

ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER

A talk with us will convince you that ELECTRIC LIGHT is the only light you can afford to use in your home, or put in the house you are building. Your property will rent more readily, will pay a higher income, and attract a better class of tenants IF IT IS EQUIPPED WITH ELECTRIC LIGHT.

If you contemplate establishing any business requiring POWER, it will be to your advantage to talk with us before placing your orders for machinery.

The use of ELECTRIC power means: Lesser cost of operation, smaller amount of space required, and great saving in machinery and initial cost of installation of plant.

Advantages in the cost of producing power in Portland, in comparison with other cities of the country, enable us to make lowest rates and give unequalled service.

SEEK A FRANCHISE.

Two Franchises May Require Some Divorce Proceedings.

There would be no lack of franchise seekers to supply St. Johns with water if there was not at the present time an existing franchise. Yet there is one party ready to accept a franchise and protect this city against all legal proceedings and possible complications arising therefrom.

George J. Hibbard, an attorney from Seattle, was in this city the first of the week and expressed himself as firmly convinced regarding the brilliant future of St. Johns—as well as his desire to secure a 25-year water franchise for the city.

Mr. Hibbard seems to have considered the existing franchise very carefully, as he states that his clients will take care of any legal trouble arising. Just what Hibbard proposes to do—and how he proposes to do it—is more than he will tell; but it is a surety that he is anxious to get in here with a water plant. He will appear before the city council at an early date—and make his desires more completely known.

DESTROY STAKES.

Those Who Do So Will Be Probably Fined If Caught.

There has been a wanton destruction of the work done by the city engineers—and there seems to be a desire on the part of someone to cause needless expense. It costs considerable to place survey stakes; and Engineer Goodrich has sent to the city council a communication reading as below:

"There should be an ordinance, to wit:—Any person disturbing the stakes of the City Engineer when and where set, shall be held to have committed a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each stake disturbed, and not more than ten days in the lock-up or city jail; or fine and imprisonment both; for each conviction. This same ordinance is an imperative necessity."

It is hoped that those who commit these acts may be well punished.

Gave Musicale.

On Monday evening of this week a benefit musicale was given for Miss Mae Perkins at the Methodist church. The following program was delightfully rendered: "Columbia" by the choir; duet, the Misses Perkins; recitation, Mae Perkins; solo, Lillian Perkins; duet, Mesdames Hope, Learned and Bullis; "Suwance River," choir; solo, "I Cannot Sing The Old Songs," Mae Perkins; recitation, Lillian Perkins; duet, Mesdames Hansen and Bullis; solo, E. L. Perkins; "Sweet and Low," choir; recitation, Lillian Perkins; duet, Lillian and E. L. Perkins; duet, Lillian Perkins and Hope Learned; "America," congregation.

Reception.

Last Friday evening at the home of Otis Learned a reception was given to Rev. F. L. Young and family, and a pleasant evening was passed. Mr. Young is the newly arrived pastor of the Methodist church.

Gold Medals.

A gold medal has been awarded the Portland Manufacturing Company (venerable factory) upon the veneer panels exhibited in the forestry building.

Some More Stuff

Invitations are out for a progressive pedro party at the elegant home of Mrs. G. H. Carlson this (Friday) evening.

Mrs. M. L. Rowland and daughter, Sylvia, were in the city from Portsmouth on Tuesday—guest of Mrs. C. N. Braasch and Mrs. W. L. Thorndyke.

Miss Louise McKeon arrived on Wednesday from Big Timber, Montana, and is at home with her father, R. W. McKeon, of THE REVIEW. She will remain here permanently.

Mrs. W. G. Clarke contemplates at once removing to La Grande—where her husband now has employment. The move will probably be but temporary—as before long the couple will be back here in their old home.

Mrs. F. W. Valentine is entertaining her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton, of La Crosse, Washington. Recent visitors to the Valentine home have been Mrs. Valentine's cousins from Seaside—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bradbury.

Church Notices.

A FEW THORNS

"Dowie is paralyzed," says an exchange. "Five dollars and costs" is the customary remedy.

Lawrence Silliman, of Hood River, has just secured a pension. In this case a silliman proved to be a shrewdman.

A Missouri woman last week took a butcher knife and cut off her husband's tongue. Poor fellow! Think of what he has to take and never talk back!

Those Philadelphia hoodlers believe in wholesaling. The number of counts thus far found against them is 134—and the returns are still coming in.

Pat Crowe and young Cudahy seemed to have a surething cinch on dad's purse. But in these days of stentorosity the boys generally desire to live faster than the law allows.

In Seattle a man has cut his hands trying to rob a saloon. As a usual thing when a man tries to rob a saloon he cuts the sag off his own purse—and then cuts up something fearful!

If every Portland perjurer over the assessment rates gets into the pen as the law prescribes the enlargement of that penal institution will extend clear over in adjoining counties.

John Dairy and Mary Jersey were married in Southern Oregon last week. It needs a good Jersey to run a dairy in proper shape. Still, John had better not think he's the whole herd!

Hit a man on the knuckles and he'll seem astonished; hit him on his family honor and he'll seem indignant; hit him on his pocketbook and he'll throw a fit, swear, and froth at the mouth.

Pat Crowe says "God will take care of me!" It may be that Pat is in error. If God has been keeping cases on Pat it is harps to haloes that the other gentleman will look after Pat's welfare!

At Oregon City a lad has been arrested for having in his possession six umbrellas. That is a shame! Can't a fellow have a dry umbrella for every day in the week—and then stay in the house on Sunday?

In the Vienna house of parliament one of the speakers threw a glass of water at a fellow-operator. A great uproar followed this waste of water. Beer would have been cheaper—and, possibly, more "in taste."

A Missouri woman has been sentenced to ten years in the pen because she married a negro. We know some women who should receive the same punishment for marrying the white men who are their husbands.

A German minister in Berlin has given away his entire fortune of a quarter million dollars. Then he fell in love and, with the aid of his sweetheart, flimflammed $25000 from a lawyer. The lawyer shouldn't have been mad at that; think how he obtained the money!

"Swiftwater Bill" has had a hard time in attempting to spend his cash fast enough. At Seattle he tried to buy out the best theater for one performance so as to entertain his "friends." "Bill" should make a contract with one of St. Johns' contractors to build him a home; then he'd be broke.

Down in Benton county there is to be a "good roads" convention next week—and the county commissioners feel so tickled over it that they are to pay all road supervisors $2 per day for attending the session. Those commissioners are determined to bull the market: $2 is the regular price of a vote!

Elect Officers.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week the Methodist Aid Society met in a very pleasant manner with Mrs. Sarah Kemp. Sixteen were present, and Mrs. Alice Learned was the presiding officer. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year—President, Mrs. Sophie Tufts; vice president, Mrs. Alice Learned; secretary, Mrs. S. C. Calkins; treasurer, Mrs. Hope Learned. The outgoing president, Mrs. C. H. Campbell, will be greatly missed. Plans were made for a New England supper soon to be held. Sandwiches, coffee, cake and grapes were then served. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. W. L. Bullis.

An Oversight.

Through a blunder the ad of the West Coast Laundry was omitted from THE REVIEW last week—but that was no indication that the plant was not running.

This week the ad is shown—and we call particular attention to the institution. It should be well patronized.

Sold the Farm.

C. N. Braasch went up the valley last week to show a customer a farm lying between Grant's Pass and Gold Hill. He sold the place and returned Saturday evening. Mr. Braasch reports that it is too dry there to suit him.

THE REVIEW is well worth the dollar—and we need it at this time.
