

WE ARE STILL SELLING STOVES!

Our first shipment of 65 heating stoves is exhausted, except a few odd sizes, while in some styles—namely, our "Cheerful" line—we have in the third shipment since the heater season has opened. This same "Cheerful" heater is the best wood stove in St. Johns; has heavy cast bottom and sectional cast lining, spark shield over damper; large, close fitting door provided with smoke curtain that prevents smoke from issuing into the room when fuel is put in.

Our line of Crown and Cascade Ranges, all made by Niagara Stove Co., Buffalo, are going out so fast we can scarcely keep a line of samples on our floor. They are winners. Let us show them to you and give you prices.

Let us sell you a wire door mat. Easy to clean and will last a lifetime.

Full line of paints, oils, all kinds of inside varnishes, etc. In fact, our stock includes everything found in a first-class hardware store.

Those who are looking for bargains in second hand furniture will do well to read the local in this issue of M. J. McGrath. Numerous St. Johns people can testify to the fair dealing of this gentleman.

The owner needing more money will sell one of three fine business lots. Two are centrally situated on Jersey street; one-third cash, balance on two or three years' time. Inquire at 240 Fifth street, Portland, Oregon.

A man named McDonald and his wife were held up by a highwayman in Portland last week and the wife was compelled to ransom her husband's pockets for valuables. The robber evidently thought a woman would know better than he in what pocket her husband usually kept his money.

A couple of geese killed at different periods have been responsible for the discovery of gold in the White Salmon valley. When the geese belonging to a rancher were killed each were found to contain a nice little stack of the yellow metal.

A careful investigation disclosed gold in paying quantities, and now the rush is on. A boiling mineral spring is also said to have been discovered in the valley near the Columbia river. Its medicinal properties are now being ascertained.

A large dredge is now being constructed at Seattle for work on the slough at the site of the Swift Packing plant. When completed the dredge will get busy at once and operations will begin on a large scale on this mammoth plant. It is said that Armour and two other packing companies will also erect necessary buildings for their operations adjoining the Swift company's structures. In Chicago and other cities these plants are situated in the same locality, and rumor has it that such will be the case on the Columbia.

Ten dollars down and ten cents a day are the terms on which University Park lots are sold. University Park lots are selling right along while others are still, because University Park has the largest payroll on the peninsula, because it has Bull Run water, a university which brings a cultured class, a liquor restriction which excludes saloons. Portland public schools, and first and foremost it believes that a steady growth and good morals pay best in the long run. Francis I. McKenna is the selling agent for University Park lots.

Mrs. Jane Epps died at her home in St. Johns Saturday, Nov. 10th, aged 61 years, 1 month and 7 days. Deceased came to Oregon in 1886 from the state of Ohio, and has lived in Oregon ever since. Mrs. Epps was a conscientious christian lady and was well liked by all who knew her. She is survived by one son, L. G. Epps of St. Johns. The little son of Mrs. Atchison was taken to a Portland hospital last Monday in an ambulance, seriously ill with typhoid fever.

Some very creditable entertainments are given each Friday afternoon in the assembly hall of the school house, to which the general public is invited.

Prices of lots in University Park were advanced yesterday, and those who forgot to take advantage of the low prices will have to pay the freight. Some of the most attractive homes and building sites on the peninsula are in University Park.

Already some of the "oldest inhabitants" are predicting a worse flood than that of 1894 for Portland. One of the arguments is that an exceptionally dry season like that of last summer is generally followed by heavy rains in the valleys and snows in the mountains.

"Didn't you tell, sir, you could hold the plow?" said a farmer to an Irishman whom he had taken on trial. "Arrah, be aisy now!" said Pat. "How the deuce can I hold it and the two horses drawing it away from me? But give it to me in the barn, and be jabers I'll hold it with anybody."—Exchange.

On account of the item published in last week's Rivview to the effect that the brush on the outskirts of the city was the hiding place of numerous Chinese pheasants, numerous hunters and their dogs were out in force last Sunday. The largest bag was secured by a couple of boys, who succeeded in bringing down four of the game beauties.

J. H. Williams of Pendleton was in the city on Monday. Mr. Williams owns some good St. Johns real estate, and on his visit here added several lots in the Holbrook addition to his possessions. He is a firm believer in the future of the lower peninsula and will possibly become a resident of our city before long.

Col. Thos. Monahan, manager of the General Electric Co. in this city, promises to have some kind of a new-fangled electrical dingus in working order by the first of the month that will enable all users of incandescent lights to see when the current is turned on after dark.

Emil Paarz, who is employed on the Stanley-Smith mill in Hood River valley, spent several days the past week with his family on Hayes street. Mr. Paarz says the Hood River fruit growers are reaping a golden harvest from the apple crop this year, and next year's crop is partly sold.

The United States army is the drunkest in the world, according to figures contained in the report of Surgeon-General O'Reilly, head of the medical department of the army, which has just been made public. Though Gen. O'Reilly does not state specifically that this undisciplined eminence has been attained since the abolition of the canteen system, several commanding generals have made this claim. The report also makes clear that many diseases from which soldiers suffer are caused by driving them outside of the post for amusement.
