A FULL STOCK OF SCHOOL SUPPLIES

ON HAND FOR THE OPENING OF SCHOOL

ANNOUNCEMENT

We have decided to close the Soda Season as we opened it—with free soda water; but, owing to the great crowd which attended our opening, if you will remember, we have decided to restrict the free soda to school children who attend the first day of school. Each child must purchase some article in the line of school supplies, to show good faith as a regular attendant at the St. Johns Public Schools.

UNIVERSITY and PORTSMOUTH

The Grand Fellowship Degree of the United Artisans offered a beautiful silver loving cup for the assembly having the best drilled and most original march to exemplify the work in the subordinate assembly. It was to be contested for by as many assemblies in or near Portland as wished to take part. There were University Park Number 3, Woodlawn Number 4, Montavilla Number 158, and East Portland Number 2. To University Park Assembly Number 3 fell the honor of carrying off the prize. The exemplifiers taking part under directions of instructor Mrs. M. O. Paulk were Mrs. Y. A. Seigh, Miss Zula Faulk, Miss Bertha Otterstedt, Misses Bertha and Effie Titus, Messrs. George Otterstedt, Orville F. Merrill, Charles Church and W. B. Satterlee. The plan of march was laid out by Miss Zula Faulk and to her belongs a graces to a great extent the victory. The cup will have the names of all those participating engraved on it and will be on exhibition at Jaeger Brothers, Morrison street, Portland, who are the manufacturers of the cup.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Mrs. Ola Bender Thursday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. G. Howes. Games were played and light refreshments were served. Guests present were Mrs. Dooley, Mrs. Storey, Mrs. D. Webster, Mrs. J. D. Webster, Mrs. I. Cady, Mrs. George Staub, Mrs. S. Hudson, Mrs. O. C. McGowan, Mrs. B. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Temple, Miss Helen Dooley, Mrs. Hoyt, Miss Jessie Smith and little Helen Story.

Thursday evening, September 14, a few young friends of Nellie Cochran spent a very happy and jolly time at her home on Gerard street. Music and games passed away a sociable evening all too quickly. Refreshments were served. Those present were Lela Martin, Lela Dempsey, Lincoln and Hill Beechey, Thomas Sullivan and Francis Dempsey.

The ladies of University Park will give an entertainment at Odd Fellows' hall, Dawson street, September 28. A fine program will be rendered by the Golden Rule Five, of Macabees Guards. There will be living statues and nice refreshments will be served. All welcome to come and join in a good cause. Take the St. Johns car.

Miss Alice Willis, from Bozeman, Montana, who has been visiting Mrs. Thomas Cochran, of Gerard street, has returned home after a most delightful visit. Frequent trips to the fair and other places of amusement were thoroughly enjoyed by the young visitor.

Died on Thursday, September 14, at the family residence, 1623 1/2 1st street, University Park, Sarah Jane, aged 58 years, beloved wife of John Gray. She is survived by her husband, son and two grandsons, all of University Park.

Escaped from his cage at the residence of Mrs. F. Merrill, University Park, a fine singing canary, named yellow with black spot. Anyone finding this bird should kindly restore to its mistress.

D. V. Hart has another tenant for his cottage on Denver street: a family from Arbor Lodge. It is to be hoped he will not be treated as shabbily by these tenants as he was by the last ones.

Mrs. Edgar Hoyt's little son, who has been ailing slightly, is OK again. His mother did not expose him to the air last Saturday, baby day at the fair, but wisely stayed at home.

Miss Margaret Ryan, of Pendleton, has been visiting the daughters of Mrs. McCarthy, of Portsmouth avenue, during the absence of their mother, who is daily expected home.

Mrs. Thomas Cochran and Mrs. W. B. Satterlee, popular ladies of Gerard street, have been confined with severe colds, but are nearly over their small ailments.
