The Woman Lied.

The departure from St. Johns last Monday of a woman and her young daughter, brought out the following story:

It was a few weeks ago while the woman and her sweet faced little one were returning by car from Portland. She was regaling the passengers with stories of her elegant dresses and elaborate wardrobe. While gesticulating, her companion called her attention to her shabby gloves, several of her fingers being visible.

"Yes, you bet I need a pair of gloves," said the talkative female. "But I found a nice pair the other day and don't know who owns them."

Her young daughter looked her straight in the eye, and in a voice loud enough to be heard by every one in the car, said:

"Oh mamma, what a lie! You know you saw that lady drop them in the theatre, and you picked 'em up and put 'em in your pocket and never said a word."

The look that youngster got from her portly mother indicated there would be something doing when the pair reached home.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Jackson's Pharmacy.

One Trip Convinced Him.

St. Johns has long been pointed out as the one town in Oregon that would never have a saloon in its midst. But alas, a bid of $1000 proved entirely too much for that very moral town. A license was granted to the "St. Johns Hotel Company," to sell malt, spirituous, and vinous drinks for the period of one year. Now this may seem to be a very small sum for to cause such a change of heart, but when one reflects that there has never been a time that one could not get all the booze required, and that the city received no revenue therefrom, it looks to a degenerate like ourselves as if the city dads had just begun to realize how great their folly has been. As long as "tanglefoot" is manufactured it will be drunk, and we think that it is better to do so under the supervision of the law than surreptitiously. That it is better for the saloon or hotel than by boot leggers on the sly, for it will be sold, that is sure. We were in St. Johns but once, but we know.—Adams Advance.

King Of All Cough Medicines.

E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Connecticut, who has been in the United States service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by Jackson's Pharmacy.

A Big Bird.

Paul Cochran made a good shooting record last Sunday on the slough when he shot a swan of large dimensions. So far as known a swan has not been shot in that locality for several years and the lad is highly elated over his game.

The bird measured seven feet from tip to tip, and was a beauty. It is to be finely mounted and will be a handsome addition to any home or office.

Clarence Clennan was with Paul Cochran when the swan was shot—the boys usually hunting in pairs. And over this game they each feel equally proud.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It has an established reputation of more than thirty years as the most successful medicine in use for colds, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Jackson's Pharmacy.

Ten, Twent', Thirt'.

E. F. Wicker was down from St. Johns, Oregon, last Tuesday renewing his acquaintance with his old friends at Kalama. He has made arrangements with Mr. Carlson for the opera house and expects to put on a 10c vaudeville three nights each week, beginning about the first of the year.—Kalama Bulletin.

A FEW THORNS

A popular play now is "The Hand of Shame." Isn't that a shame?

At Corvallis last week was held a big poultry show—and every old hen in the county was singing her little lay.

If the devil was half as bad as is claimed he should be ashamed of himself. He is blamed for so much that he doesn't do that he is really abused.

A Wisconsin girl is suing a man for $100 because he kissed her. She must be trying to "bull" the market—as one dollar is the regular price.

When one learns that the name of the president of Portland's commercial club is Cake he is tempted to ask "pound, sponge, or jelly-roll?"

The man who now invests in old-line life insurance is in a condition where a "gardeen" is an absolute necessity. See Tom Lawson for full details.

Down at Seio they are not very swift. A man lost a watch on a public street three years ago and has just gotten around to advertise it. He is a swift one.

A Gold Hill turkey weighed 35 pounds after it was all undressed. We suppose a turkey is undressed when all its clothes are off. That was too large a turkey to give a weigh.

At Skamokawa a man named Lott owns a lot of land on the waterfront. Lott has forbidden anyone from backing up a lot of logs on his lot; if they persist in so doing there'll be a lot of fun when Lott starts in.

"Reading maketh a full man"—but it won't do it half as quick as one of those 5c Chinese whiskey shops of Portland. Every second drink makes the spender throw a fit—and four fits means a free lot in the cemetery.
