Up-to-date modern cottages for rent at St. Johns Heights from $10 up. Inquire of J. B. Campbell, at boat house.

A five-minute hail storm fell Monday afternoon. The hail dropped as gently as rain—and in a few moments the real rain dropped in torrents.

Superfluous hair, moles, etc., permanently removed by the electric needle. Frances Vanhorn, 311 East John street, St. Johns.

Rev. Guy F. Phelps, evangelist, will reach St. Johns and commence the special meetings at Evangelical church on Tuesday, March 6, instead of on Sunday, March 4.

Our harness maker will do your harness repairing neater, cheaper and quicker than Portland. W. E. Swengle, Tacoma street.

Any one wishing to rent a six-room house, near business center, with fine river view, call at this office.

A large four-masted schooner, heavily laden, has been anchored in the middle of the river in front of this city for over a week. Some say the vessel is under quarantine, but this is hardly possible.

An insurance policy in a reliable company is as good as money in your pocket in case of loss by fire. Ask the Peninsula Bank.

B. F. Neil couldn't stand life away from St. Johns—hence he moved his family back here from Portland. And Mrs. Neil was one of the most pleased of women when she once more took up residence here!

It doesn't pay to have your life insurance policy written by a stranger. Have it done here in St. Johns by a home man. I have the best company in the world. W. H. King.

H. G. Ogden, wife and daughter, of Mason City, Iowa, arrived in St. Johns Sunday evening—and are guests of Mrs. Ogden's mother—Mrs. L. A. McKeon. Mr. Ogden came to learn what an Oregon was like.

Will do all kinds of sewing at very reasonable prices, and in satisfactory manner. Mrs. E. Sanders, 419 Chapel street.

The date selected for the entertainment of the Odd Fellows in their new hall will be Monday, March 19—instead of Tuesday following. It is expected that a nice little program will be given at that time, and those who may be invited will "without doubt have a pleasant evening. The Odd Fellows do things right.

Fire may destroy your home any time. Are you protected against partial or total loss? If not, call at the Peninsula Bank and learn the small amount that will give you protection.

Attention is called to the announcement in this issue of the Columbia Woolen Mills Company—the tailoring company that makes only first-class goods and in a first-class manner. The ads of this firm are always interesting—and truthful: and the fact that the trade of the Columbia is rapidly on the increase shows that the people have confidence in what these same ads state. The Columbia is still making the extra trousers for those who desire the "special offer."

One need not be born with a veil or the gift of prophecy to foresee that lots between Fisk street in University Park and Macrum avenue in Northern hill on Dawson street which extends through the centre of that rapidly growing district between the rivers in Portland, and now selling for $15 per front foot, will, within twenty years from today, sell for one thousand dollars per front foot.
