PORTSMOUTH and UNIVERSITY

Mrs. J. D. Nash is recovering from a badly sprained ankle.

H. Iard is building a fine residence in University Park for his own occupancy.

Mrs. Grove is just recovering from a severe illness. Dr. D. O. Webster attended her.

Mr. Nessley has built a fine residence just below Miss Eastman's cozy home on Fisk street.

Jacobson & Bade have added another plumber to their shop in University Park—J. H. Temple.

Harry Rand, wife and baby, together with young Cleland, have left for a sojourn at Newport.

Mrs. Bender has been visiting her son's wife, who has been ill at St. Johns, but is convalescent now.

Mrs. Benstein, of Vanderbilt avenue, and her two sisters are home again after enjoying a week's visit at Seaside.

Miss Fay Gibbs, from Colorado, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Gibbs, and her aunt, Mrs. Lee Commons, on McKenna avenue.

Mrs. M. Wright, Mrs. Belle Nash, and Mrs. Miller and family are visiting in Douglas county, but intend returning to University Park.

Mr. Hollister and wife left Monday for Minneapolis, their old home, but they intend returning to University Park, where they have property.

Mrs. Morrell has vacated the house on Druid street and has moved her family to Lents (having moved bought property there) and is located permanently.

Dr. Villa Allen, who was formerly a resident in University Park, has returned to her home in Forest Grove, after a pleasant visit to her friends and at the fair.

Garrett Lyons is visiting his brother, Sherman Lyons, and his wife, of University Park. He likes the Park so far, but intends to see it thoroughly before going home.

O. R. Oshell and J. Oshell, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. S. J. Gray, returned home Friday to Rosebud, Pennsylvania. They greatly admired the fair.

Miss Riggs and her friend, Miss Potison, two young ladies from Kansas City, are visiting their cousin, J. D. Nash. They like the place very much and will return later.

Mrs. Dr. Vanscoy, formerly a resident of University Park, now of Eugene, is visiting her sister, Miss Eastman, on Fisk street. Miss Eastman has a nice and flourishing chicken ranch.

Mr. William Bunting and family, who have been visiting his sister, Mrs. Stevens, of 1836 Fisk street, returned home last Wednesday by way of Canada. He thinks University Park a remarkably pretty place.

Miss Lizzie Milasky, a resident of Pendleton, paid her old friend, Mrs. M. Brenner, of Dawson street, a flying visit last week. She is taking in Seattle, the Beach and the fair. She will return to inspect the Park.

Mrs. G. A. Harrison, from Kansas, is visiting her daughter and grandchild, Mrs. H. Coleman, on Portsmouth avenue. She is so much pleased with the whole environs that she expects to make her home among us.

Mrs. M. E. Stevens, of 1836 Fisk street, is rejoicing over the birth of her third grandchild. Her daughter, Mrs. Gregory, who paid her a 5-months' visit last year is the happy mother of a fine son. She looks for them on a visit shortly.

Mrs. F. Wolfram, from San Francisco, who has spent nearly all her time at the fair, where Mr. Wolfram has an exhibit in the agricultural building, returned home Thursday. She thinks Portland a fine city and takes away kind memories of the people she has met.

Young Herbert Witten, who was accidentally shot near Trout Lake Sundays was buried Tuesday at 9 o'clock a. m., in Love's cemetery. Columbia Slough, from the home of his parents on Portsmouth avenue. Being an only son makes his death particularly sad and much sympathy is felt for his parents. His age was fifteen years.

Emma, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nash, celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary last week Tuesday. Her guests were Grace and Nellie Ellis, Beryl Wilson, Francis Paine and Eleanor Ackerman. There was an abundance of ice cream and watermelons, and Mrs. Nash had picked a big basket of fine peaches off her orchard at St. Johns for them to enjoy.

Some More Stuff

A. J. Teeling, of the Heights, was on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Rider and Mrs. Belcher have moved into the Finley house on John street.

W. M. Macy and wife, and his son, A. P. Macy, and family, all from Dayton, are camping back of the Evangelical church. They will remain for a while and attend the fair.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Southmayd, Wednesday, August 16, a daughter. And so we grow. He says that the worst of it is that he will have no more help hanging paper.

It is rumored that there will be a large hotel and a large store erected in North St. Johns in the very near future. It begins to look as if some one had faith in the big mills starting very soon.

Elmer Poquet recently disposed of his half interest in the St. Johns Realty Company to J. H. Canright, of Portland. Although Mr. Canright lives in Portland now he expects to make St. Johns his home in the near future.

George Baker and Mrs. Rowena Baker, mother of Frank Baker, started for their old home in Clyde, Ohio, last Wednesday, where they will make their future home. Mr. Baker will secure a position in the county treasurer's office.

On Thursday evening, September 1, the Royal Neighbors plan to give a benefit for Mrs. York, a woman in needy circumstances. Mrs. York has several children dependent upon her earnings from washing—and has lately been so prostrated by illness as to prevent her working. The Royal Neighbors should be aided in this enterprise.

Our Local Grist

Mrs. Bertha Olson, of Haines, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Landrum.

George Carhart, of Point View, is building a large residence on the Boulevard.

J. W. Tallman left last night for Gaston, Oregon, to be absent a few weeks.

N. H. Snitter, who has been ill for the past few days, is again out, feeling much better.

Born, Friday, August 11, to Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bonner, a daughter. And so we grow.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Claire Hyde Tuesday, August 15. And so we grow.

Charles Kuykendall and wife from North Yamhill, Oregon, are visiting with Mr. Simmons and family a few days this week.

Will Stockton, uncle of Ed L. Stockton, was in St. Johns last Tuesday. Mr. Stockton has lately moved from Greeley, Colorado, to Portland.

Mrs. W. T. Raymer, worthy matron of the Eastern Star of Little Rock, Arkansas, and sister of W. B. Evans, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Evans.

Young Herbert Whitten, who was killed near Troutdale last Sunday, was insured in one of the old-line companies for about $120. He was an only son.

Mrs. M. F. Black, of the Heights, is expecting her brother and family, from Ogden, to visit her very soon. Mrs. Black has not seen her brother for fifteen years.

Rev. J. W. Stockton arrived from Oakland, Oregon, Tuesday morning, and will stay with his family at their residence in North St. Johns for a couple of weeks. He will take in the fair.

B. Simmons and family started on Tuesday for their old home in Manton, Michigan, where they will make their future home. Mr. Simmons is a farmer and will live on his ranch.

Sylvester Schelter, who came here from Oregon City, is living in a tent in Point View, till he can build his new house. He is at present building a house for George Carhart in Point View.

J. L. Wheeler, of Portland, is building a residence for Sam Downey, deputy sheriff of Multnomah county, on the property lately purchased from Thomas Higgins in North St. Johns.

W. C. Wright and wife, of Emery, South Dakota, are visiting Mr. Wright's brother, D. A. Wright. He is looking over the country, expecting to locate, and is very well pleased with St. Johns.

George Campling's wife and daughter, Stella, arrived from Green Bay, Wisconsin, lately, and will make their home in St. Johns. Mr. Campling, who came here last October, is a lathing contractor.

The Portland Marine Band put out some fine dance music last Sunday at the Cedar Park pavilion, and an orderly crowd enjoyed it. Ray Bullis and another St. Johns lad aided with the band work.

In another column may be found an announcement of a marked-down sale of millinery, ladies' underwear and hosiery at the St. Johns Millinery Parlors. Mrs. Rogers is conducting an honest sale and is a woman who impresses her patrons with her candor.

Delmore Wiley, of Grand Junction, Colorado, was guest of Mrs. W. G. Clark on Saturday last; and on Monday she entertained Mrs. W. H. Wharton and daughter, and Robert Sinclair, all of the same city—as well as Miss Bowers, of Eugene, Oregon.

A reference last week by an occasional correspondent wherein was mentioned "Easy Street Castle" was merely an insinuation that it was a residence upon a street occupied by those in easy circumstances. There was no intentional affront made or intended.

Ex-Mayor G. C. Briggs, of Loveland, Colorado, accompanied by Mrs. Briggs and a half dozen little playboys and playmates, was in this city a few minutes last Sunday. The party was in a hurry as it had a date with "the old man" to push him into church in Portland.

J. W. Thomas and wife, of Oswego, Oregon; his son, G. E. Thomas and wife, of Portland; Mrs. E. P. Clay, daughter of J. W. Thomas, from Arlington; David Bears, wife and daughter, and Delmer Wiley, of Grand Junction, Colorado, were visitors at the home of C. W. Arnett Sunday.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of J. C. Allen and T. R. Anderson, doing business under the name of the Boston Bakery, in St. Johns, Oregon, is dissolved by mutual consent. T. R. Anderson will continue the business under the title of Anderson & Co., and all bills are payable to the new firm.

J. C. ALLEN,
T. R. ANDERSON,
Dated: St. Johns, Oregon, August 16, 1905.

Bonds Turned Down.

The Chicago firm of buyers has turned down the municipal bonds of St. Johns upon the ground, principally, that the money to be derived from these bonds was not to be devoted to public utilities.

It is yet possible to communicate with one other firm who made an offer for the purchase of these bonds; but it is a question if it, too, would not turn down the proposition without examination—owing to the length of time that has elapsed since the bids were opened. The firm would doubtless fear some chicanery.

Funeral Tuesday.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Redner, who died at the home of her daughter, Miss Bell Redner, last Saturday afternoon, took place Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Redner was born in New York state, and came to Oregon about two years ago. She has been living in St. Johns for two months. Death resulted from a general breaking down of her system, she being seventy-four years old. She was taken to Portland to be buried. She leaves four sons and two daughters.

Still Improving.

On Wednesday N. A. Gee commenced moving the house where M. S. Rowland is living. Alexander Forbes, of Eureka, California, who purchased the property will immediately start the erection of a two-story business building on the lot. The lower part will be used for store rooms and the upstairs will likely be a large hall to be used for lodge meetings. Mr. Forbes states that he is not fully decided whether he will have office rooms or a hall on the upper floor—but presumes it will be a hall. George Packingham, who owns the Home Bakery, is the contractor.
