RESOLUTION

Notice is hereby given that at the meeting of the Council of the City of St. Johns, Oregon, held on the 6th day of November, A. D. 1905, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved: That the Council of the City of St. Johns, Oregon, deems it expedient and proposes to improve John street from the north line of Jersey street to the south line of Modoc street in the following manner, to wit: To establish the necessary grade for paving and to improve said John street, by side walks, grade, etc. Said improvement to be made in accordance with the Charter and Ordinances of the City of St. Johns, and the plans, specifications and estimates of the City Engineer, filed in the office of the Recorder of the City of St. Johns. The cost of said improvement to be assessed as provided by the city charter upon the property specially and peculiarly benefited thereby and which is hereby declared to be all the lots, parts thereof and parcels of land within a line 100 feet from the outside line of each side of said John street. The Engineer's estimate of the probable total cost for the improvement of said street is $1060.81. The plans, specifications and estimates of the City Engineer for the improvement of said John street are hereby adopted.

Resolved: That the City Recorder of the City of St. Johns, be, and is, hereby directed to give notice of the proposed improvement of said John street as provided by the city charter. Remonstrances against the above improvement may be filed in writing with the undersigned within 15 days from the date of the first publication of this notice. By order of the council,

J. W. HANKS, City Recorder.

W. V. Jones refuses to longer remain in any sanitarium to be found. He has made several attempts to be satisfied at one of these health promoters in Portland—but each time has made a kick—and struck out for home. Mr. Jones has been used to an active, strenuous life—and the confining air of a sanitarium has a depressing effect upon him.

The Aff rmith of the Fair. Music Lovers Taking Advantage of the Greatest Bargains Ever Offered in the Piano Trade. Bona Fide Reductions of From 30 to 60 Per Cent. Only a Few Choice Left. Specially Easy Terms.

This sale of Exposition and used pianos, Pianola pianos, Orchestrelles, Pianolas and organs, has broken all previous big selling records of Ellers Piano House. It has enabled scores of homes throughout the northwest to secure a much-wanted piano or organ.

Yet there are hundreds of families who really need a piano, and who have felt heretofore that their means would not permit the possession of a really good one. A cheap or poorly made instrument, such as is frequently offered at "bargain" prices, they would never care to own.

It is to these people that we desire to direct our remarks just at this time. We put you in position now to secure a really fine piano or organ at a saving of from 30 to 60 per cent from the lowest cash price obtainable on same grade and quality of pianos ordinarily, and besides we make arrangements for you to pay for an instrument at this reduced price at virtually your own convenience.

Come in and ascertain how really easily you can own one, and, incidentally, look at the greatest display of fine pianos and organs ever shown.

Bear in mind that a few dollars down and a little effort each month now solves the music problem once and for all.

We'll let you select a piano now and store it free of charge for delivery as a Christmas Present. You name the hour and the day and we guarantee, barring possible delays by rail or steamboat, to make the Christmas delivery of your instrument when and where you desire. Inquiries by mail fully and promptly answered. Out of town orders filled with utmost care and accuracy. Ellers Piano House, 351 Washington, corner Park.

In Time Of Peace.

In the first months of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by Jackson's Pharmacy.

Another Brick Block.

Arrangements are now being made for the erection of another brick block at the west end of the Woodman block. M. L. Holbrook is getting estimates, through his contractor, F. J. Koerner, for removing stumps, excavating, brick, etc., and the building will commence as soon as the present brick is completed.

The new building will be 50x80 feet in size—and two stories high. It is to be finished in Koerner's usual style—all A. J. Work will be well under way by the first of January.

A Wrong Impression.

There is a prevailing impression that a person is obliged to take a prescription to the drugstore mentioned by the doctor or designated on the prescription blank, but such is not the case. Let your own judgment decide where to take your prescriptions. If you have more confidence in one druggist than in another, send your business where you have placed your confidence. May it be "The St. Johns Pharmacy."

Is Of Some Use.

A long time ago E. D. Hurlbert loaned his cart to someone—and for the life of him he couldn't remember to whom he lent it. On "all hallowed evening" a crowd of kids on mischief bent stole a cart, drew it a long distance, and placed it in Mr. Hurlbert's yard. When he looked at the acquisition next morning Mr. Hurlbert was surprised and pleased to note that his own cart had been returned.

Found.

MOTHER.

How I wish I could keep you away. In that calm and sweet repose! As I knew you then, in my childhood. Your cheeks were blushing the rose. 'Twas when, in the wild woods gathering. As the bleating fawn arose.

I've roamed the seas the world over. I've crossed the continent's trail. I've gloried in the hurricane's wrath, I have felt the Ice King's hail! But oh! how I miss you, dear mother. Because your love will ne'er fail!

How oft I lov'd to gather with you. The wild flowers near the rill. As the flashing sunsets shone brightly. Far off o'er vonder high hill. And to sweetly look into your face. And drink of pure love my fill!

Well does that parting reminder. Your departure long ago. To those brilliant and starry planets. Sparkling with gladness aglow. When the Heavens welcom'd you, dearest. To mansions of bliss, I know.

I oft wonder in my solitude. Of the flowers blooming there. If there is one as bright and joyous. And as sweet as you are fair? Do they bless that wondrous landscape. And their fragrance fill the air?

All about when you were here with me. Was that fragrance of rich love! It is the sweetest of all perfumes! That welcome of the above. When the angels welcom'd you, dearest. As a rose of perfect love!

Yes, the roses of infinite love. Are the loved ones here of earth; They were like you, my dearest mother. The loveliest from their birth. All such are most fragrant blossoms. Of incalculable worth!

[Note: The above poem, by William Wordsworth Goodrich, was handed in with this explanation: At the annual meeting of the Gristiron Club, at Washington, D. C., this poem was repeated from memory by Eugene Field. At the board were James G. Blaine, President of the Club, and many others of the country's great men. Eugene Field said, "Gentlemen, here's to our mothers! The angels of perfect love!" Mr. Blaine added, "The American mothers' influence weaves the warp and woof that will make ours the most respected of all nations, and, as once said by Mr. Lincoln, "Our mother's is the one influence that is imperishable." The toast was drank in silence and the guests stood several moments with bowed heads.]

Sells More Of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Than Of All Others Put Together.

Thomas George, a merchant at Mount Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by Jackson's Pharmacy.

Some More Stuff

Funny how the truth hurts sometimes, isn't it?

Say! Have you noticed that fine coal at Poff & Carey's feed store?

The Peninsular mill is about to install new boilers. Another increase and more help!

Dr. DeVaul has removed his office from the Park to the brick building at Portsmouth.

Mrs. Starr is doing well in her boarding house venture. Her rooms are nearly all occupied.

The shingle mill is running steadily, with a full force. Mr. Eastlake has been put in charge of the first floor.

Millard Seiscl is at home sick the past week. He has been a trusted employee of Olds, Wortman & King for some time.

Mr. Temple is about to build another new house on Fiske street soon. He will have one hundred feet of concrete sidewalk.

William Sicecl says his occupation—that of digging cess-pools—has increased considerably the past few weeks; he thinks THE REVIEW a good, wide-awake paper and has become a subscriber.

Mrs. D. O. Webster is on her way home from Boston. She stopped off at Chicago for a short visit with relatives. Dr. Webster is now making his calls in a canopy-top buggy—so extensive has his practice grown.

Ladies of Holy Cross Parish will entertain on the evening of Friday, November 24, in Artisan Temple, Portsmouth. It is to be a whist party—and the price of admission, including refreshments, is to be 15c. A gold watch will be raffled.

Mrs. Schuman has a box of confections on her counter which some little rascals thought an easy mark. A crowd of them entered her store and engaged Mrs. Schuman in conversation while a confederate proceeded to fill his pockets. In less time than it takes to tell it the hero was seized, stood on his head, made to disgorge—and soundly thrashed.

The generous-hearted ones had a chance to spread themselves last week when a smooth-looking young man with his wife struck the Park, and began to strike its good citizens individually. With the promise of a job at the shingle mill and a sick wife as the "game" several good Samaritans "bit." After doing the town the pale-faced youth with the gold cap and big wife bade us adieu last Saturday.

Nice rooms and good board can be obtained of Mrs. Hatfield, 1619 Fiske street, University Park. Phone Scott 6793.

Rev. E. R. Hermiston, the noted ex base-ball player—now a noted divine, will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church, at University Park, next Sunday evening. He will deliver the same address he gave to the Y. M. C. A. at Portland last Sunday evening. Rev. John Bentzein will occupy the pulpit at the morning service.

Harry Casteel, son of William Casteel, of this place, died at Phoenix, Arizona, Thursday of this week. Mr. Casteel did not know of the boy's illness until Wednesday night—when he received a telegram from the Phoenix hospital stating that Harry was very low. Thursday morning another telegram came announcing his death. Mr. and Mrs. Casteel started for Pittsfield, Illinois, to which point the body will be shipped for interment. Harry was well-known in the Park.

A NEW STORE.

R. V. Hoyt, watchmaker and jeweler, has opened up for business in the brick building at Portsmouth. A general repairing business will be conducted. Mr. Hoyt is a property owner here and has a number of friends who will take pleasure in watching his business grow. When THE REVIEW correspondent called on Mr. Hoyt he was busy getting his store in order, but on the counter were a half dozen clocks brought in to be mended the first day. There is no doubt that the venture will prove a paying one. A neat little stock of jewelry is shown in the window.

At University.

Mrs. Callie Howe, State Lecturer and Organizer for Missouri in W. C. T. U. work, will speak at the Methodist church at University Park, Tuesday evening, November 21. She is a speaker of rare ability and it is hoped that a large audience will greet her.

Died Very Suddenly.

Roland, the six-years-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Jenison, died at their home on Vanderbilt street, University Park, Friday, November 10—after an illness of but 48 hours. The lad had about recovered from an illness when he was taken with pneumonia from which he did not recover.

Funeral services were held at the home of the parents on Sunday—Rev. Waters officiating.

A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS TRANSACTED

Removal Sale

Preparatory to the time of moving we will offer a number of big bargains in everything in our line, to reduce the stock so as to make moving easy. All show cases, scales—in fact, everything in the store, is offered for sale, as we intend to put in new fixtures. The entire building is now offered for rent.

Absolutely Free

We want every lady in town to call at our store and get a sample of Seal Brand Coffee. A nice little container and enough coffee to make six cups of fine coffee, absolutely free. It does not make a bit of difference whether you trade here or not; come get the sample—it is free. We guarantee the coffee in every way, and if you do not like it, bring it back and get your money.

Honey! Honey! A fine lot of white clover honey came in with our last shipment and will be sold at the regular price of 15 cts per pound. Honey is going up fast.

Black Tea Special This is our regular 50 cent per pound grade. During our removal sale it goes, as long as the supply lasts, at only 25 cents per pound. No more than two pounds to a person.

Small Hams By a special buy we have secured a large lot of small picnic hams that will be sold at the special price of only 11 1/2 cents per pound.

BUILDING for RENT! FIXTURES for SALE!

Our new location will be ready for us about December 15, and before that time we want to clear out every dollar's worth of our present stock. New stock will have been ordered and several new lines will be added just as soon as possible. Our aims are to be the leading store in this section—our customers are helping us accomplish this.
