FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1905.

OPENING OF THE FAIR.

NEXT Thursday, June 1, Vice-president Fairbanks will officially open the Lewis and Clark fair—and the beautiful grounds will be actually open to the public.

EDITOR WAS ACQUITTED.

DOWN at Saint Helens one editor accused the other of stealing $150—and the accused man at once brought the matter before the district attorney with a request that the grand jury investigate.

TAKEN NEW LIFE.

IN Chicago the strike which has been so long in existence was supposed, at the time THE REVIEW last went to press, to have been settled—and both sides were figuring up how much had been lost.

GOOD WOMAN DEAD.

IN the death of Mary A. Livermore which occurred at Melrose, Massachusetts, on Tuesday last, a magnificent woman was lost to America.

IS NOW CLEAR.

WE have oftentimes wondered why those kickers didn't accept old Noah's invitation and go along with him in the ark when invited.

A PIECE OF PEACE.

JAPANESE statesmen assert that no overtures for peace concessions are desired by their countrymen that this is not the time for such work.

A SURE SIGN.

WHEN one hears of a strike—either direct or sympathetic—it may be set down that times are good.

STRANGE—YET TRUE.

PARADOXICAL as it may seem Saint Johns went wet and "dry" in the same day.

THIS EVENING IT WILL BE REMEMBERED.

This evening it will be remembered the Catholic ladies will hold a social at Cedar Park.

Rev. J. L. McComb commences his series of religious meetings next Sunday at University Park.

He has a "Glad Tidings" tent, close to the Methodist church.

J. H. Crook brought to this office yesterday three of the largest strawberries we have yet seen in one bunch.

Each was 4 1/2 inches in circumference. Set out some strawberry plants.

W. D. Medlin and wife, from Colorado Springs, Colorado, were investigating our town yesterday.

Mr. Medlin is looking for a location for a notion store, and is very favorably impressed with Saint Johns

Our Local Grist

Well, anyway, an election can't suit everyone.

Bring us $1 and we will send the Review to your friend for a year.

Miss Kitten Douglass, who has been attending school in northern Washington, is once more at her Saint Johns home.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Hartel have secured rooms in the Freedman building—and will make their home and their office there.

Try a Saint Johns "fruit pie" made by the Saint Johns Bakery. Those who try them are pleased—let us please you.

We are now anxious to get a cellar excavated, foundation walls placed, and a house built thereon. And we are in a hurry.

Mrs. C. H. Thayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Monohan, has been very ill, but is, we are pleased to state, now convalescent.

"No," said the dairyman, "I can't let you have milk. I have all the customers I can supply—and the milk won't stand another drop of water!"

Mrs. Allen Rogers has moved her millinery parlors to the blue house east of the track, opposite the furniture store. Watch for new ad in next issue.

Next Monday, May 29, Dr. W. E. Hartel will open a dental office in the Freedman building, Jersey street. He will do all varieties of dental work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cole, of Richmond street, have been looking after some of their property at Latourelle, Oregon. They returned to Saint Johns on Tuesday.

Charles Frederson, who has been in the employ of Uncle Sam at Miles, Washington, writes that he has resigned his position and will be in Saint Johns soon after June 1.

J. S. Davidson is sort of loading up the heads of many households with a fine lot of four-foot wood. Some are buying as many as 20 cords and stacking it away for future reference.

Mrs. J. H. Crook on Wednesday entertained her mother, Mrs. Lula Dielschneider, of Portland. Also her aunt, Mrs. Sadie Collins, and her grandmother, Mrs. Snuffin—both of Mount Taber.

The Saint Johns Meat Market is nothing if not progressive. This week it has installed a patent computing scale—and now while you wait for meat you see the weight the butcher gives a weigh.

Secret society organizers evidently consider Saint Johns a promising field in which to secure members for their various lodges—judging from the way both old and new societies are working the place.

If it had not been for the efforts of N. A. Gee, who stopped voting last Monday long enough to boost our new heavy-weight machinery into the office, it is very likely we'd yet be doing our presswork out of doors.

Otto Lehman, son-in-law of A. S. Douglass, has purchased a tract of land and a sawmill at Oakland, south of Hillsboro, and will work the plant. Mr. Lehman has been down there making arrangements for the transfer—but is expected in town this week.

Attorneys Frank Schlegel and Ernest Brand, Jr., receivers for Hobson & Company's brick yard at College place, near Portsmouth, filed suit in the recorder's office Thursday against Charles Laughed and O. K. Ogden to recover $38.67, balance due on brick purchased by them.

In an item on our first page this week under the heading "Oil Work Resting" the initials of Mr. Ogden, who is owner of the well, were given as "O. K." This was an error. S. I. Ogden is the oil well man—O. K. Ogden being more interested in plastering than in oil. The item should have read "S. I. Ogden."

There will be Sunday school only at the Evangelical church next Sunday at the hour of ten. The congregation will then adjourn to the Methodist church where union services will be held at eleven. At eight o'clock the regular preaching service will be held at the Evangelical church; subject—"Mature Men."

Through neglect we failed to mention last week the return of Miss E. Caples and mother from their extended visit to Los Angeles and other points in Southern California. The pair have greatly enjoyed the tour—yet fail not to mention that, like all other tourists, they suffered from a very "high tariff for revenue."

Through lack of sufficient information a blunder appeared last week in the wedding notice of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson. The mother of the bride is Mrs. Elizabeth Bronson in place of Ritter, as was printed. The young people will make their future home in Pseudition, where the marriage took place.

The size of the vote last Monday must not be taken as a criterion of the number of people in Saint Johns. It was an unpleasantly rainy day and many men chose to remain at home rather than "come up town." There is, also, a large number of new-comers; men who have bought property and become citizens: who were not eligible to vote because of their recent arrival.

REQUIRE BONDS.

Saint Johns School District Needs Bonds for Schoolhouse.

A meeting was held in the schoolhouse on Wednesday evening pursuant to a call of the school board to discuss and decide upon the best manner in which to increase the capacity of the building for the coming school year.

It seemed to be the universal opinion that at some future time a schoolhouse at the north end of town would be an absolute necessity; but at the present time the best plan would be to follow out the original details of the architects and make the present building complete by adding the four rooms.

The increase of pupils during the past year has been phenomenal—the average per school month being 19 3/5 pupils. The enrollment last September was 234—and the average attendance was 209. In April of this year the enrollment was 411—and the average attendance was 305. The big six-room house is crowded as well as is the little annex; and new pupils are coming every week.

To add the four new rooms, thereby making room for 160 pupils, and properly equip the same, will cost between $9000 and $10,000; at least that is the supposition based upon previous figures. There is no opportunity to raise this amount by a special levy, and, besides, for the present population to dig up for that amount in order that future settlers may derive all the benefits without expense is not just to those here residing.

Hence it was decided by a vote of those present that the school board should issue bonds for the sum of $10,000, to be devoted to the desired addition to the school house and the proper equipment of the same. This passed solidly—no dissenting vote being registered. Voting upon the bond issue will be called for the day of the annual school meeting, which will be on Monday, June 19. In order to give everyone opportunity to vote on the question the polls will be open from four to eight o'clock in the afternoon and evening of that day.

Union Memorial Services.

At the Methodist church Sunday morning next at eleven o'clock the following program will be presented—and everyone is urged to attend: Organ Voluntary. Hymn—"My Country, 'tis of Thee," choir and organ. Prayer—Rev. E. E. McVicker. Anthem—"Praise The Lord Ye Nations," choir. Lesson from the Old Testament—Rev. Upshaw. The Gloria Patri—choir and congregation. Lesson from the New Testament—Rev. J. Benson. Song—Selection, Messrs. Young, Storrs, Horsman and Hensel. Offertory—"Glory to Thee, My God, This Morn." Mrs. F. Horsman. Anthem—"Praise the King of Kings," choir. Sermon—Rev. Campbell. Prayer—Rev. Hatch. Hymn—"God Bless Our Native Land," choir and congregation. Benediction—Rev. Alderson.

Washing and Ironing.

I am prepared to do washing, ironing and housework of any kind. Also have furnished room for rent. Filmore street, third house from St. Johns avenue.

Next week our schools will be badly broken into by holidays. Tuesday will be Memorial Day; no school. Thursday will be "fair" day; no school. It is likely that Wednesday will be given to the pupils, as they will hardly be in shape to study.
