FRIDAY, MAY 25, 1906.

Keep tab on the promises of this and that particular candidate. It will be handy reference for the future.

The organization of the street car men probably means more than it looks to the ordinary observer.

Ninety days were spent in the U. S. senate doing a hop, step and jump around the rate bill.

In spite of the misleading and incorrect reports to the contrary it has been proven that the soldiers of the regular army did not cause a single violent death at San Francisco.

The "Made in Oregon" idea was a good one. It has opened the eyes of many old-timers and the late arrivals.

To render the telephone and electric light poles attractive to local residents and the thousands of visitors who come here weekly the corporations owning and operating these unsightly but necessary necessities should be compelled to erect poles of uniform size and paint them white or some shade pleasing to the eye.

At the next general election in Oregon woman suffrage will again be placed before the people to say whether they want it or not.

Oglesby Young. Oglesby Young, the Democratic candidate for circuit judge Department No. 2, is making an active campaign with good prospects of being elected. Mr. Young was brought up on a farm in Missouri. His first work after leaving the farm was as a car builder at St. Charles, Missouri. He is 43 years old and for the past twelve years has been actively and successfully engaged in the practice of law in Portland. He is a self made man, of high character, good habits and affable manner. Mr. Young stands for a non-partisan, independent judiciary. He takes the high ground that a judge should not accept fees from railway companies, or any favors from any corporation or individual, which would not be accorded him as a private citizen. His fitness and qualifications for the office are pre eminent.

A Pkasing Musical. Mrs. Mae Wright's singing class gave an enjoyable musical in the M. E. Church Monday evening. The program was interspersed with recitations, and the participants acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner. The musical demonstrated the fact that St. Johns can boast of possessing a number of singers with voices far above the average, and also reflects much credit upon Mrs. Wright's careful training. A feature of the evening's entertainment was a dolly song by Alta Bickner and Alice Carver, in which the little misses made quite a hit. The program complete was received too late for publication.

Willis Moxon is making preparations to build another house on his residence tract on Moloc street. The St. Johns Lumber Co. sawed its first log Wednesday. Regular work will not begin for a week or ten days.

The meeting of the Commercial Club Wednesday evening was devoted principally to discussing the best mediums of advertising. The committee soliciting subscriptions for the band reported pledges secured amounting to $64.50 monthly. The Evening Telegram came in for a large brown roast on account of a slanderous article concerning St. Johns published in its issue of Saturday last. M. L. Holbrook, W. Moxon and G. J. Perkins were appointed a committee on publicity. Eleven new members were added to the club.
