ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER

A talk with us will convince you that ELECTRIC LIGHT is the only light you can afford to use in your home, or put in the house you are building. Your property will rent more readily, will pay a higher income, and attract a better class of tenants IF IT IS EQUIPPED WITH ELECTRIC LIGHT.

If you contemplate establishing any business requiring POWER, it will be to your advantage to talk with us before placing your orders for machinery.

The use of ELECTRIC power means: Lesser cost of operation, smaller amount of space required, and great saving in machinery and initial cost of installation of plant.

Advantages in the cost of producing power in Portland, in comparison with other cities of the country, enable us to make lowest rates and give unequalled service.

Desires Good Government.

City Engineer Goodrich is an enthusiast upon good government—and for having a city that will be a model. A general complaint has been made by many of the good women of this city regarding the profane and filthy language used by "men" while upon the public thoroughfares of the city—language wholly uncalled for and particularly obnoxious to men and women of good breeding.

There is an unenforced law against, and a penalty prescribed for, such language. It is a national law—but is so seldom brought to light that few know of it. The following suggestion by Mr. Goodrich is a very pertinent one—and a few fines against those who are so free with profanity and nastiness in public places might lessen the practice.

"There should be an ordinance, which is quite imperative, that profanity in public places shall be a misdemeanor punished with a fine or imprisonment, or both; an offence to be fined five dollars ($5) or five days in jail, or both; repeated to be fined not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) or twenty-five days in jail, or both.

"There will be from now on much public work. Said public work attracts certain characters who, by their insolence and profanity, are a public nuisance and said characters should be suppressed summarily, with the power bestowed on the marshal to arrest and detain them in the jail, subject to the will of the recorder."

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Jackson's Pharmacy.

To Sanitarium

Last week Mrs. J. H. Crook was taken ill—but nothing serious was anticipated. Mr. Crook was struggling with a dose of lumbago but was managing to get about in a slow way. Mr. Crook decided, however, early Friday morning to have his wife taken to a Portland sanitarium—and an ambulance came for her as soon as possible. Her condition is not considered, at this writing, in any way dangerous; her removal being merely to hasten her recuperation.

King Of All Cough Medicines.

E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Connecticut, who has been in the United States service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by Jackson's Pharmacy.

Chess Players.

A caller at THE REVIEW office is very anxious to learn if there are any chess-players in this city. If there be any such who would like to play for amusement and practice this paper would be pleased to have the names. In this way an arrangement may be made that will prove pleasant for all concerned.

Sealed Bids Wanted.

Sealed bids will be received by the Recorder of the City of St. Johns, Oregon, up to ten o'clock a. m. of Friday, December 1, 1905, for the furnishing and placing in position of suitable metal signs at street intersections bearing names of the several streets. Said signs to be about four inches wide, of proper length, and plainly marked in white letters not less than two and one-half inches high upon a dark back-ground. Signs must be in place within 30 days from the time contract is awarded—and no payments will be made till the work shall be accepted by the Street Committee.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. Bids must be accompanied by a full-size sample of the work.

B. T. LEGGETT,

Chairman of Street Committee. St. Johns, November 29, 1905.

A Pretty Home

Crook & Waiton have finished a peculiarly pretty home for P. A. Smith on Burlington street, north, and it attracts more than a glance from all who pass. The house is finished in a perfect manner and ranks among the beautiful homes of the city.

A FEW THORNS

Because a man eats clams on Thanksgiving is no sign he is one.

Maybe after this they'll not send word when they're going to send Word to St. Johns!

A man who has lived in Corvallis 22 years has gone crazy. Possibly there's a reason for this.

At Gresham they dilute drinking water with milk. A fresh cow fell into a well there last Friday!

The paralyzing of a dray horse at Cottage Grove a few days ago set the detectives looking for blind pigs.

It has been suggested that it be written after this "pg"—a pig without any eye: hence a "blind" one.

Speaking of "union made" shoes—can a fellow wear them over eight hours a day without having his corns strike?

After all, it might have paid that Portland department store to have signed the $500 contract. It has lost a lot of business.

A nice way to lose discontent is to watch a fellow scratch the fleas that have just left you. Your loss—his gain, you know.

Dowie has returned from Havana—where he has been "planting" a colony. The old man has done lots of planting—in his way.

You could trade a ten-pound turkey this week for a $3 pair of shoes—by adding four bits. And the shoes would be worth the mon, too.

Attorney J. B. Dill is to help prosecute the life insurance frauds. Sharp fellow, that Dill: it is asserted that he is the father of all the Dill pickles.

At Salem two fellows who lost a few dollars at gambling have sued the winner for double the sums lost. And yet 'tis said that only real men gamble!

If whiskey takes the lining off a man's stomach there's many a man whose stomach must be going round it its shirt-sleeves while the coat is having a lining put in!

A. J. Seaman, of Omaha, is worth $100,000—yet lives on 15c a day and dresses on $5 a year. That's the way he became worth his fortune—but think of the fun he's lost!

"The Best Mother Is The Club Woman" says a woman of Portland. Yes, and if every mother would use the club with more frequency she'd have more politeness instilled into her children.

Oregon's cry of a coal shortage is foolishness. Oregon has "wood to burn." Millions of cords are burned in the field every year because of lack of push to cut it into stove length and sell it.

Portland restaurant keepers furnish music with meals—in vain endeavor to hide the quality of the cooking. The music also seems to inflame guests with a desire to tip the whole establishment.

Attorney Manning, district prosecutor, says the mayor of Portland can't arrest gamblers over in Clackamas county. And the mayor of Portland says "B' gosh, ye can, too: an' I did! So, there!"

The only difference is that the district attorney "stands in" with one clique of gamblers—and the mayor "stands in" with another! Now roll up your pants, feller citizens, an' wade in fer a scrap!

Sherman Shaffer, of Helena, Montana, last week made a bet that he could drink a quart of gin in fifteen minutes. He won. His widow's only regret was that the amount won was not large enough to defray all the funeral expenses.

When Jonah went prospecting for oil in the whale's—well, in the whale's society, he wrote to his father that he'd just dropped in to a pretty good thing where there was a good opening. A few days later when Jonah realized what he was up against he wrote to his father as follows: "Dear dad, I think I was sucked in."

THORN.

Took One Dozen.

W. E. Swengel, the harness man, has just completed the deal whereby he becomes owner of twelve lots in block 31 in the Point View precinct. These are parcelled out by him to members of his family—and nothing will be done with them till spring. It is probable that at least three cottages will be erected upon them when summer comes. Mr. Swengel is highly pleased over his purchase.
