. will have in
readiness. O. A. C. have arranged
the meet with the school principally
to see whether their much touted
Williams and Smithson can defeat
Kelley, Columbia's star, in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Kelley
will beat them if he is not worked
too hard in the other events. Kel-
ley has never been defeated either
in the 220 or the 100, and the races
will be up to the advertising that
O. A. C. is giving them. The men
selected to go will in all probability
be Kelley, Walsh, Roe, Quinn,
Quinlan, Leeston, Smith, Cowan,
Hinkle, Wilkinson, Mangold,
Monks, Weber and Martin.

Unsettled.
A party of Pennsylvanians, consisting of four men and one woman,
struck the Park last week in search
of a cheap farm. The old man of
the party boasted of owning five
cows and twenty hens. Some one
had told them trout could be caught
in the Willamette, so after a vain
search for a farm close to town, or
perchance, a little gold mine, they
thought to soothe their disappointed
minds with a big string of
speckled beauties, but alas, the
game fish would not rise to the
tempting bait of the fortune hunt-
ers. They decided then to go back home, and on Monday morning,
started on their long journey, a
disappointed crowd.

So sure were they of the opportunities to make a quick fortune
around Portland, that they came
out on single tickets. After trying
to Jew down the lodging-house
keeper, the grocer, the butcher,
and all whom they were compelled
to deal with, they decided to leave Oregon as soon as possible. Their
stay of ten days was a revelation,
not only to themselves, but to the
people with whom they came in
contact. May the train not stop
until it reaches the land of William Penn.

Wednesday, being Founder's day
no classes were held. In the morn-

ing chapel services were held, at
which the University choir ably
rendered Rosewig's mass in G.

The Junior baseball team resumed
practice last Monday, and will most
probably play Saturday as the Senior team will be unable to play on
account of a number of the players
belonging to the track team.

The band is busy preparing some
new pieces for the lawn concert it
intends to give in the near future.

Its sister organization, the orchestra,
is also engaged with learning
new pieces. Both are under the direction of Prof. Edwin Smith.

Hand ball is the most popular
sport at the school just now and
some very fast games have been
pulled off. The tournament to
decide who are the best players in
the school will bring out some very
fast players. Standing room will
be at a premium both for spectators
and for the audience.

Wednesday, the Columbia University baseball team defeated the
Portland high school by a score of 9 to 6 in a well played game on the
Portland professional grounds. The
game was interesting throughout,
though a number of errors were
made by both teams. As usual,
Columbia won by superior hitting
and team work. Wilkinson pitched
great ball for the 'Varsity, and had
it not been for a couple of errors
by his team-mates, would surely
have had a shut out. McInerney
caught an exceedingly good game
considering that this is his first try-
out behind the bat. The high
school lads played well individually
but showed a great lack of team
work. Mangold, Barry, Albright,
and Hinkle deserve praise for their
consistent work for Columbia.

The game between the Behnke-
Walker business school and the boys
of the purple and white was a
walk-over for the local team. At
no period of the game did the wear-
ers of the gold and blue worry the University boys. The game was a
very long and listless affair and it
was a question of how many runs
the Columbia team could make.
Eighteen of our men crossed the
home plate, while not a run was
credited to the opponents. Wilk-
inson for the local team pitched
masterly ball, and his support was
better than it usually has been.
Warren Eggerer, who replaced
Otto Moore, caught a very good
game, and his throwing to second
caught many a would-be pilferer.
Considering that this was his first
game at the receiving end of the
battery, he caught a very remark-
able game. The batting of the
whole team was a very marked improvement over their former display
of stick work.

The track team is working out
hard this week, preparatory to the
dual meet with O. A. C. at Corvallis
next Saturday. We will not
win, is a foregone conclusion, for
with the large number of track candidates at the Agric disposal, it is
but a natural conclusion that ten
men cannot defeat twenty or thirty
men that O. A. C. will have in
readiness. O. A. C. have arranged
the meet with the school principally
to see whether their much touted
Williams and Smithson can defeat
Kelley, Columbia's star, in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Kelley
will beat them if he is not worked
too hard in the other events. Kel-
ley has never been defeated either
in the 220 or the 100, and the races
will be up to the advertising that
O. A. C. is giving them. The men
selected to go will in all probability
be Kelley, Walsh, Roe, Quinn,
Quinlan, Leeston, Smith, Cowan,
Hinkle, Wilkinson, Mangold,
Monks, Weber and Martin.

Unsettled.
A party of Pennsylvanians, consisting of four men and one woman,
struck the Park last week in search
of a cheap farm. The old man of
the party boasted of owning five
cows and twenty hens. Some one
had told them trout could be caught
in the Willamette, so after a vain
search for a farm close to town, or
perchance, a little gold mine, they
thought to soothe their disappointed
minds with a big string of
speckled beauties, but alas, the
game fish would not rise to the
tempting bait of the fortune hunt-
ers. They decided then to go back home, and on Monday morning,
started on their long journey, a
disappointed crowd.

So sure were they of the opportunities to make a quick fortune
around Portland, that they came
out on single tickets. After trying
to Jew down the lodging-house
keeper, the grocer, the butcher,
and all whom they were compelled
to deal with, they decided to leave Oregon as soon as possible. Their
stay of ten days was a revelation,
not only to themselves, but to the
people with whom they came in
contact. May the train not stop
until it reaches the land of William Penn.

Wednesday, being Founder's day
no classes were held. In the morn-

ing chapel services were held, at
which the University choir ably
rendered Rosewig's mass in G.

The Junior baseball team resumed
practice last Monday, and will most
probably play Saturday as the Senior team will be unable to play on
account of a number of the players
belonging to the track team.

The band is busy preparing some
new pieces for the lawn concert it
intends to give in the near future.

Its sister organization, the orchestra,
is also engaged with learning
new pieces. Both are under the direction of Prof. Edwin Smith.

Hand ball is the most popular
sport at the school just now and
some very fast games have been
pulled off. The tournament to
decide who are the best players in
the school will bring out some very
fast players. Standing room will
be at a premium both for spectators
and for the audience.

Wednesday, the Columbia University baseball team defeated the
Portland high school by a score of 9 to 6 in a well played game on the
Portland professional grounds. The
game was interesting throughout,
though a number of errors were
made by both teams. As usual,
Columbia won by superior hitting
and team work. Wilkinson pitched
great ball for the 'Varsity, and had
it not been for a couple of errors
by his team-mates, would surely
have had a shut out. McInerney
caught an exceedingly good game
considering that this is his first try-
out behind the bat. The high
school lads played well individually
but showed a great lack of team
work. Mangold, Barry, Albright,
and Hinkle deserve praise for their
consistent work for Columbia.

The game between the Behnke-
Walker business school and the boys
of the purple and white was a
walk-over for the local team. At
no period of the game did the wear-
ers of the gold and blue worry the University boys. The game was a
very long and listless affair and it
was a question of how many runs
the Columbia team could make.
Eighteen of our men crossed the
home plate, while not a run was
credited to the opponents. Wilk-
inson for the local team pitched
masterly ball, and his support was
better than it usually has been.
Warren Eggerer, who replaced
Otto Moore, caught a very good
game, and his throwing to second
caught many a would-be pilferer.
Considering that this was his first
game at the receiving end of the
battery, he caught a very remark-
able game. The batting of the
whole team was a very marked improvement over their former display
of stick work.

The track team is working out
hard this week, preparatory to the
dual meet with O. A. C. at Corvallis
next Saturday. We will not
win, is a foregone conclusion, for
with the large number of track candidates at the Agric disposal, it is
but a natural conclusion that ten
men cannot defeat twenty or thirty
men that O. A. C. will have in
readiness. O. A. C. have arranged
the meet with the school principally
to see whether their much touted
Williams and Smithson can defeat
Kelley, Columbia's star, in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Kelley
will beat them if he is not worked
too hard in the other events. Kel-
ley has never been defeated either
in the 220 or the 100, and the races
will be up to the advertising that
O. A. C. is giving them. The men
selected to go will in all probability
be Kelley, Walsh, Roe, Quinn,
Quinlan, Leeston, Smith, Cowan,
Hinkle, Wilkinson, Mangold,
Monks, Weber and Martin.

Unsettled.
A party of Pennsylvanians, consisting of four men and one woman,
struck the Park last week in search
of a cheap farm. The old man of
the party boasted of owning five
cows and twenty hens. Some one
had told them trout could be caught
in the Willamette, so after a vain
search for a farm close to town, or
perchance, a little gold mine, they
thought to soothe their disappointed
minds with a big string of
speckled beauties, but alas, the
game fish would not rise to the
tempting bait of the fortune hunt-
ers. They decided then to go back home, and on Monday morning,
started on their long journey, a
disappointed crowd.

So sure were they of the opportunities to make a quick fortune
around Portland, that they came
out on single tickets. After trying
to Jew down the lodging-house
keeper, the grocer, the butcher,
and all whom they were compelled
to deal with, they decided to leave Oregon as soon as possible. Their
stay of ten days was a revelation,
not only to themselves, but to the
people with whom they came in
contact. May the train not stop
until it reaches the land of William Penn.

Wednesday, being Founder's day
no classes were held. In the morn-

ing chapel services were held, at
which the University choir ably
rendered Rosewig's mass in G.

The Junior baseball team resumed
practice last Monday, and will most
probably play Saturday as the Senior team will be unable to play on
account of a number of the players
belonging to the track team.

The band is busy preparing some
new pieces for the lawn concert it
intends to give in the near future.

Its sister organization, the orchestra,
is also engaged with learning
new pieces. Both are under the direction of Prof. Edwin Smith.

Hand ball is the most popular
sport at the school just now and
some very fast games have been
pulled off. The tournament to
decide who are the best players in
the school will bring out some very
fast players. Standing room will
be at a premium both for spectators
and for the audience.

Wednesday, the Columbia University baseball team defeated the
Portland high school by a score of 9 to 6 in a well played game on the
Portland professional grounds. The
game was interesting throughout,
though a number of errors were
made by both teams. As usual,
Columbia won by superior hitting
and team work. Wilkinson pitched
great ball for the 'Varsity, and had
it not been for a couple of errors
by his team-mates, would surely
have had a shut out. McInerney
caught an exceedingly good game
considering that this is his first try-
out behind the bat. The high
school lads played well individually
but showed a great lack of team
work. Mangold, Barry, Albright,
and Hinkle deserve praise for their
consistent work for Columbia.

The game between the Behnke-
Walker business school and the boys
of the purple and white was a
walk-over for the local team. At
no period of the game did the wear-
ers of the gold and blue worry the
University boys. The game was a
very long and listless affair and it
was a question of how many runs
the Columbia team could make.
Eighteen of our men crossed the
home plate, while not a run was
credited to the opponents. Wilk-
inson for the local team pitched
masterly ball, and his support was
better than it usually has been.
Warren Eggerer, who replaced
Otto Moore, caught a very good
game, and his throwing to second
caught many a would-be pilferer.
Considering that this was his first
game at the receiving end of the
battery, he caught a very remark-
able game. The batting of the
whole team was a very marked improvement over their former display
of stick work.

The track team is working out
hard this week, preparatory to the
dual meet with O. A. C. at Corvallis
next Saturday. We will not
win, is a foregone conclusion, for
with the large number of track candidates at the Agric disposal, it is
but a natural conclusion that ten
men cannot defeat twenty or thirty
men that O. A. C. will have in
readiness. O. A. C. have arranged
the meet with the school principally
to see whether their much touted
Williams and Smithson can defeat
Kelley, Columbia's star, in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Kelley
will beat them if he is not worked
too hard in the other events. Kel-
ley has never been defeated either
in the 220 or the 100, and the races
will be up to the advertising that
O. A. C. is giving them. The men
selected to go will in all probability
be Kelley, Walsh, Roe, Quinn,
Quinlan, Leeston, Smith, Cowan,
Hinkle, Wilkinson, Mangold,
Monks, Weber and Martin.

Unsettled.
A party of Pennsylvanians, con-
sisting of four men and one woman,
struck the Park last week in search
of a cheap farm. The old man of
the party boasted of owning five
cows and twenty hens. Some one
had told them trout could be caught
in the Willamette, so after a vain
search for a farm close to town, or
perchance, a little gold mine, they
thought to soothe their disappointed
minds with a big string of
speckled beauties, but alas, the
game fish would not rise to the
tempting bait of the fortune hunt-
ers. They decided then to go back