Lucky Runaway.

S. W. Simmons' horse, attached to a light rig, took fright Wednesday morning while in front of the Saint Johns bakery—and promptly gave a quick exhibition free of cost. The horse became frightened at a street car and made a jump. Ray Simmons, about fourteen years old, grabbed the bits and was dragged a few hundred feet when his hold gave way and he dropped. The wheels passed over him but did no serious damage. The animal wildly ran towards the schoolhouse—but in front of Elliott's drug store turned about and took to the sidewalk. At first it was figured he was going in—but he dodged the issue and continued down the walk. In front of the Hazelwood were ice cream freezers and a walk sign, but the horse dragged the vehicle between these and the building and "never touched 'em." He then turned north and stopped short as he almost started Bickner Brothers' delivery team on the run. The damage done was slight—but the lad in charge was a plucky one.

Has a Fine Garden.

C. R. Organ yesterday brought to THE REVIEW office three strawberries of the Magoon variety the combined weight of which was 2 1-2 ounces. The largest of these berries stood 2 1-2 inches high and had a girth measurement of 5 1-2 inches. Mr. Organ has a fine garden upon the property he recently disposed of—and declares that he will have an equally valuable spot in his new home nearby. His promised crop of Logan berries is a wonderfully large one.

Revival Enthusiasm.

The union evangelistic services now being held in the big tent "Glad Tidings" in University Park are being largely attended and much interest is being displayed by the pastors and the people in the meetings. J. Leslie McComb, one of the evangelists who assisted Rev. Chapman in his "Pacific Coast Campaign," is in charge. He has a sweet gospel singer—Mr. Elliott who leads a large chorus. Choir meetings are held every evening at eight. All are cordially invited to the services.

The little poem "Memory" in another column has been translated into almost every tongue and been printed in almost every country. It is worth preserving.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Peninsula Bank is to be held in Portland this afternoon at two-thirty for the purpose of choosing a board of directors—and transacting other business.

G. H. Carlson, of the Portland Manufacturing Company, was at Scappoose on Wednesday — from which point he went to some lumber camps to look up some hardwood stock.

The Christian Endeavor of the Evangelical church will meet at the home of Mrs. Rose Hartman this evening for the purpose of holding their regular monthly business meeting and social gathering.

Have you seen the Eastern made, White Pine Screen Doors that we are selling. Also have adjustable Window Screens in different sizes. POTTER & GOULD, the hardware men.

Work is being hurried on the new reservoir in order that it may be put to use as quickly as possible. The water company is also in receipt of new mains which will be laid as fast as required.

Saint Johns Camp, No. 7546, M. W. A., is to give a basket social and dance in its new hall on the evening of Saturday, June 10. There will be dancing on the lower floor—while the sale of baskets will be upon the upper floor. Music is to be furnished by a ladies' band of Portland.

Union Memorial Services

The Union Memorial services were held last Sunday at the Methodist church. The house was crowded with an enthusiastic audience.

The service was opened with an organ voluntary and followed by the good old hymn "My Country 'Tis of Thee." Rev. E. E. McVicker of the Evangelical church made the opening prayer. This was followed with an anthem—"Praise the Lord ye Nations," by the choir. The Old Testament lesson was read by Rev. Upshaw of the Congregational church, after which "Gloria Patri" was sung by choir and congregation. Rev. J. Benson read the New Testament lesson, following the reading with a few remarks. The male quartette—Messrs. Young, Storrs, Horsman and Hensel then rendered a very fine selection.

At this juncture a new feature was introduced by Rev. Campbell when an offering was taken, two of the war veterans waiting on the congregation. Mrs. F. Horsman rendered the offertory, followed by an anthem by the choir.

The sermon, which was preached by Rev. Campbell, seemed to be well received. A hymn by the choir and congregation closed the service, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Beeson.

At The Schools.

Memorial programs were given in the schools of Saint Johns last Monday—the primary grades meeting in one of the lower rooms—while the others entertained in the eighth grade room. Each audience was addressed by a war veteran—and each program given was excellently rendered.

The visiting speakers made eloquent addresses—and held their audiences well in hand. Many adults were present at these exercises—and all concluded that the schools of Saint Johns were not visited with enough frequency—nor valued as they should be by those interested.

New Machinery.

A. S. Douglass has just added to his mill industry in the way of a machine for the manufacturing of door and window frames. The machine mortises the frames to fit the pulley wheels—which are inserted here; and the frames are to be shipped complete. Mr. Douglass declares that there will be a large demand—and regrets that he did not install such a machine before this.
