Keep Your Eye On St. Johns.

PORTSMOUTH and UNIVERSITY

Helen Temple, of Ironwood, is visiting at Temple Lodge.

Three births in one month. Now let St. Johns beat that.

F. M. Cot is starting a new house in block 5, Portsmouth.

Charles Ross has moved here from St. Johns to make his home in Portsmouth.

Judge G. R. Maurain and family left for Lewiston, Idaho, last week for a visit.

Mrs. E. O. Bender, of Portsmouth, is "slightly indisposed." She is a daughter of Mrs. Howe.

G. H. Hemstock, of University Park, keeps fine ice cream and gives a generous glass. Try him.

Your correspondent is glad to give a late report about Miss Rose Hatfield. She is improving rapidly.

William Campbell, contractor and householder, of Ironwood, is visiting his brother, S. A. Campbell, for a few weeks.

Miss Gussie Hutchins, formerly of University Park, is spending a pleasant vacation at Gardner, Douglas county, Oregon.

W. R. McGee, wife and little daughter from Burns, Oregon, are visiting the fair and stopping at the home of Mrs. L. A. Buchanan.

Bert Rand, who has been quite ill at his mother's home, has quite recovered his health and returned to his home on the east side.

Mrs. D. O. Webster, wife of our popular doctor, has undergone an operation at Saint Vincent's hospital for appendicitis.

Mrs. Robinson and her daughter, Bee, left on the 13th for an extended visit to Seaside, having built a pleasant, cozy cottage there.

To the wife of W. B. Satterly, of University Park, a son, born July 22, at three o'clock, a. m. D. O. Webster in attendance.

Mrs. W. E. Robertson, from Portland, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Charles Rogers. Here is another visitor who is in love with the Park.

Mrs. E. Johnson has put her little ten-months-old son into overalls and patent leather shoes. He is the cutest little fellow in the Park.

Mr. George Thomas, of 1676 Gloucester street, Portsmouth, spent Sunday and Monday with his family and left again Tuesday. He is a traveling man.

Miss Nydia Spencer, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hemstock, of University Park, returned to her home in McMinnville last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Clark and her two daughters are visiting her sister, Mrs. Bentzen, wife of the Baptist minister, at Vanderbilt street, University Park. They are from New York.

J. A. Lawhead, who has been superintending the construction of a lighthouse at Blaine, Washington, was in University Park the first part of this week looking for a snap in the way of property.

Mrs. Henry Izard, of Portsmouth, is the recipient of a handsome cinnamon bear-skin sent her by a friend who shot the animal in the mountains in Idaho. It will make a nice rug for the fire hearth.

Miss Fay Commons is indisposed at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lee Commons, on McKenna avenue. Her eyes are causing her much trouble and she is in the hands of an oculist for treatment.

H. Martin, from Chehalis, Washington, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoyt, of University Park. If he could succeed in obtaining work here (he is well pleased with the Park) he would remove and make his home among us.

Mrs. Rosenthal, a lady from Portland, and a former music pupil of Mrs. Dyer, of University Park, spent the day Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Dyer, at her home in McMinnville. She is pleased with the Park and surroundings and the lovely mountains seen.

Dell Nash, who is working for Mr. H. Thurman, the University Park grocer, met with a painful accident Monday, by cutting his wrist severely, while opening a sack. Dr. Webster says although the wound is very deep there is no danger, unless from blood poisoning.

Mrs. M. Wright, mother of Mrs. G. H. Hemstock, celebrated her 75th birthday anniversary on Wednesday of this week by attending the fair. With her were Mrs. G. H. Hemstock, Miss Velma Hemstock, Mrs. Miller and children. The party had a very enjoyable time.

Your correspondent thinks that the owners of cows in University Park ought to find some protection for them during this extreme heat and see they are tied in some shady spot, with a bucket of water placed where they can drink.

Don't you agree with me, Mr. Editor? Visitors to the fair who have ridden on the St. Johns cars to University Park and the pretty city of St. Johns think that the conductors and motormen on the above cars are most gentlemanly and courteous toward them. This is the universal opinion, as they certainly are.

Mrs. M. O. Faulk and her popular daughter, Zula, will leave probably next Wednesday, August 2, for a trip to Garibaldi, Oregon, and expect to be absent one month. They may extend their trip. They hope that Mr. Faulk will be able to accompany them for a vacation.

M. G. Faulk, the pioneer dealer in feed and building material, of University Park, has added a cozy office to his store on Dawson street. He is very successful in his undertakings, being a most genial gentleman, and a fine business manager. He is a popular Artisan. O. F. Merrill is junior partner in the firm.

Tent No. 82, K. O. T. M., held an installation at their lodge room in Odd fellows hall, University Park on the 17th instant, for the following officers: J. W. Angus—Knight Commander. G. H. Hemstock—R. Knight. Oscar DeVal—Physician.

H. D. Bartholomew—Chief.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Helen Standish at the home of Mrs. Standish, Portsmouth avenue, in celebration of her eighteenth birthday anniversary, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by the young folks. May Miss Helen live many years to come, says your correspondent and her many friends.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church gave a very pleasant Japanese social Friday evening in the tent on Fisk street used by the Methodists for worship. The members of the League who took part in the festivities were dressed in Japanese costume. There were recitations and singing, and all had a delightful evening. Ice cream and cake were served in abundance.

H. B. Reynolds, L. B. Coons and George Mnhm left Tuesday morning on the "Charles R. Spencer" on a hunting and fishing trip. They arrived at Stevenson, Washington, on Wednesday, to tramp 50 miles, each packing from 40 to 50 pounds on his back, there being too much underbrush to allow the use of horses. They may be gone three weeks, and intend to enjoy themselves. Mr. Reynolds took his dog and gun, hoping to find a bear.

Some More Stuff

Plant a few English Walnut trees!

Jersey street begins to look dignified.

And still new homes continue to be built in St. Johns.

Put some lime in that outhouse vault and make it sanitary.

Miss Magness, of Wheatland, Oregon, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. T. Parker.

Mrs. J. F. Poff and children went to Seaside the first of this week for a visit.

Miss Lena Winn, of Portland, is visiting at the home of J. M. Leach, of Heppner Station.

Peter Anderson and wife, of St. Louis, are visiting their son, Robert Anderson, of Oak Park.

About one hundred bathers were enjoying the water and the sights along the waterfront last Sunday.

Samuel H. Solomon and family, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Captain and Mrs. J. Speier.

Miss Jennie Roberts, of Primrose, Nebraska, is guest of her friend, Miss Eliza Cole, of Burlington street.

James Powell and family, of Portland, have located in Point View. George Park, of Portland, is visiting them.

Miss Mary E. May, of Oberlin, Ohio, guest of her uncle, L. B. Chipman. The two have not met for many years.

Maud Peterson returned on Monday from Sunnyside, where she has been guest of her cousin, Gertrude Thronson.

H. W. Fellows and wife, who have been visiting at the home of W. F. Johnson, left for their home in Minneapolis last Friday.

George Morely, in charge of a gang of men, is putting up poles and stringing wires for the Portland General Electric Company.

The cement wall for the new schoolhouse is completed—except the veneering, which will be put on after the floor is put down.

The committee on by-laws for the Women of Woodcraft is to meet next Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mary Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Osburn left Tuesday morning for Augusta, Kansas. They have been guests of their daughter, Mrs. C. M. McKinzie.

Miss Laura Potter, of Medina, New York, is attending the Lewis and Clark exposition and visiting her cousin, C. W. Potter of this city.

M. W. Gattion, who has been at Carson, Washington, for some time, is once more located in St. Johns. This time he declares he will remain.

"The way to make St. Johns prosper and become strong in itself is to strictly patronize home industries." So says Rev. Alderson. And it's true, too.

J. M. Meiklejohn, who is working near Mount Scott, was badly overcome by heat one day last week—and for a short time was in a dangerous condition.

A. B. Wooley left on Sunday for Wasco, Washington—where he goes to "see his sweetheart" and have a good time generally for a couple of months.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church will give an ice cream social on the lawn by the church tonight. It might be a good idea to drop around.

C. H. Foster, lately of Portland, but living in a tent in Point View, has been in town a week and is a reader of THE REVIEW. Mr. Foster is working in Cone's mill.

Wouldn't it be nice if everyone in St. Johns would take particular pains to keep every particle of rubbish out of the street? The alleys could take care of themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Reed, of Cedar Rapids, Nebraska, were guests the first of this week of Miss Eliza Cole, of Burlington street. The visitors are out here attending the fair.

L. A. Crane was surprised last Saturday by the arrival of his mother, Mrs. C. A. Sparschuh, of Lincoln, Nebraska. The letter announcing her contemplated trip reached here about the same time that the visitor arrived.

W. C. Adams, of Point View, finished papering his new house the first part of this week and will soon have a very beautiful place. It will take him two weeks more to finish painting inside and out, as he is doing all the work himself.

J. M. Black, of Loveland, Colorado, was in St. Johns last prossday—and was so much pleased with the prospects that he intends to buy a little property here and improve it. He was guest of Mrs. W. L. Thornadyke—and expects to return here in a few days.

W. F. Pettigrew, who lives in St. Johns Park addition, is making a specialty of raising cucumbers. He has brought to this office a freak product—two four-inch cucumbers as closely joined as were ever the Siamese twins. Each is perfect in shape—but it forms a curiosity.

A. Volkland, wife and daughter, and William Metcalf and wife and the Misses Lula Chaps and Minnie Stanford, all of Rice county, Kansas, visited S. C. Cook and family of St. Johns last week. Mr. Volkland and Mr. Metcalf indicated their intention to return and make their home on the coast.

While J. Hamon, of Portland, was moving his household goods out from town, his wagon met with a slight accident in the road where the grading is going on close to the school house. The damage was soon repaired. Mr. Hamon took his goods around back of the school house, where he has put up a tent for the present.

J. M. Meiklejohn, contractor and builder, is now camping about a mile from Lent's—where he is building a large house for F. Rush. Mrs. Meiklejohn is stopping with him—and the couple will remain in Lent's until about September 1, when they will return to their St. Johns (Oak Park) home. Mrs. Meiklejohn was in the city on Wednesday.

Rev. C. F. Beller and wife and two children, A. T. Hutchinson and wife, Miss Benjamin and Miss Creidler, all of Fullerton, Nebraska, who were expected Saturday, did not arrive until Monday of this week. Other visitors at the parsonage are Miss Netta Buck, who is a telephone operator at her home at Hood River, and Miss Mabel Beller, sister of Miss Clara Beller.

PORTSMOUTH and UNIVERSITY

To the wife of E. Kruger, Olin street, University Park, a son, D. O. Webster in attendance.

Miss Gussie Swift accompanied Mrs. Robinson and her daughter, Bee, to Seaside last week.

Miss Rose Hatfield is still confined to Saint Vincent's hospital with typhoid fever. She is not quite out of danger, although no worse.

C. W. Moore met with a bad accident at the Peninsula mill just before six o'clock last Thursday afternoon. Three of his left ribs were broken.

Mr. Anlman has moved his confectionary store to his new building and home on Dawson street. He serves nice ice cream. His family is well known.

Our Local Grist

I. N. Tomlinson is in charge of the grading on Ivanhoe street.

Austin Eastman, of Kalama, Washington, is visiting Sidney Young.

James Hise is suffering from a boil on the little finger of his right hand.

F. K. Churchill and wife, from Albany, visited Mrs. S. L. Young last week.

W. L. Hurlbert is pushing along his new building near the French block.

Miss Bertha Slade, of Mitchell, South Dakota, is visiting the fair, and staying with M. W. Gattion.

The Eastern Outfitting Company is showing an attractive ad this week. The firm is OK in all ways.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall and daughter, Eva, from Arlington, Nebraska, are visiting a few days with L. E. Walker and family.

Rev. G. W. Barden, of Portland, will preach at the Baptist service in the Adventist church Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

S. C. Cook, realizing the real good advantage of real advertising, has really jumped into the columns of this paper with an ad this week. Notice it.

Jacob Bills and John Hamilton, both of Siskiyou county, California, have been in the city this week—guests of their old-time acquaintance, P. M. Shaddock.

A man butted in at the woman's meeting at the Methodist church last Sunday, but as he had no buttinisky card handy, a lady butted him out again. Moral:

G. A. Flanders, of Sellwood, has moved into his new residence on the Boulevard close to the water tank. Walter Speed, also of Sellwood, built the house.

Miss Esther Beck, of The Dalles, and Miss Idella Young, of St. Johns, have been visiting Miss Grace Marshall, of Oregon City, and also attending the Chautauque.

J. F. Earl is building a new residence in Seaview Addition on Jersey street. Mr. Earl is going to go to Eastern Oregon for a few weeks to work in the harvest fields.

M. W. Gattion, from Carson, Washington, has begun work on his new house in the Adams Addition at the corner of Mohawk and Gresham streets. The building will have eight rooms.

Those desiring mantles, grates, gas or electric fixtures will greatly miss it if they do not consult with the Walsh company, whose ad shows in our columns. Their stock is pleasing—and prices are very reasonable.

M. J. McGrath, who conducts a furniture and stove store at 66 North Third street, Portland, is using these columns to advertise some bargains. He is a dealer of very pleasing address—and draws an excellent trade.

The Y. W. C. A. of Portland had charge of the meeting for women at the Methodist church last Sunday night. Aside from the regular order of the opening exercises, Mrs. Reno Hutchinson, of Portland, sang two solos. The subject chosen by the leader, Miss Constance McCauley, was "Christ and the Samaritan Woman." A large audience was in attendance.

Bathers Notice.

J. W. Caples, upon looking up the bathing law of St. Johns, finds that it states explicitly that the bather shall be clothed from his shoulders to his knees. This ordinance will be strictly enforced from this time on. If one has not been in the habit of complying with it he had better "get the habit" right away.

ORDINANCE NO. 53

An Ordinance to Prevent Obstruction of Streets and Sidewalks.

The City of St. Johns does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. No person shall place or cause to be placed on any sidewalk, crosswalk, or street, any article or thing whatsoever, which shall obstruct such street or sidewalk, unless a permit be first granted by the Council; provided, that this section shall not apply to merchandise while in actual course of receipt or delivery; and further provided that wood for fuel may be allowed to be piled and remain in the street in such manner as to cause the least obstruction to public travel, not to exceed fifteen hours for each cord or load thereof, and not to exceed ten days in the aggregate. This section shall not be deemed to affect the deposit of building material under a permit from the mayor.

SECTION 2. A violation of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before the Municipal Court the offender or offenders shall be punished by a fine of not less than five (5) nor more than fifty (50) dollars or by imprisonment in the city jail not less than two (2) nor more than twenty (20) days for each and every offense. And any person or persons who shall maintain or continue such violation, after conviction of the first offense, shall for each day of such maintaining or continuing, be deemed guilty of a separate offense, and on conviction thereof shall be punished to the full extent of the fine or imprisonment provided in this section.

Passed the Council July 20, 1905.

Approved July 20, 1905.

W. H. KING, Mayor.

J. W. HANKS, Recorder.

Published in THE REVIEW July 25, 1905.
